JOE ORLECK
OF
Cash Box

August 10, 1963

Dear Friends:

Our "Baby" is now 21 years old. Born in 1942 — a small, skinny, brawling infant — it is now a man of gigantic proportions, a world's leader.

As our "Baby' added years, it also added strength and stature. Conceived to fill a much needed gap 21 years ago, Cash Box rapidly gained the confidence of its readers and advertisers, because its function served the requirements of our industry—a fearless, honest, progressive, intelligent weekly publication, with complete UNDERSTANDING of the industry's problems. Cash Box, during its 21 years, has instituted any number of services, which were so sound and beneficial, that many were copied by our competition. Copied—but never equalled.

Year after year, as Cash Box grew, it caught up and passed its elderly companions in the field—and as Cash Box attains its maturity in 1963—it is the ACKNOWLEDGED LEADER in ALL phases of industry-wide service throughout the World.

This 21st Annual Directory, the largest, most complete, most comprehensive issue ever published in our industry, is Living Proof of Cash Box Leadership.

We thank our legion of friends throughout the World for making it possible to reach this historic milestone, and we assure them that we shall continue to serve them well in the years ahead.

SMASH'S Lucky 13

STABLE OF ARTISTS

America's newest and greatest singing group, THE ANGELS are winging their way to stardom with their latest release, "My Boy Friend's Back." Fantastic sales already reported coast-to-coast!

DICKEY LEE is recognized as the most exciting new talent of the year with his current "Patches" and "I Saw Linda Yesterday."

JOE DOWELL has already made his mark in music with the "TOP OF THE CHART" tunes: "Little Red Rented Rowboat" and "Wooden Heart." Watch for more excitement by JOE DOWELL on SMASH!

MOTHER MAYBELLE CARTER, one of America's foremost exponents of folk music, expertly performs folk tunes on the zither. Watch for her second album on SMASH this fall.

Ever since BRUCE CHANNEL'S first SMASH hit, "Hey Baby," he has catapulted to the zenith of popularity among the nation's teensters.

THE ECHOES, who gave you "Baby Blue" and "Bluebirds Over The Mountains," have still another hit in "A Million Miles From Nowhere."

TONI FISHER, the singer "for lovers of all ages," as termed by Walter Winchell, sings "You Won't Forget Me" on SMASH. It promises to be a blockbuster!

BILL JUSTIS is credited with 3 Chart instrumental album hits—"Alley Cat & Green Onions," "Telstar — The Lonely Bull," and "Cast Your Fate To The Wind." His latest LP, "Tamoure—Watermelon Man," is also chart-bound.

KENNY DINO, "The Rock 'n' Roll singer with polish," has just signed with SMASH. His platters promise to SMASH all previous sales!

Tenor Saxman BILLY MITCHELL, of Count Basie fame, steps out on his own to bring you the finest sounds in jazz. His taste is excellent and sales are high!

MATT LUCAS emerged as America's new young singing sensation in the spring of 1963 when the hit SMASH platter "I'm Moving On" introduced the handsome, dynamic talent to the music world.

IVORY JOE HUNTER of "Since I Met You Baby" fame joins the SMASH line-up. His album, "Ivory Joe Hunter's Golden Hits" is already a SMASH-EROO!

Making his debut for SMASH Records, JOHNNY CASWELL'S "At The Shore" is already bringing in fantastic sales and promises to break all records!

The Symbol of Quality

ASCAP

ASCAP – the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers – an unincorporated, non-profit membership association of the 9200 outstanding men and women who write and publish our nation's songs, the Society also represents the music of more than 50,000 writers of other countries The Society, which was organized in 1914, has always served the public by encouraging musically creative talent. Its members represent every phase of musical literature: the popular songs of today, the standards of yesterday, the Broadway and motion picture hits, as well as the leading symphonic and concert works, religious, folk and country music.

"SURFER GIRL"

For All Deejays with good voices—cut out for sing-a-long

Little surfer, little one
Made my heart come all undone
Do you love me, do you, surfer girl
I have watched you on the shore
Standing by the ocean's roar
Do you love me, do you, surfer girl
We could ride the surf together
While our love would grow
In my woody I will take you
Everywhere I go
So I say from me to you
I will make your dreams come true
Do you love me, do you, surfer girl

When Rusty Draper and Fred Foster first met, both were working for the same label: Rusty as an artist, Fred as a promotion man. They became good friends. Fred left the label and soon founded Monument Records. Rusty stayed on because of his contract. Rusty's contract has now expired. He zoomed to Nashville and quickly signed with Monument. Fred Foster is so happy. So is Rusty Draper. Isn't that beautiful? monument is artistry

SESAC Adds New Reps In Int'l Music Drive

SESAC, the music licensing organization, has in recent months, greatly intensified its move to promote its vast copyrighted repertory abroad by completing representation agreements with four additional societies: TEDSTO (Finland); APRA (Australia and New Zealand); SABAM (Belgium, the Congo, Ruanda, Urandi) and SAYCO (Colombia).

These four major performing and mechanical rights societies were added to the list of organizations previously signed to represent SESAC's performing rights: AKM (Austria), BUMA (the Netherlands), CAPAC (Canada), PRS (Great Britain), SACEM (France), SACM (Mexico), SUISA (Switzerland), TONO (Norway), STIM (Sweden) and KODA (Denmark). In addition, SESAC's performing and mechanical rights are currently being represented by: GEMA (Germany), JASRAC (Japan) and SADAIC (Argentina), while MCPS in London, BIEM in Paris and D. Davis & Company, Pty. Ltd. (Australia) handle SESAC's mechanical rights only.

Through sub-publishing arrangements many SESAC copyrights have been recorded and released in Australia, Italy, France, Great Britain, etc. In addition, SESAC "repertory recordings" are shipped regularly to broadcasting facilities in nearly every section of the globe. These 45 rpm EP's, a gratis service provided by SESAC, have just had their distribution increased to include Europe, the Far East, ect. "repertory recordings" contain samples from the SESAC recordings LP's which are currently in use in such areas as Trinidad, Venezuela, South Africa, the Philippines, Aruba, Peru, Singapore, Guam, Australia, Hong Kong, Copenhagen, Puerto Rico, London, Rome, Paris, Canada, etc. The United Nations, too, is a subscriber to the SESAC LP Service and utilizes this recorded material in many of its daily broadcasts heard throughout the world.

SESAC music has long been well-known on the international scene through its representation of an important segment of foreign music, including the rights of the entire Polish repertory, a broad segment of Israeli music and many top continental publishing houses.

With representatives now in most sections of the world, the SESAC home office is located in the Coliseum Tower, 10 Columbus Circle, New York.

in tune with the world

The SESAC repertory is a growing source of musical works for sub-publishers throughout the world, radio and television broadcasters and leading international recording artists. This repertory of distinction is in demand in all phases of the entertainment industry wherever music is performed and heard. It sets the trend, captures the pulse beat and embodies the very spirit and essence of American music in a wide variety of musical styles to suit each and every taste—gospel and religious, country and western, jazz, pop, concert, military band, Hawaiian, Latin-American and many, many more. Constantly increasing this repertory and enlarging its world-wide publisher representation is all part of a continual program of expansion at SESAC, America's second oldest music licensing organziation.

MAGNAGROOVE RECORDS*

PRIMA PRIMA PRIMA

Our First Album . . . Just Released!

WE ARE VERY PROUD OF OUR FIRST MAGNAGROOVE ALBUM JUST RELEASED

PRIMA SHOW IN THE CASBAR

Prima in Vegas . . .

The midnite show . . . for the first time . . . recorded exactly as performed . . . live from the stage of Sahara Hotel's Casbar Theatre . . . note for note . . . beat for beat . . . word for word . . . nothing left out . . . a performance syncopated by the rattle of glasses, the whirling of blenders, the stirring of swizzle sticks, the clinking of ice, the laughter and excitement . . . cameras flashing and the standing ovation to the attraction Ed Sullivan calls "the greatest act in show business." . . . This magnagroove LP was made during an historic record-breaking engagement . . . surpassing any attendance record ever made by an attraction in the history of Las Vegas . . . impassable crowds overflowing into the casino . . . people standing on tiptoe to get a glimpse of Prima and his All-Stars . . . ears straining to catch the sounds of the most contagious music on earth . . . As one writer put it, "When you have seen a Prima show, you go away feeling good inside." . . . and when you hear this album, you will feel good inside . . . you will enjoy the right-down-to-earthiness of the Prima Gang . . . this Magnagroove Recording will take you thru this live performance and you are there in the famous Casbar Theatre of the Sahara Hotel enjoying every wild minute . . . This is more than just an album . . . It is a collector's item that you will treasure for all time.

Hollywood 38, Calif.

The Capitol Tower in Hollywood. The superb, newly-renovated studios in New York City.

East or West, you're sure of expert engineers, the latest equipment, perfect acoustics.

And superior service.

Capitol Custom takes the shortest possible time—while giving the highest possible quality—between lacquer mastering and finished product.

You never take slow for an answer.

Capitol has pressing plants East and West, too. One of the world's largest in Scranton, Pa. The world's most modern in Los Angeles. If your distribution needs twin-coast production, lacquers can be produced in New York and Hollywood simultaneously to save time.

And you can be sure that the same strict quality control of a° Capitol product is applied to your pressing as well.

That's why people who think twice before going on record use Capitol Custom Services. They've found they get the best of everything—quality sound and high-speed service. And they've found they pay no more—in fact, they often pay less—for the best!

THERE'S JUST ONE MOST MODERN PRE-PLASTICIZER

It's the Audiomatic console model extruder.* No other compounder can match it for performance, style or compactness.

MODEL 245-4 (designed to serve two or more 7″ presses or one or two LP presses)

- is only 35″ high, 24″ wide, 27″ deep.
- loads and delivers at table top height (the hopper is inside!).
- extrudes at the rate of an ounce every 2½ seconds.
- delivers an automatically preformed shot with a hole in the center.
- feeds material upward to a vertical screw.
- handles dry blend, reground or granular material.
- is remarkably handsome.
- is competitively priced (even with all these features).

To serve two or more LP presses, or four 7″ presses, we make an equally outstanding high capacity horizontal extruder. It's our model 233-7.

For the finest records, you should have an extruder.

For the finest extruder, you must have an Audiomatic.

THE CASH BOX BULLSEYE

"AINT GOT TIME FOR NOTHIN'" (2:05) [Acuff-Rose BMI Howard]

BOB GALLION (Hickory 1220)

Bob Gallion, who scored last time out with "Two Of Out Three," should quickly duplicate that success with this potent follow-up stanza tagged "Ain't Got Time For Nothin'." The tune is a rousing dual-track affair in which the songster explains how extremely busy he is. Eye it. The coupler, "The Wrong Side Of Town," is medium-paced, shuffle-beat lament with an interesting honky tonk beat.

"JAMES RIVER" (2:00) [Al Gallico BMI-Kilgore]

LEFTY FRIZZELL (Columbia 42839)

The vet Columbia hitmaker seems destined to pull plenty of loot with either side or both of this new double-header entry. One side here, "James River," is a tender, chorus-backed, shuffle-beat ditty all about his favorite place in the world. Side has a good pop chance. The other end, "Don't Let Her See Me Cry," is slow-moving, easy-going traditional country tear-jerker with a warm, south-of-the-border flavor.

"GOOD MORNING SELF" (2:17) [Pamper BMI—Key]

DAVID PRICE (Gaylord 1478)

If this ultra-commercial Gaylord release is any indication of his talents, David Price has a promising future indeed. The chanter's rich lyrical voice and easy-going Jim Reeves type delivery is aptly showcased on "Good Morning Self," a medium-paced, shuffle-beat romancer with an infectious honky tonk melody. The coupler, "You Make It Easy," is a traditional country lament which also merits a close look.

KATHY DEE (United Artists 627)

(B+) "UNKIND WORDS" (2:25) [Glad & Wel BMI—Walker, Sippola] Kathy Dee is a new country lark on the scene but she renders this shuffle-beat, chorus-backed pop-flavored lament with assurance of a long-successful pro. Deejays should come out in droves for the side.

(B+) "ONLY AS FAR AS THE DOOR" (2:12) [Glad & Wel BMI—Dee] Superior, melodic tear-jerker with an interesting soulful sound.

TEX RITTER (Capitol 5004)

(B+) "THE WILL" (2:37) [Dartmouth ASCAP—Sigman, Perrin, Bondy] The vet country artist could create plenty of excitement with medium-paced, shuffle-beat, chorus-backed affair all about the real meaningful pleasures of nature. Side's a natural for heavy airplay.

(B) "THE GODS WERE ANGRY WITH ME" (3:00) [Century BMI—Foreman] On this end Ritter offers a moving, emotion-packed recitation item.

JIM KANDY (Kash 1008)

(B+) "LOOKING THROUGH A TEARDROP" (2:20) [Euclid-Tom Cat BMI—Hardin] Newcomer Jim Kandy could create a national stir on the basis of this fine, slow-moving tradition-oriented, bluegrass-styled weeper. Side boasts some real pretty lyrics and a spinnable melody.

(B) "THE ONLY GIRL FOR ME" (2:24) [Window BMI—Kandy] Medium-paced, shuffle-beat dual-track lament sold with verve and polish by Kandy.

HYLO BROWN (Starday 638)

(B+) "TAKE A LOOK AT THAT RAIN" (2:34) [Starday BMI—Payne] The vet country instrumentalist (he plays 5-string banjo) and chanter is in top-drawer form on this rousing, chorus-backed folkish ditty with a warm happy-go-lucky bluegrass-flavored beat. Loads of potential here.

(B+) "TINY DOLL" (2:08) [Starday BMI—Clark] On this lid Brown dishes-up an appealing affair about a doll that reminds him of his son.

BOB NEWMAN (King 5789)

(B+) "HAULIN' FREIGHT" (2:16) [Lois BMI—Glover, Long] Bob Newman pulls all stops out on this raunchy, pulsating, high-powered affair with some potent bluesy chord changes. Could break quickly.

(B) "A LONESOME TRUCK DRIVER'S BLUES" (2:25) [Tannen BMI—Roberts] Quick-paced country-blueser in which the songster gets an opportunity to demonstrate his fine yodelin' abilities.

BOBBY BARNETT (Sims 135)

(B+) "I FALL IN LOVE WITH EVERY PRETTY GIRL I SEE" (2:14) [Tishamingo BMI—Lewis] Bobby Barnett has a good chance of having a fast hit on his hands with this top-notch rockin' hard-driving pop-styled item about an amorous type of guy. Eye it.

(B) "SHE LOOKS GOOD TO THE CROWD" (2:42) [English BMI—Poovey] Slow-paced, sentimental bluegrass traditional essayed with poise and artistry by Barnett.

BILLY GRAY & WESTERN OKIES (Liberty 55599)

(B+) "I LEFT MY HEART IN SAN FRANCISCO" (2:29) [General ASCAP—Cory, Cross] Billy Gray and the Western Okies should delight plenty of spinners and fans alike with this top-flight bluegrass reading of the recent Tony Bennett chart-rider.

(B+) "I'LL NEVER LIVE LONG ENOUGH" (2:13) [Seven BMI—] On this side the crew renders a fine traditional country ballad with a interesting listenable shufflin' beat.

JUNE STEARNS (Starday 639)

(B+) "THREE SIDES TO THE STORY" (2:35) [Starday BMI—Bishop, Jackson] Gene Martin teams up with June Stearns on this catchy, medium-paced, bluegrass-styled affair about a couple who are preparing to get a divorce. Deck could break quickly.

(B+) "JUST ANOTHER SONG" (2:35) [Starday BMI—Kilgore] On this end the lark turns in an impressive performance on this tender, slow-moving lament with some impressive harmonica sounds.

PAUL O. CARRUTH (Tempwood V 1042)

(B+) "GRASS GROWS ON MAIN STREET" (2:50) [Ott BMI—Robertson] Paul Carruth tells how sad it is to walk on the same streets alone that he used to walk with his chick on this medium-paced country tear-jerker. A nice showing.

(B) "FALSE CLAIMS" (2:05) [Ott BMI—Robertson] Quick-paced, high-spirited, chorus-backed happy blueser read with verve and authority by the artist.

ROBIN WARD (Song Unlimited 37)

(B) "LOLLY TOO DUM" (1:46) [Elbury BMI—Wayne] Newcomer Robin Ward should attract plenty of notice with this lively, chorus-backed folk-flavored happy hoedown ditty with some effective Jew's harp sounds throughout. A natural for airplay.

(B) "LOSER'S LULLABY" (2:44) [Edward B. Marks BMI — Wayne, Moore] On this side the songstress dishes-up a tender, chorus-backed tale of remorse.

DON KIRKLAND (Del-Mar 1010)

(B) "I COULD WRITE A SONG" (2:25) [Howl & WelDee BMI —Kirkland] Don Kirkland displays a fine rich, wide-range traditional bluegrass style of singing and a commanding delivery on this tender, medium-paced dual-track twangy romancer.

(B) "WHEN YOU'RE GONE" (2:16) [Howl BMI—Kirkland] More fine country sounds. This one's an effective, hard-driving happy blueser essayed with authority by the chanter.

BUD & BUD (Allstar 7292)

(C+) "CRYING LEAVES" (2:12) [Glad BMI—Hooper] The duo are in fine form on this chorus-backed, shuffle-beat sentimental waltzer. Deck might get some airplay exposure.

(C+) "NO LETTER TODAY" (2:25) [Peer BMI—Brown] Soulful chorus-backed tale of loneliness rendered with poise by the guys.

CHASE WEBSTER (Dot 16466)

(B+) "THE TOWN SLEEPS THROUGH IT" (2:35) [Victor BMI—Miller] Chase Webster has a good chance of making some noise with this top-drawer, chorus-backed opus about a town which is rather somnambulistic-oriented. Watch it move.

(B+) "YOUR OLD LOVE LETTERS" (2:40) [Red River BMI—Bond] Slow-moving, tear-jerker about some old letters from the chanter's ex-gal which are painful to have around.

RIC CARTEY (ABC-Paramount 10415)

(B+) "SOMETHING IN MY EYE" (2:15) [Low-Twi BMI—South] Ric Cartey could grab some quick spins with this top-drawer, shuffle-beat romancer with some real pretty lyrics. Side effectively utilizes the dual-track technique and boasts a fine ork-choral backing.

(B) "POOR ME" (2:24) [Lowery BMI—South] On this end Cartey dishes-up a pleasing, slow-moving tradition-oriented hillbilly blueser.

KENNY ROBERTS (King 5773)

(B+) "TWENTY-FOUR HOURS WITH THE BLUES" (2:35) [Lois BMI—Roberts, Pennington] The songster unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talent full-blast on this romantic, slow-moving weeper about a guy who lost his gal to somebody else. Deejays should dig it.

(B) "CHOC' LATE ICE CREAM" (1:55) [Spitzer ASCAP — Lashua] This time out Roberts offers a cute twangy novelty with loads of listener appeal.

THE PLAINSMEN (Sims 1078)

(B) "LONELY STREET" (2:47) [4 Star Sales BMI—Sowder, Belew, Stevenson] The group displays a fine understanding of the country idiom on this fine slow-moving rendition of the while-back Andy Williams pop hit. Plenty of potential here.

(B) "I CAN'T GET OVER THE WAY YOU GOT OVER ME" (2:24) [Magic Circle BMI—King] Moving, medium-paced shufflin' ballad essayed with authority and poise by the group.

LANCE ROBERTS (United Southern 5405)

(B) "FUN WHILE IT LASTED" (2:26) [Ouachita BMI—Vickery, Emerson] Lance Roberts unleashes his potent, wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this fine twangy, shuffle-beat, chorus-backed affair with a contagious repeating riff. Good bet for deejays.

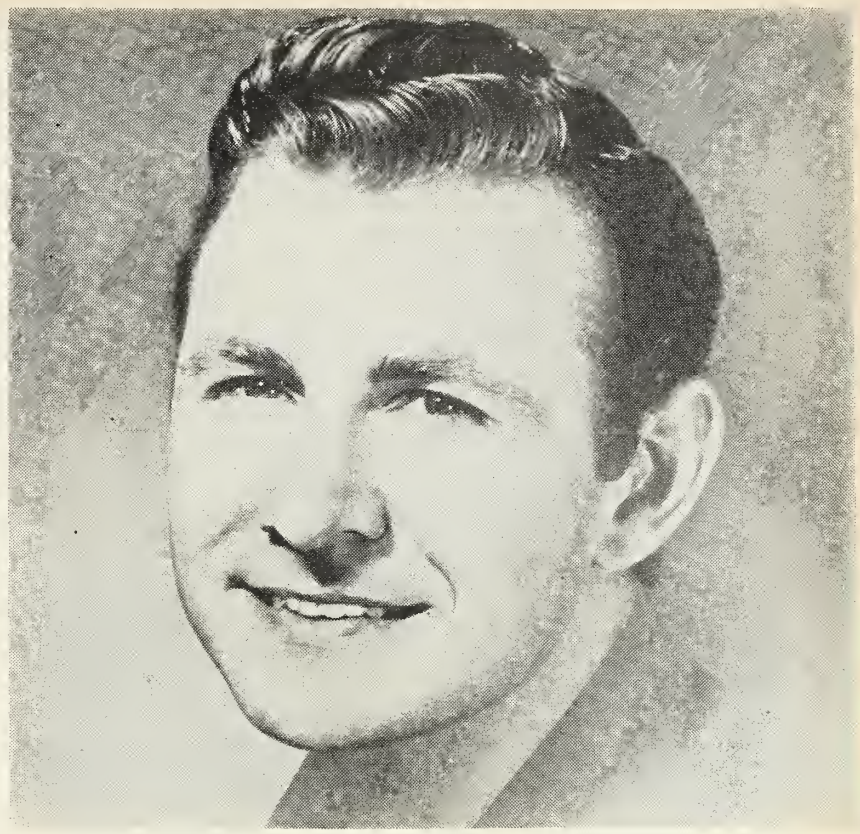
WILLIAMS BROS. (Del-Mar 1008)

(C+) "BAD OLD MEMORIES" (2:52) [Howl BMI—Williams, Price] The Williams Bros. wail a moving sentimental tale of heartbreak on this medium-paced, bluegrass-flavored, traditional hillbilly weeper.

(C) "THE LAST MINUTE" (2:17) [Howl BMI—Kirkland] Old-style, slow-moving, bluegrass ballad. OK chanting.



Hank Cochran wrote "A Little Bitty Tear", "Funny Way of Laughing", and "Make the World Go Away". Now he can just about write his own ticket.

Cash Box COUNTRY ROUND UP

With syndicated radio show now showing great action in the popular music field the ground has now been paved for what could be the biggest and best planned syndicated country music package through Bill Mack, one of the nation's top ten in country music for the past several years. Plans have now been completed for Bilmac Productions to furnish top country music shows to all stations in the United States, Canada and English-speaking countries abroad. The shows will be hosted by Bill Mack with special top name guests on each program. Over four dozen big names have already been pre-taped for the series. Bilmac productions was founded in 1957 as a country jingle firm. Stations subscribing to the series will receive singing jingles, advance "plugs" for the stations and sponsors voiced by the biggest names in the field and, in some cases, singing station breaks by the big names. The shows will be made available in various lengths ranging from fifteen minutes to three hours on a daily, weekly or bi-weekly basis. The shows will feature the latest top country records, classics and special interviews with guest stars. Mack is negotiating with several other name spinners to aid in the series. Interested stations may contact Mack at KCUL-Fort Worth for full particulars and audition tape.

REX ALLEN

MARTY ROBBINS

It was a real pleasure running into Mac Wiseman at the recent Newport Folk Festival. Mac, who was extremely well-received by the folk fans, told us he has a real busy schedule ahead including a CBC network show in Canada and several key west coast dates with Marty Robbins. The artist also noted that deejay copies are available of his Capitol newie, "Moon Comes Over The Mountain," by writing to him at Box 7006, Nashville 10, Tenn.

The first issue of the country's newest magazine will be published this month. Called Country Music Report, it will be the first magazine of its kind. Devvy Davenport, well-known country singer, is editor of the new feature magazine. She has collected thousands of photos and stories on the various stars in the country field. All of which will appear at one time or another in the pages of the new publication. The first issue of the mag, due off the press in about a week, will feature stories and pics of Johnny Cash at the Hollywood Bowl; at home with Rex Allen; and many candid shots of other stars. Further info about the new publication may be had by writing Devvy Davenport at Box 1399, Orange, California.

Unusual switch: Paul Dean Ford, owner of WPFR-Terre Haute, sends along word that his station has switched programming from classical to country. Paul sez he can use all kinds of country platters both old and new.

Wanda Jackson and her Party-Timers began a string of one nighters last week which will run thru August 10th. The tour is under the direction of Seattle promoter, Jack Roberts and will take her and her ork throughout Washington and northern California.

Smiley Wilson, director of talent for the Nashville-based Wil-Helm Agency, wires news that the Wilburn Bros. and Flatt and Scruggs recently set an all-time attendance record in the history of Mocking Bird Hill in Anderson, Indiana.

Earl Scott, who is currently clicking with his first Mercury deck, "Loose Lips," is enjoying tremendous success on a tour in California. Next on the Scott agenda is a slew of dates in the Lone Star State.

Bill Anderson sends along word that spinner copies of his newest Decca release, "8 x 10" b/w "One Mile Over—Two Miles Back" are available to interested jocks if they write on station letterheads to Hubert Long, 806 16th Ave. So., Nashville 4, Tenn.

Lloyd R. George has been named veep and general manager of KWBA-Baytown-Houston, Texas. A strong proponent of country music, George is programming a top fifty country tunes with seventy-five strays plus a daily "golden maverick" and round-up LP. All musical introductions are made in western jargon. Each week the outlet salutes a different artist with heavy record play plus contests for the artist pics and records.

Who sez country artists have a limited appeal. RCA Victor's Skeeter Davis was recently notified that a fan club was started in her name in Hong Kong.

Tom Reeder, personal manager of Clyde Beavers, recently jetted to Houston for an appearance on the Larry Kane TV'er along with Jimmy Dean and Little Willie John. While in the Texas city Clyde played to a capacity crowd at the Esquire Club.

Cotton Town Jubilee announces the release of their first LP featuring Cousin Jake and Uncle Josh of the Flatt & Scruggs Grand Ole Opry show tagged "Just Joshing." Distributors may order from the label at P. O. Box 322, West Memphis, Arkansas.

Cash Box RECORD REVIEWS

• best bet B+ very good B good C+ fair C mediocre only those records best suited for commercial use are reviewed by Cash Box

"BLUE VELVET" (2:48) [Vogue BMI—Wayne, Morris]
"IS THERE A PLACE" (2:40) [Feather BMI—Vinton]
BOBBY VINTON (9614)

Bobby Vinton, who is currently coming off "Blue On Blue," seems destined to have another chart triumph with this commercial Epic newie tabbed "Blue Velvet." The tune is a slow-moving, chorus-backed teen-oriented reading of the evergreen handled by the songster with aplomb and verve. Watch it move quickly. The flip, "Is There A Place," is a rockin' uptempo rousing twistin' affair with a contagious hard-driving beat. Also merits close look.

"SOMETHING OLD, SOMETHING NEW" (2:08)
[LeBill & Marbill BMI—Montgomery, Traver]
"FLIPPED OVER YOU" (2:00) [Herb Reis BMI—Wolf, Raleigh]
PAUL & PAULA (Philips (40130)

Philips has culled two strong tracks from the hit team's "We Go Together' 'album. "Something Old . . ." finds the pair its own dulcet-voiced self (it's a wedding-day sentimental), while "Flipped Over You" is a bright, very catchy mutual-admiration-society stand. Paul & Paula are sure to follow their last hit, "First Quarrel," with either or both of their latest sides.

"HEY THERE LONELY BOY"—Shuman, Carr
"NOT A MOMENT TOO SOON"—Hilliard, Garson
RUBY & THE ROMANTICS (Kapp 544)

Figure it three hits in a row for the distinctive blenders. Side that'll follow their "Our Day Will Come" and "My Summer Love" clicks is "Hey There Lonely Boy," a haunting opus about a gal who offers to end a fella's solo existence. Beautiful teen-market entry. More classy teen-romantic doings on the flip portion.

"SOONER OR LATER" (3:17) [Elm Drive ASCAP—Jeffreys, Garluck]
JOHNNY MATHIS (Columbia 42836)

Star warbler should continue his Top 100 comeback—started just a while-ago with "Every Step of the Way"—with an oh-so-smooth survey of a top-drawer sentimental called "Sooner or Later." Sound is the kind of Mathis that makes it. Performer's second outing here is a warm salute to the dairy state. We're going along with "In Wisconsin."

"THE WOODPECKER SONG" (2:15)
[Robbins ASCAP—Dilazzaro, Bruno, Adamson]
"LITTLE QUEENIE" (2:21) [Arc BMI—Berry]
BOBBY RYDELL (Cameo 265)

There's quite a sound difference between both ends of Bobby's latest singles offering, but both can ride the charts. The star performer heads a joyful, all-market revival of the delightful oldie, "The Woodpecker Song," while his work on the Chuck Berry (and that of his combo-chorus setting) item, "Little Queenie," is a funky romp tailored strictly for teen consumption. Teeners, by the way, will come-upon a new, earthier sounding Rydell on the latter end.

"CHINA NIGHTS (Shina No Yoru)" (2:52)
[Leeds ASCAP—Saijo, Takeoka, Sedores]
"BENKYO NO CHA CHA CHA" (2:25) [Beechwood BMI—Ei, Izumi]
KYU SAKAMOTO (Capitol 5016)

The man who gave the U. S. charts the first Japanese-sung hit in more than 10 years is in a position to do further Top 100 business with "China Nights," a tune near the melodic level of his last-time-out smash offering, "Sukiyaki." This time, the songster offers an English version of the tune during the second-half reprise. Coupler is a cha-cha item with an Oriental touch.

"THIS IS MY PRAYER" (2:37) [Sylvia BMI—Townsend]
"AS LONG AS YOU NEED ME (Want Me, Love Me)" (2:46)
[Sylvia BMI—Townsend]
THEOLA KILGORE (Serock 2006)

Lark is out to get her second chart triumph with "This is My Prayer" (her first was "The Love of My Man"). "Prayer" is a touching expression about a woman who hopes she'll always be worthy of her man, and Theola sings its sentiments with deep conviction. Highly attractive ork-chorus backing. A commanding performance. More heart-felt work on the coupler.

HONEY SANDERS (Brighton 777)

(B) "(Johnny Guitar) MY RESTLESS LOVER" (2:56) [Chappell ASCAP—Davenport] The musical comedy-legit play performer bows on disks with nice easy-swing reading of the folkish item. Jazzy rhythm accompaniment is under the direction of Broadway maestro Pembroke Davenport, writer of the tune. New diskery is located in New York.

(B) "SOME LIKE IT COOL" (2:57) [Brighton ASCAP—Davenport] Another jazzy stand with the vehicle sounding like an adaptation of an old melody.

RON BERNARD (Hall 1915)

(B+) "FORGIVE" (2:47) [Flat Town BMI — Hebert] Ron Bernard comes up with a plaintive appeal for his chick to understand him on this teen-angled, slow-shufflin' lament. Good airplay potential.

(B) "I WANT SOMEBODY" (2:54) [Big Bopper BMI — Bernard, Stewart] This time out the chanter offers a familiar-sounding tear-jerker on a standard theme heartbreak.

ROLAND KIRK (Mercury 72144)

(B+) "LIMBO BOAT" (2:52) [MRC BMI—Kirk] The multi-talented jazzman really gets cookin' on first-rate ballad which starts off slowly and builds to a hard-driving fusion of melodic variatons then finishes smoothly. Side is called from Kirk's current "Reeds & Deeds" LP. Good bet for ops and spinners.

(B) "HAY RO" (2:59) [MRC BMI—Kirk] Here's a catchy, listenable, jazz opus essayed in an infectious midstream style.

LEE MILES (Chart 1015)

(B) "THE NAME THAT I'D DIE TO HAVE" (2:29) [Yonah BMI—Miles] The warbler has written a touching item about a wife who has a husband she doesn't deserve. His multi-tracked handling of the number is loaded with expressive teen-market understanding. Back-up sound is a warm Nashville-flavored affair. Label is an affiliate of Peach Records of Nashville.

(B) "HOME AWAY FROM HOME" (1:50) [Painted Desert BMI—Miles, Isle] Added expressive warbling by Miles, again over-dubbed.

VICKI MARTIN (Finer Arts 2008)

(B) "A HANDFUL OF DUST" (2:57) [M. Bernstein ASCAP—Bernstein] Following a sing-a-narrative intro, lark does a nice legit job on an inspirational whose plotline recalls the old hit, "Nature Boy." Attractive full ork-chorus backing is directed by Don Ralke. Diskery is based in Denver.

(C) "BEWARE MY LOVE" (2:17) [M. Bernstein ASCAP—Bernstein] Torchy easy-swinger is a less successful outing.

THE CATALINAS (Sims 134)

(B) "BAIL OUT" (2:15) [English & Hitway BMI—Shelton] Guitars are the top sound factors from the musicians, and the instrument is employed in solid rock-market fashion in this funky, but bright sound. Fine instrumental outing.

(B) "BULLETIN" (2:00) [English & Hitway BMI—Hartman] More bright sayings for the teen crowd.

NEIL SHEPPARD (Columbia 42816)

(B+) "BEYOND THE SHADOW OF A DOUBT" (2:15) [Gil BMI—Maurer, Ship] Following a schmaltzy trumpet solo, over-dubbed singer Sheppard and his combo-chorus backing rip into a tuneful teen romantic. Good rock sizzle; it could get around.

(B) "IN MY IMAGINATION" (2:25) [Tobi-Ann BMI — Barkan, Raleigh] A colorful medium-beat pounder. Sheppard is multi-tracked again.

JOHNNY NASH (Groove 0021)

(B+) "DEEP IN THE HEART OF HARLEM" (1:58) [January BMI — Radcliffe, Spencer] Nash worthily recites the big-sounding "message" song, which tells of the not-so-good-life in New York's Negro ghetto. An effective, commercial rock-a-string ork-chorus stint backs-up. Could be an active side.

(B) "WHAT KIND OF LOVE IS THIS" (2:17) [Planetary ASCAP—Nash] Onetime hit for Joey Dee & The Starlighters shows-up in a good rhythm pose by its cleffer.

THE TOWNCRYERS (Progression 1001)

(B) "HO HUM" (2:24) [Little BMI—Eppy] Polished folksters nicely convey a good work-song number. Team starts off with a softie blend and soon picks-up its tempo. Worthy pop-folk stand.

(B) "THIS ROAD" (2:15) [Little BMI—Emmett] A plaintive solo flute is included in this eventually speedy folk try.

JUNIOR PARKER (Duke 367)

(B+) "THE TABLES HAVE TURNED" (2:11) [Don Music BMI—Parker] The vet r&b songster sez he is attempting to get the thoughts of his ex-gal out of his mind on this medium-paced, shufflin' low-down lament. Blues deejays should dig the tune.

(B) "YONDERS WALL" (2:12) [Fast BMI—James] Tradition-oriented pulsating blues weeper sold in a soulful style by Parker.

CANNON ADDERLEY SEXTET (Riverside 4562)

(B+) "TENGO TANGO" (2:19) [Upam BMI—J. & N. Adderly] The vet jazz saxist has shown with his past efforts that he can achieve chart status and this new melodic jazz tango can develop into a fast noisemaker. The tune boasts some first-rate solos and a catchy repeating riff.

(B) "BROTHER JOHN" (2:26) [Alnur BMI—Lateef] This one's an oriental-flavored, slow-paced item with an extremely lyrical sound.

SI ZENTNER (Liberty 55609)

(B+) "THE FINK" (2:25) [Showcase BMI—Goe, Zentner] The slick, professional Zentner crew are in top-drawer form on this swingin' slow-twist like teen dance item. The tune has enough different interesting things going to attract both pop and good music spinners.

(B+) "BROKEN DATE" (2:25) [Mills ASCAP—Phillips] On this end the ork offers a sweeping melodic ballad with an impressive solo sax portion.

"PERFIDIA" (2:09) [Peer Int'l BMI—Cugat, Heagney, Dominquez]
"ACE OF HEARTS" (2:20)
[Screen Gems-Columbia BMI—Zekely, Biaz, Berry]
MATADORS (Colpix 698)

The top side here, "Perfidia," is read in a rousing uptempo Marcels-styled teen fashion by the group. Side seems a natural for heavy airplay. (B) "ALLEE BLUE" (2:32) [Pell Mell ASCAP—Veith] Good-natured stint in a pop-gospel vein.

ERNI ADANO (Assault 1842)

(B) "IF I HAD A HAMMER" (1:45) [Ludlow BMI—Seeger, Hayes] Erni Adano unleaches his potent wide-range vocal talents full-blast on this swingin' chorus-backed, hand-clappin' reading of the folk standard. Trini Lopez (Reprise) is currently clicking with the tune.

(B) "WHAT KIND OF FOOL AM I" (2:25) [Ludlow BMI—Brisusse, Newley] Fine romantic reading of the short while-back hit from "Stop The World."

THE DEL-AIRES (Coral 62370)

(B+) "ELAINE" (2:00) [Champion BMI-Linares] Vocalists do a bang-up, Lou Christie-sounding job on the potent gospel-type opus. Certainly has many an attention-getting vocal-instrumental gimmick.

(B) "JUST WIGGLIN' N' WOBBLIN'" (2:05) [Sunno BMI-Jones] Here's a wild partytime rocker which the group presents in a flick called "The Parade of the Zombies."

STEVE CLAYTON (Decca 31516)

(B+) "HE WILL CALL (& You Will Fall)" (2:38) [Spiral ASCAP-Shelley] Songster Clayton's fine warble of a smart romantic is sure to draw the attention of lots of good-music outlets. Vocalist's approach has the smooth-running quality of Johnny Mathis, but, to set the record straight, it can speak for itself. Side can grab important exposure.

CONNIE STEVENS (Warner Bros. 5380)

(B) "THERE GOES YOUR GUY" (2:30) [Vine St. ASCAP—Tipton, Cole] Similar studio magic for the songstress in this interesting bit of teen drama.

THE PORTRAITS (Tri Disc 109)

(B+) "WE'RE GONNA PARTY" (2:15) [Keymen & Marc Jean BMI—Smith] Sure-handed stuff in the always exciting blues-shout vein. Group's lead warbler is strong, and he receives fine partytime sounds from the other singers and musicians. Teeners have a sock-rock treat here.

(B) "THREE BLIND MICE" (1:59) [Keymen & Marc Jean BMI—Rogers, Smith] Infectious blues-romantic rewrite of the old kiddie ditty.

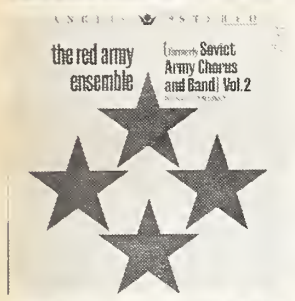
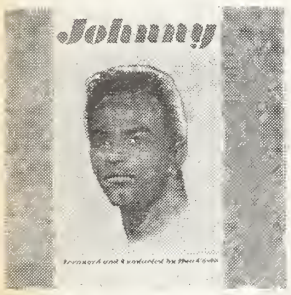
POPULAR PICKS OF THE WEEK

"THIS IS ALL I ASK"—Tony Bennett—Columbia 2056
Tony Bennett follows a string of four hit singles and three best-selling albums with this Columbia outing tagged after his current click, "This Is All I Ask." The songster has gathered together an easy-listening set of ballads and rhythm tunes that are enhanced by the Bennett-styled delivery. Slick sides here are "Autumn In Rome," "Tricks" and "On The Other Side Of The Tracks." Watch this one skyrocket to the charts in short order.



"RED ARMY ENSEMBLE/Vol. 2"—Angel 36143
Here is one of those rare albums that comes along once in a great while that merits special attention and praise. In this second volume the Red Army Chorus and Band exhibit every facet of their artistry and enthusiasm that made the first vol. an all-time best-seller for the label. The voices are dynamic and the selections are lyrical gems. "Song Of The Plains" and "The Courageous Don Cossacks" are prime examples. Stereo reproduction is first-rate and the disk looms as an immediate best-seller.



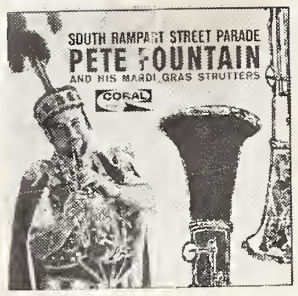
"JOHNNY"—Johnny Mathis—Columbia CL 2044
Although Johnny Mathis is no longer associated with Columbia, this first-rate program of uptempo items and ballads should score heavily in the coin department. Don Costa, who conducts the ork for the session, has created some fresh, full-bodied arrangements tailor-made for the songster's rich swingin' style. Among the best bets here are "Easy Does It," "Miracles" and "I Can't Believe That."

"RAMBLIN' "—New Christy Minstrels—Columbia CL 2055
The New Christy Minstrels, who are currently riding the charts with their "Green, Green" single and "Tall Tales, Legends And Nonsense" LP, unleash their versatile chanting and instrumental talents full blast on this their fourth pop-folk album session. The group's infectious, vibrant style readily communicates folk messages as they turn in top-drawer readings of "Ramblin'," "A Travelin' Man" and "Ride, Ride, Ride." Disk should develop into a sales blockbuster.

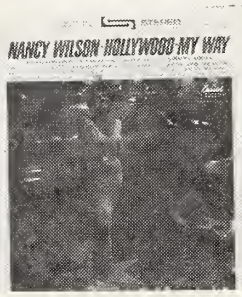
"SWINGING WEST"—Steve Lawrence—Columbia CL 2052
Steve Lawrence, who pulled plenty of loot with his last album, "Winners," comes up with a potent follow-up LP stanza with this new session of western-flavored tunes. With the exception of the opening tune, "The Day The West Was Swung," a lively original written for this disk, all the selections are pop favorites. The chanter's rich, wide-range, baritone voice carries him in good stead on "Home On The Range," "Ramblin' Rose" and "I Can't Stop Loving You." Eye the package for rapid acceptance.

"LOVE THEME FROM CLEOPATRA AND MUSIC FROM OTHER GREAT MOTION PICTURES STARRING ELIZABETH TAYLOR"—David Rose—MGM E 4144
David Rose has had a superlative track record with his last several LP releases and this new disk boasting themes from "Cleopatra" and other flicks starring Elizabeth Taylor seems destined for quick success. The smooth, polished, professional Rose orchestral touch is firmly showcased in top-notch readings of "Anthony And Cleopatra Theme," "Cat On A Hot Tin Roof" and "Gloria" from "Butterfield 8." Standout entertainment.

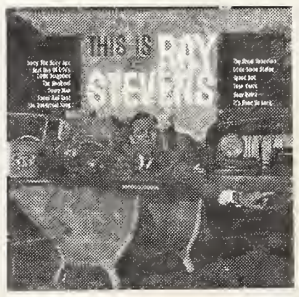
"THE LANGUAGE OF LOVE"—Jerry Vale—Columbia CL 2043
Jerry Vale saw considerable chart action this past year with his two albums, "Arrivederci Roma" and "I Have But One Heart," and this new session on Columbia has the same success ingredients to carry it to chartsville. The chanter delivers these romantic ballads with warmth and lyrical purity, and his legions of fans will surely dig his treatments of "You Belong To My Heart," "Two Different Worlds" and "The Song of Moulin Rouge."



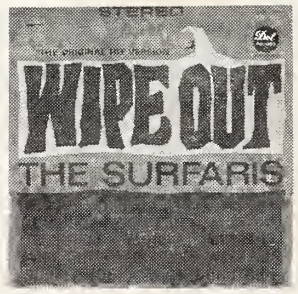
"SOUTH RAMPART STREET PARADE"—Pete FOUNTAIN—Coral CRL 757440
Pete Fountain has earned many laurels with his previous Dixie jazz stylings but this new Coral set ranks as one of his most swingin' sets in recent years. The concept here is of a parade and although all the tunes are not all marches the lively Fountain aggregation gives each item a festive flavor. The clarinetist is in superb form on "The Second Line," "Over The Waves" and "Washington And Lee Swing." Disk should pull loads of loot.



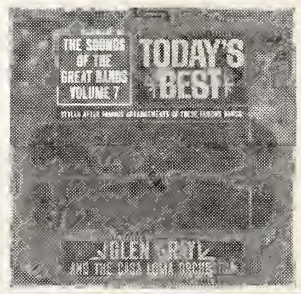
"HOLLYWOOD—MY WAY"—Nancy Wilson—Capitol ST 1934
Flick themes have been a popular concept LP product for the past several years and Nancy Wilson cashes-in on this trend on this delightful set of film favorites from 1963 to the 1962. Jimmy Jones has come up with some sparkling arrangements which effectively showcase the lark's wide-range emotion-packed vocal style. The songstress is in fine form on "Dearly Beloved," "My Shining Hour" and "Moon River." Disk seems destined to create plenty of consumer excitement.



"THIS IS RAY STEVENS"—Mercury SR 60828
Ray Stevens, who captured the public's fancy with "Ahab The Arab" and more recently, "Harry The Hairy Ape," sings a dozen self-penned tunes on this new Mercury platter. The songster happily combines vocal shenanigans with clever material to come up with some rib-tickling songs. On this set the singer entertains delightfully with "Harry The Hairy Ape," "The Great Sebastian" and "The Deodorant Song." Should be a winner.



"WIPEOUT"—The Surfaris—Dot DLP25535
The Surfaris, currently clicking with "Wipeout," cash in on the success of the single to tag this Dot album. The group unleashes its instrumental talents on a bag of current and recent hits and flavors them with the new surf sound which is spreading across the country. Best bets here are "You Can't Sit Down," "Wild Weekend" and " Green Onions." Plenty of coin to be reaped here.



"TODAY'S BEST"—Glen Gray—Capitol ST1938
Glen Gray, who scored a while back with his "Great Bands" series makes a potent bid for a return to the charts with this tasteful album of current hits done up in the manner of the big bands of two decades ago. Duke Ellington's "A Train" is the format for "Stranger On The Shore" and Charlie Barnet's "Cherokee" makes a suitable styling for "The Sweetest Sounds." The set has enough built-in success ingredients to make a chart stand.

"DANCE, DANCE, DANCE"—Joey Dee—Roulette R25221
Joey Dee titles this new Roulette session after his recent swinger, "Dance, Dance, Dance," which was a pop-r&b click in recent weeks. The wailer follows thru in the same vein with a group of rockin', teen-angled dance delights that'll bring the kids out in droves. Lively bands here are "Dance Calypso," "You Can't Sit Down" and "Let's Have A Party."

"THEY STOPPED THE SHOW!"—Various Artists—Decca DL 79111
Original cast albums have been extremely successful since their introduction twenty years ago. This new Decca disk, boasting the original artists rendering a fine dozen popular Broadwey musical gems, is aimed at this vast legion of theatre buffs. The disk contains such highlights as "My Heart Belongs To Daddy" by Mary Martin, John Raitt's "Soliloquy" and "I Wanna Get Married" by Gertrude Niesen. Loads of potential here.

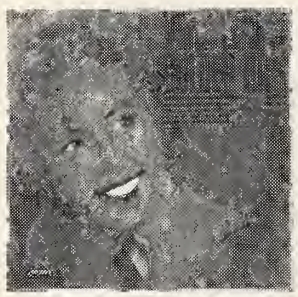
Highlights here include "I Love You Because" by Al Martino, "Greenback Dollar" by the Kingston Trio and "Surfin' U.S.A." by the Beach Boys.

"SONGS FOR GOLFERS"—Oscar Brand—Elektra EKL 237

The chanter's easy-going tongue-in-cheek style carries him in good stead as he offers some impressive, witty renditions of "Glorious," "Golf Widow" and "Old Golfers Never Die." Many yocks to be had here.

"A SEASON FOR MY BELOVED"—Hugo Winterhalter—ABC-Paramount ABC 447
Ace orkster Hugo Winterhalter kicks off his ABC-Paramount career with first-rate program of season-oriented evergreens utilizing a wide variety of tempi. Winterhalter, who created the arrangements here himself, skillfully leads his ork and chorus through their paces with exactly the right touch for either dancing or listening pleasure. Among the standout tracks here are "I'll Remember April," "Misty" and "September Song."



"VERA LYNN'S GOLDEN HITS" — London LL3294
The warm, throaty vocal charms of Vera Lynn are aimed at nostalgia in this package of her oldies from London. The songstress was an international best-seller on many of the tunes here several decades ago and her loyal coterie of admirers will find this an ear-captivating session. Beginning with "Auf Wiederseh'n Sweetheart," the lark continues with winning renditions of such hits as "If You Love Me" and "We'll Meet Again." Disk is a stalwart catalog item with strong initial sales potential.

"GEORGIA BROWN"—Coral CRL757436
Georgia Brown has established herself as one of the most important up and coming vocalists on the scene with her performance in the Broadway hit, "Oliver!" and appearances on TV. The lark's emotion-packed voice and interpretive delivery are haunting and reveal a rare purity. She is outstanding on "Misty," "Bye Bye Blues" and Willow Weep For Me." The thrush could strike paydirt with this one.

"THE BEST OF THE AMES BROTHERS" — RCA Victor LSP1859
The Ames Brothers recreate some of their best-selling singles on this LP cut during their days with Victor. The boys pulled plenty of coin with these tunes the first time and could very well reap in a lot more this second time around. Plenty of melodic nostalgia here as the songsters survey "The Naughty Lady of Shady Lane," "Bonnie Lassie" and "You You You."

"THE WARM WORLD OF JOAO GILBERTO"—Atlantic 8076
Although the release of bossa nova product continues at a rapid-fire pace little of it is authentic. Joao Gilberto is an exception to the rule. The Latin American jazzman-chanter fully understands all of the poignant depth and subtlety of the bossa nova idiom. While backed by a small swingin' combo the artist offers top-flight readings of "Rosa Morena," Bim Bom" and "Chega De Saudade." Superb listening throughout.

"GROUP OLDIES BUT GOODIES" — Various Artists — Smash SRS 67038
Here's a top-drawer package of while-back teen hits by the original groups that made them famous. Although many of today's kids will not know the tunes or artists they can certainly appreciate the sincere, meaningful fashion in which the songs are offered. Among the best tracks here are "Baby Oh Baby" by the Shells, the Echoes' "Baby Blue" and "Till" by the Angels. Prime programming fare.

"ROCKIN' TOKYO"—Various Artists—Capitol DT 10342
With Kyu Sakamoto's recent tremendous success with "Sukiyaki" there is unprecedented interest in Japanese artists. This new Capitol LP features some of Japan's top recording artists offering an interesting program of while-back Top 40 U.S. hits. The performers dish-up the American tunes in their own distinctive swingin' styles with enough appeal to attract droves of American teens. A potent deejay disk.

"FRANKIE AVALON SINGS CLEOPATRA" — Chancellor CHL5032
Frankie Avalon sings his version of a tune called "Cleopatra" (not the flick theme) and follows it up with 13 other easy-paced items on Chancellor. The songster gets some standout arrangement assist from such luminaries as Don Costa, Jimmy Haskell and Russ Faith which add much to the proceedings here. "Who Else But You," "Gotta Get A Girl" and "After You've Gone" are among the pleasing items sure to go over big with his followers.

"MEADOWLAND"—Don Cossack Chorus—Decca DL710076
The Don Cossack Chorus, which has been delighting audiences all over the world for more than four decades, sings a dozen of its concert favorites on this gold label disk from Decca. With Serge Jaroff on the podium, the men are guided through a wide variety of musical areas and their voices are as pure at a whisper as they are exciting at full volume. Included here are "Meadowland," "Recollections of Tchaikovsky" and "The Don Cossack Anthem."

"DANCERS CHOICE"—Ralph Marterie—United Artists UAS 6285
In the past two years dancing has become popular again. Ralph Marterie has always played for dancers so it's quite natural that the orkster should come up with an LP geared for his large terpsichorean following. This is just such a set. The smooth, polished Marterie aggregation shines on "In A Mellow Tone," "Can't We Be Friends" and "Everything I Have Is Yours." A sparkling package.

"IMPRESSIONS OF HOLLYWOOD'S BAD BUT BEAUTIFUL GIRLS"—Stan Applebaum—Warner Bros. 1502
Composer-arranger-conductor-pianist Stan Applebaum directs his musical attention at Hollywood's flick chicks on this delightful new romp from Warner Bros. Perfect late hours mood companion.

"IRMA LA DOUCE" — Jack Lemmon — Capitol ST1943
Jack Lemmon has been delighting audiences for years with his antics on the screen and now gives evidence of another side of his talents as he turns pianist for this program of selections from "Irma La Douce," his latest flick. The actor-88'er is ably backed by orkster Jack Marshall who also provides some inventive arrangements. Despite an obvious lack of technical training, the pianist's handling of the score is pleasant and easy-going. The set should evoke interest from his many admirers.

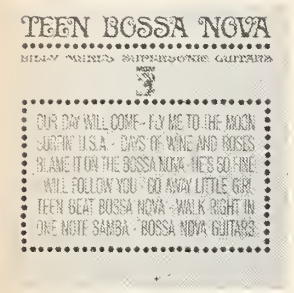
"HOOT TONIGHT!"—Various Artists—Warner Bros. 1512
With the success of the "Hootenanny" TV'er many labels have picked-up the magazine concept of releasing folk albums. This new disk from WB, featuring Bud Dashiell, the Gateway Singers, Lynn Gold, the Phoenix Singers and the Modern Folk Quartet, is just such a session. The set is presented as an actual folk get-together spotlighting the various performers in concert. Highlights here include "Hound Dog" by Lynn Gold and "Linstead Market" by the Gateways.



"TEEN BOSSA NOVA"—Billy Mure's supersonic Guitars—MGM E 4131

Among the standout tracks here are "Days Of Wine And Roses," "Go Away Little Girl" and "I Will Follow You." Top-notch listening and terpsichorean enjoyment throughout.

"OPEN YOUR HEART"—Andrews Gospel Singers—Capitol ST 1959
The Andrews Gospel Singers are an exciting, authentic pop-gospel group with a distinctive, soulful sound. The girls feelingful approach is aptly suited to both rhythmic uptempo items and slow-moving, deeply-religious numbers. The group shines as they turn in outstanding versions of "Open Your Heart," "I Won't Turn Back" and "Walk All Over God's Heaven." Superior gospel fare.

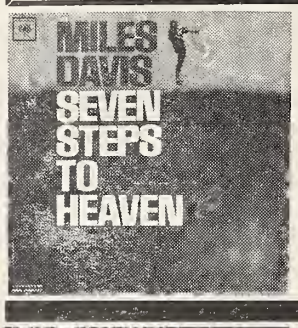
"SONGS OF THE FANTASTIC 50's" — Earl Bostic—King 838
Earl Bostic showcases his talents on the alto sax, soprano sax and clarinet on this package of dance music from King. The saxist selects a time-worn set of melodies that bear repeated listening and gives them a variety of danceable tempos. Easy-listening bands here are "Love Letters In The Sand," "Your Cheatin' Heart" and "Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White."

"HOLIDAY FOR DP'S"—Andre Popp—Palette MPZ 1022
Here's an unusual instrumental package from Palette featuring the talents of composer-conductor-arranger Andre Popp. All of the tunes here were written by the orkster and reflect a flavorful Gallic charm and freshness. Although the composer is yet unknown in this country, this album serves as an excellent showcase for his artistry. Soft music-programmers should find plenty of entertaining listening in "Holiday For DP's," "Grandpa's Cinema" and "Shopping In Paris."

"THIS IS A CITY?" — Steve Karmen — Jubilee JGM 2048
Once in a while an entertainer comes on the scene of special merit. Such a performer is Steve Karmen. The young chanter-guitarist has an infectious wide-range vocal style and a polished, smooth delivery. On this Jubilee set Karmen offers a satrical program of self-penned tunes (set to standard melodies) about city life. While assisted by the noteworthys he turns in top-drawer renditions of "On The Island Of Coney," "The Ballad Of Dr. Zorba" and "Home With A Range."

"CHEER UP ME LADS"—Outsiders—Argo 4028
Although the bulk of recorded folk music falls into the ballad slot, there is a wealth of valid folk material which is in a lighthearted happy vein. The Outsiders, a new pop-folk duo, offers a rousing program of traditional and original happy-go-lucky items on this new Argo release. The boys shine on "The Diamond," "Haul 'Em Away" and "Meanest Man In Town." Top-notch listening enjoyment throughout.

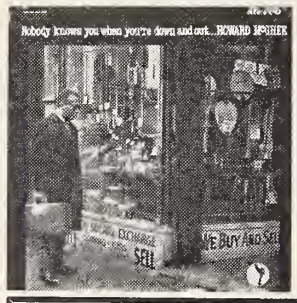
JAZZ PICK OF THE WEEK



"SEVEN STEPS TO HEAVEN"—Miles Davis—Columbia CL 2051
Miles Davis has come a long way from his early bebop days on Gotham's famed 52nd Street. He is probably one of the musically articulate jazz trumpeters around today. On this new Columbia set Davis offers an interesting program of standards in his highly-personal, lyrical bluesy style. While backed by small combo, the artist really wails on "Basin Street Blues," "I Fall In Love Too Easily" and "So Near So Far." Superior jazz fare.

"THE THEME FROM 'BEYOND THE FRINGE & ALL THAT JAZZ"—Dudley Moore—Atlantic 1403
Dudley Moore is truly a multi-talented performer. In addition to being one of the stars of the click British Broadway revue, "Beyond The Fringe," he is also an accomplished jazz 88'er as evidenced by this swingin' Atlantic set. Although Moore is not a stunning innovator he does demonstrate a formidable lyrical approach on "I Love Paris," "What's New" and "Just In Time." Jazzophiles should come out in strength for the disk.

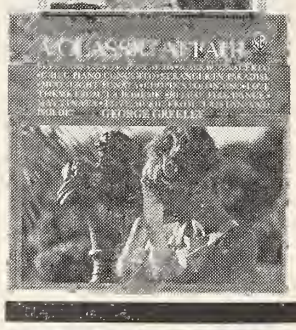
"BOBBY HACKETT PLAYS MANCINI" — Epic LN 24061
Over the past several years Henry Mancini has acquired a reputation as one of the most prelific composers in the popular idiom. On this new swingin' Epic set ace jazz cornetist Bobby Hackett offers a musical tribute to Mancini by rendering a nifty program of his tunes. Hackett's mellow, lyrical midstream approach if superbly spotlighted on "Baby Elephant Walk," "Days Of Wine And Roses" and "Moon River." One of the best albums that Hackett has cut in quite a while.



"NOBODY KNOWS YOU WHEN YOU'RE DOWN AND OUT"—Howard McGhee—United Artists UAJS 15028
Although Howard McGhee has been missing from the jazz scene for several years, he is no newcomer having paid his dues as an apprentice in the early bebop era. On this new United Artists set the trumpeter displays all of his well-known technical artistry plus fresh, modern outlook as he turns in top-notch readings of "Lonely Town," "Why Run Away" and "Fly Me To The Moon." Superior jazz fare.

CLASSICAL PICKS OF THE WEEK

STRAVINSKY: Rite Of Spring; Antal Dorati conducting the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra —Mercury SRW 18027
Although it is now fifty years old, Stravinsky's "The Rite Of Spring" still remains one of the most controversial pieces in modern body of classical music. Antal Dorati captures all of the improvisatory ideas and low-register harmonics on this first-rate Mercury Wing reading. The conductor does not attempt to carbon-copy other versions of the work but treats it in an exciting, original fashion.



"A CLASSIC AFFAIR"—George Greeley—Warner Bros. 1503
The versatile pianist, who has cut pop themes in recent sessions, dishes-up a warm program of some of the world's best known classical piano concertos on this fine album recorded during his days with Warner Bros. While backed by the label's ork, Greely displays commanding artistry and polish on "Moonlight Sonata," "Stranger In Paradise" and "Full Moon And Empty Arms." A splendid achievement.

TCHAIKOVSKY: Violin Concerto In D, Szeryng/Boston Symphony/Munch—RCA Victrola VICS-1037
Tchaikovsky's violin concerto, a masterful composition and a perennial favorite of the virtuoso, is dramatically and artistically played by Henry Szeryng and the Boston Symphony with Charles Munch at the helm on this new offering from RCA Victrola. "Victrola" is the diskery's new low-price classical line with a suggested price of $2.50 (M) and $3.00 (S). Also included here is "The Devil's Trill" Sonata by Guiseppe Tartini. This new line is sure to create a stir in the marketplace.

BIOS FOR DEEJAYS

Freddie Scott

Freddie Scott, who is currently riding the charts with "Hey Girl" on Colpix, hails from Providence, Rhode Island. He spent his early years commuting between Providence and New York City, attending grade and high schools in both places and eventually graduating from Cooper High School in New York.

Freddie's interests in high school were mostly in dramatics and singing. He at one time planned to be a doctor, but later decided to pursue a career in show business. His decision was a wise one for, barely out of his teens, he has already written several songs that have been recorded by top artists.

Some of the stars who have cut Scott's tunes include Gene Chandler and Paul Anka. Several more records by name personalities are in the offing.

Prior to being signed by Colpix, Freddie was a freelance writer. He is currently on the staff of writers for Screen Gems-Columbia Pictures Music. He has also done indie A&R for several companies.

Mel Carter

Mel Carter, who is presently hitting with "When A Boy Falls In Love," was born twenty years ago in Cincinnati, Ohio. Attracted to music from childhood, Mel started singing when he was four years old. By the time he was nine he had worked with Lionel Hampton and Jimmy Scott. In 1956 the chanter put in a stint with the Paul Gayton band.

When he was sixteen, and a member of the Raymond Rasberry Male Gospel Group, he joined the Air Force. While stationed at Scott Air Force Base in Illinois he joined a national gospel singing group out of Missouri called the Robert Anderson Singers.

In 1960 the artist came to Los Angeles and his career went into high gear. In rapid succession he worked such clubs as Circo's, the Crescendo, Cinamon Cinder, etc. The chanter's current Derby chart-rider is his first national hit.

When he is not on the road or recording, Mel spends much of his spare time songwriting and coaching young singing groups.

Cash Box PLATTER SPINNER PATTER

Early morning listeners of KVOZ-Laredo, Texas were treated to quite a surprise recently. Joe Pierce, morning personality and program director was ad-libbing about the idea of doing something completely different on the show. On the spur of the moment, Pierce decided on a long-distance phone call, via beeper, to Fidel Castro in Cuba. Proceedings were all carried on the air. Call was switched from one place to another in Havana, and eventually an individual answered who was ostensibly Castro's personal secretary. Castro, it seemed, was not available for said interview but Pierce was thanked and given an expression of regret that Castro was indisposed. Later, the Cuban government sent a letter as a follow-up. Pierce has it as souvenir of the exciting event.

Carson Rennie, Jerry Telser and Bill Bennett, air personalities of WLOL-Minneapolis appeared at the recent Minneapolis Aquatennial Air-O-Rama. Rennie and Telser broadcast events of the air show which included sky diving, wing walking and various other aerobatics. Bennett served as master of ceremonies for the stage show which featured TV star Sky King.

Arthur Harison, sales manager of WINS-New York, sends along word that gross revenue for the first six months of 1963 at the outlet was the highest in the history of the station. Billings for the period were 20 per cent higher than January through June of 1962. Second quarter figures, which topped the comparable three month period last year, mark the third consecutive quarter in which the station has registered increases over the previous year.

WIL-St. Louis' community affairs department is distributing "first aid treatment for accidental poisoning." Information sheets are being distributed by on-the-air public service announcements, and are available at the Cardinal Glennon Memorial for Children, and St. Louis Children's Hospital, as well as by all St. Louis area Welcome Wagon hostesses.

Jack Lazare, WHNC-New Haven's newly-appointed program director, will have a platoon named after him in September. The New Haven Army Recruiting Service will call a special group of WACS and WAVES the "Jack Lazare Platoon" induction day only. The station will add to the publicity by presenting each with a small gift. It's believed to be the first platoon ever named after a deejay and Jack plans a big salute to them when it happens. . . . The WHNC barbecue contest—in which seven advertisers participate—drew 300 pieces of mail the first week on-the-air. The winner of a complete barbecue for twenty with "trimmings" was mother of nine children.

KYW-Cleveland's general manager, Perry Bascom will accept the American Bar Association's silver gavel award at a special dinner to be held in Chicago on August 15 as a part of the ABA's 86th annual meeting. The award is being presented to KYW for its series "A Look At The Law" produced and narrated by Harv Morgan as part of his nightly "Program PM."

Larry Deane, popular evening deejay on WITH-Baltimore, is finally getting some time off for good behavior. Dean is taking a much-needed vacation in New York.

Everybody knows what a hootenanny is and to have a "surfin hootenanny" you just incorporate the surfin' aspect. KEWB-Oakland recently presented a stage show and a film at the Oakland Auditorium Arena. Price for all the tickets was 91 cents—with all proceeds going to the California Youth Symphony. The group left after the show for a series of appearances in Japan and the funds presented to them will aid in their expenses. Among the stars who appeared at the event were Jan and Dean, the Lively Ones and Larry Bright. The show was emceed by station spinners Scott Bridges, Art Nelson and Perry Roberts.

Popular Kapp 88'er Roger Williams recently appeared as guest deejay on WSUN-Tampa's "Home Highway" afternoon air stanza.

Hal J. Davis, general manager of KROD-El Paso, infos word that the station's policy of working directly with community groups in promoting projects in the El Paso area is a huge success. Representatives of the community groups record spot announcements that are utilized by KROD for week-long campaigns for important projects.

Ray Willes, KEX-Portland's "Nightside" host will introduce the First Annual Folk Festival on August 10 at Portland's Memorial Coliseum. Peter, Paul and Mary will headline the event. Appearing with the hot trio will be Odetta and Bud and Travis. The Festival is being presented by the outlet's deejays in cooperation with the Paramount Corporation.

A postcard was worth $500 for a Cleveland couple who located the WHK-Cleveland "Money Mystery House." For a period of close to three weeks that station had been broadcasting clues to the description and location of the Mystery House. While the family was in the neighborhood looking for houses for sale, and as part of the game of Mystery House hunting, they sent cards to those houses in the area they thought matched the clues.

Voices of Freedom—Series #4—is complete and shipments are being made to radio stations across the country. The series, presented by the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, is produced by the Storer Broadcasting Company and WIBG, Storer's 50,000 watt Quaker City station. According to William J. Wheatley, WIBG program manager and producer of the series, 467 stations have carried Voices Of Freedom in the past. Each of these stations has been invited to carry the new series. Stations wishing to broadcast series #4 are invited to send a check for $2.00 to Voices of Freedom, WIBG, Philadelphia 3, Pennsylvania. The two dollars covers the tape handling and mailing and the tape need not be returned. Storer Broadcasting Company has paid for all production costs on the series.

David Bradsher, program director of WSIC-Statesville, North Carolina, sends out an urgent s.o.s. for new releases. Dave sez the station offers a well-rounded music format and notes that all new decks will get full airing consideration as soon as they receive them.

VITAL STATISTICS:

Bob Foster, formerly with WKGN-Knoxville, is now spinning 'em on WTLK-Taylorsville, North Carolina. . . . John Smith is a new announcing add on WWRL-New York.

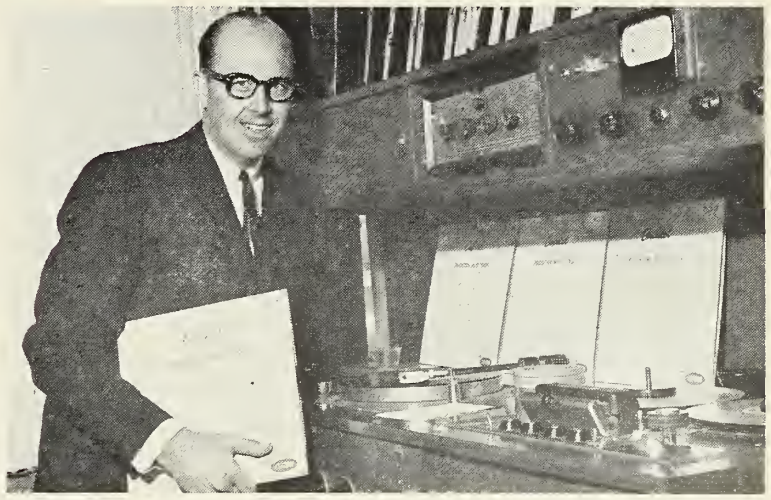
Capitol Offers Stations New Background Music Series



HOLLYWOOD—A new background library for radio outlets called Production Music Series (PMS) has been announced by Capitol Library Services. PMS offers music classified by category, rather than by the usual system of individual title. Each classification covers specific as well as general needs, with all music especially written and arranged for the purpose. PMS is broken down into the following categorical selections: sports and metro, sports and news, news and industrial, fast activities, show business, documentary marches, scenics, light and happy, comedy and cartoon-kiddie show, fashion show melodics, important melodics (documentary), plain melodics, production melodics, dramatic music, short title music—open and close, percussion effects, dramatic statements, etc.

This system, CLS said, is designed to permit any creative man, regardless of his musical education, to integrate a musical background for a commercial or program script, and because of its simplicity and special composition, it saves considerable time in selecting the proper music. It is offered on 14 LP, 33-1/3 double-faced discs, containing 254 different selections, is priced at $85.00. There are no leasing fees. The basic series will be added to periodically to maintain a flow of new timely melodics.

Victor's New Low-Priced Classicals Sees Re-Birth Of Victrola Label

NEW YORK—The Victrola name, the famous tag under which RCA Victor marketed its disk & phonos in the early years of the record industry, is being revived for a new line of low-priced, stereo-era classical disks.

Announcement of the venture was made at Victor's recent Best Buy sales confab (see other stories) by George Marek, who directs the label's operations.

Series, featuring top long-hair attractions, will retail at $2.50 for mono, $3 for stereo.

Bowing the line are 15 LP's, set for release this month, with second issue due in Oct. Beginning in Oct., Victrola LP's will appear on a bi-monthly basis.

Packaging format is hard-covers with imprinted spines for home cataloging, liner notes, inner jackets and shrink-wrapped covers. Each LP will be adorned by a reproduction of an art masterpiece, including, for Aug., such painters as Corot, Perugino, da Vinci, Barocci, Rubens, Mantegna and Poussin.

"The RCA Victrola label," Marek told the sales meet, will make available to the public at low price some of the most important and significant performances of great standard classics to have appeared in the stereophonic sound era." He added that the catalog will correspond "closely with what might be considered a basic classical music library for new collectors." The Victrola label was trademarked by The Victor Talking Machine Co. in 1906.

The initial 15 issues include: Rimsky-Korsakoff's Scheherazade by Pierre Monteux & The London Symph., Rachmaninoff's Piano Concerto No. 2 with Alexander Brailowsky and Enrique Jorda conducting the San Francisco Symph., Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture, Liszt's Mephisto Waltz and Debussy's Imberia with Fritz Reiner conducting the Chicago Symph., Stravinsky's Firebird Suite and Debussy's Nocturnes with Pierre Monteux conducting the Paris Conservatoire Orch. and Boston Symph., Brahms' Concerto in D for Violin with Henryk Szeryng and Monteux & The London Symph., Berlioz' Symphonie Fantastique with Monteux & The Vienna Philharmonic, Bruch's Violin Concert No. 1 & Mendelssohn's Concerto in E with Jaime Laredo & Howard Mitchell conducting the National Symph., and Charles Munch conducting the Boston Symph., Franck's Symphony in D with Munch & The Boston Symph., Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 & Schubert's Symphony No. 8 with Munch & The Boston

London Re-issues 16 Classical LP's On Richmond

NEW YORK—London Records has just announced the release of 16 new albums on its economy label, Richmond. The new release is a re-issue of London disks that includes four complete operas, four opera highlight sets and eight orchestral disks.

The complete operas are "Otello," "Rigoletto," "Salome," and a pairing of "Pagliacci" with "Cavalleria Rusticana." The Italian operas star tenor Mario Del Monaco and on the "Otello" set Renata Tebaldi shares the spotlight. The German opera features Christel Goltz.

Included in the opera highlights series are "La Boheme," "Madame Butterfly," "Tosca" and "Aida."

The eight orchestra packages feature the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra in a program of Richard Wagner, Ernest Ansermet and the Suissea Romande Orchestra performing Ravel's "Daphnis and Chloe," "Danse Macabre and other Orchestral Favorites," and "The Three Cornered Hat" ballet by Manuel de Falla. Eduard Van Beinum conducts on Handel's "Water Music" and "Royal Fireworks" and on Haydn's "Surprise" and "Military" symphonies. Jean Martinon conducts for a program of Offenbach Overtures and the London Symphony Orchestra with Sir Malcolm Sargent doing Gustav Holst's "The Planets."

Warner Bros. Inks Werner Mueller

BURBANK—Werner Mueller, internationally-famous orskter-composer-arranger from Berlin, has been signed to cut a series of special LP's for Warner Bros. Records, it was announced by Mike Maitland, the label's topper.

It reportedly marks the first time that any name German artist has been signed to a direct agreement with a major American label.

"We are very gratified to have been able to secure the multi-talented Werner Mueller for Warner Bros. Records," said Maitland, "and we are especially grateful to his German recording firm, Teldec, for granting Werner the right to record for our label while still under contract to their company."

International director Robert B. Weiss initiated and negotiated the contract in behalf of Warner Bros with Mueller and confirmed that the initial recording sessions (and all future recording dates) will take place in Berlin at the Teldec studies beginning Sept. 2.

Teldec And London Plan Production Deal

NEW YORK—Executives of Teldec, the German affiliate of British Decca, and reps of London Records met recently to discuss plans for recording European artists for the American market.

Hans Lieber and Artur Waizenegger of Teldec met with Mimi Trepel, foreign distribution manager, Ed Kissack, London group topper, and Joe Bott, head of London and London International. In their discussions, the execs made plans to record Caterina Valente, Werner Mueller and Will Glahe with the type of material which would appeal to the American market.

A meeting in Nashville between Mimi Trepel and Fred Foster, Monument head, was held to make plans for Monument artists to appear on radio and TV during their German tour this fall.

D. H. Toller-Bond, exec vice president of London, stated that the discussions between London Records and Teldec will strengthen product and sales in both the U.S. and Europe.

Victor execs, distribs and foreign reps were informed of the release of 25 pop albums for release in Aug.-Sept., eight Red Seals for Sept. and four Soria Series items for Aug. Included among the releases are two "highlighter" albums, one sampling the new pop product, the other new Red Seal releases. Both samplers are tagged "The New Sound of The Stars —Dynagroove." Twenty-two of the 34 Best Buy sets are also available on 4-track tapes.

Dynagroove Push

As the title of the samplers indicate, this year's program plays-up Victor's Dynagroove sound process, which the label debuted earlier this year. George Marek, veep and general manager of the label, told the gathering that the "Best Buy of '63 is, of course, a Dynagroove Best Buy." The label's big ad push for Aug.-Sept. will be keyed to the theme: "Now Enjoy the Worlds Greatest Aritists in His Master's New Voice . . . 'Dynagroove'."

It was announced at the meet that the diskery is offering its distribs a 12% discount on all Best Buy orders placed through Sept. 30. All new releases, catalog and tapes of Victor, RCA Camden (see separate story) and Victrola, qualify. Dating terms are also available.

The meet also saw the announcement of the revival of the Victrola label as the label's new low-priced classical outlet (see separate story).

Bill Alexander, the label's ad-promo manager, outlined the strong ad-promo campaign. "Only an astronaut could cover more space!," he quipped.

Ad-Promo Program

Highlighting national space ads will be a four-page "blockbuster" ad in Esquire which will headline the aforementiond campaign theme, including text depicting the acceptance of Dynagroove and illustrate all of the 34 Dynagroove albums. There will be six three-page ads, similar to the four-page spread, placed in Playboy, Cosmopolitan, High Fidelity, The New Yorker, Show and The New York Times Magazine. A one-page ad displaying the entire Red Seal Dynagroove release will run in the Saturday Review. In addition, there will be five individual artist advertisements placed in the New York Times Magazine & TV Guide—four of them full-pages, and the other a full-page-plus-column. Alexander said that the total readership impressions for these ads will total 82 million.

TV exposure of the campaign will include full-color commercials on Walt Disney's NBC series, "Wonderful World of Color," featuring pianist Peter Nero as spokesman for the Best Buy program. Commercials will be aired Sept. 1 & Sept. 8. Some 48 million viewers are expected to see the commercials, Alexander noted.

For national radio coverage, 11 30-second and 60-second radio spot scripts have been prepared covering Red Seal and pop product in the 1963 Best Buy. These scripts will be made available to Victor distribs for usage in their respective areas throughout the country.

Dealer Aids

Highlighting a potent array of point-of-sale material for 1963's Best Buy is a kit containing a major window display, an accordion-fold in-store hanger, two counter cards and twenty five consumer supplements. The window display is a compact, eye-catching unit showing all 34 Best Buy album covers with a striking three-dimensional effect, and is lighted from underneath to give maximum impact within a practical area. The accordion-fold in-store hanger also includes all 34 Best Buys LP's, together with a central message panel with the campaign's theme and a blowup of "Nipper." A dual-purpose item, the hanger can be opened up or squeezed together without losing visual effect. The counter cards come with tabs, on which individual dealers may place the albums of their choice. The consumer supplements are 6-page dazzlers in full-color, or, suitable for mailing. They show Best Buy theme and display album cuts of every Best Buy album, together with descriptive copy for each. In addition, distributors will be provided with browser boxes and salesmen's brochures which document the entire Advertising and Promotion Campaign in booklets fitted inside the front covers.

As a point-of-sale plus, copies of a six-page, full-color trade publication advertisement—which emphasizes the campaign's theme and displays every LP cover in the Best Buy release and includes room for dealers' imprints—will be made available to distribs in quantities sufficient to supply all dealers, for use as counter give-aways and mailing pieces.

To stimulate distrib local advertising, Victor will provide eight Best Buy ad mats in all sizes, covering all Dynagroove Best Buy product, and radio spot scripts and a Red Seal Dealer Brochure displaying all classical merchandise being offered for August and September.

Two Key Jobbers Fill Out Columbia Re-Authentication Form

NEW YORK—Two large rack-jobbers have already filled-out & returned to Columbia Records special "re-authentication" forms that the label now requires of sub-distribs who want to purchase its product at functional discounts.

The two firms are Roberts of St. Louis and Handelman of Detroit. Praising this action on the part of Columbia, Hausfater said similar moves by "every record label would make this business a lot more healthier."

In making "representations & warranties" to Columbia, rack-jobbers and one-stops declare that they have at least 50 retail and/or jukebox operator accounts in or over which they do not have any stock ownership, proprietary interest or management supervision or control. Those establishments which are associated with the rack-jobber or one-stop must be listed on the last page of the form.

Those filling-out the forms also agree to: no consignment sales as sub-distribs; monthly accounting to Columbia of its product sold to jukebox operators or retailer in which there is a measure control by the rack-jobber or one-stop; advise Columbia in writing within 10 days if stated facts are changed; understand that Columbia will rely on representations as the basis for granting sub-distrib discounts, and to indemnify the label and any of its affiliated corporations against "any and all losses and expenses which you incur as a result of sales made to us in reliance upon any statements herein contained which is either not untrue or which later becomes untrue" and is not brought to the label's attention.

Concludes the form:

It is clearly understood that we shall not be entitled to any sub-distributor discount (a) on any sales made to juke-box operators or retailers (including record concessions and/or leased record departments) in or over which we have any stock ownership, proprietary interest or management supervision or control, or (b) on any sales to retailers which are consignment sales, or (c) on any sales which might be made by us at retail (including sales by record concessions and/or leased record departments). We further understand that any sub-distributor discounts granted by you may be terminated by you at any time.

NARM's Chi Meet Sees Reaction To Columbia's Pricing, Sub-Distrib Moves

CHICAGO—One hundred & seventy reps of leading rack-jobbers and labels were on hand here to attend the mid-year meet of NARM, the rack jobber organization, last week (July 31-Aug. 2). The attendance figure was the largest yet for a between-the-annual-convention confab of NARM. A solid total of 58 labels were present.

While a prime function of the meet, held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel, was to bring labels and rack-jobbers together for person-to-person introductions of new Fall & Xmas product and programs, the prime topic of conversation was, naturally, Columbia Records' recently inaugurated price stabilization move and matters related to the label's industry bombshell, including its new functional discount procedure.

NARM itself is taking no official stand on Columbia's actions, but the general feeling among rack-jobbers attending the meet was agreement with many aspects of the label's new pricing policies and a "try-their-best" attitude to carry it through. Some rackers, however, felt that Columbia's "frozen price" move would leave them in a "difficult position" since they felt it afforded them an insufficient profit margin. Still others felt it "strange" that Columbia's subsid, Epic Records, was not selling its product under similar circumstances. At the recent Columbia convention in Puerto Rico, where Columbia's price moves were first announced, it was conceded by the label's sales chief Bill Gallagher that Epic was not yet in a competitive position where it could also take part in the parent company's new pricing policies. However Gallagher did say that when and if indies indicate they can move in the Columbia direction, Epic will be first.

As to the forms which Columbia now requires sub-distribs to fill out as a prerequisite to a functional discount, the label is assured of just about complete compliance among NARM rackers.

However, many an individual rack-jobber will be consulting with his personal attorney before he fills out and mails the forms to Columbia. The deadline date set by the label for the forms to be in its hands has been extended from Aug. 1 to Sept. 1. It was noted that many rack-jobbers hadn't the opportunity to see the forms, since the label started its mailing last week.

A spokesman for NARM said that the labels on hand had been doing "good business," but could not reveal specifics as to total dollar volume.

A highlight of the Thurs. gathering was the presentation of plaques to honor and recognize past presidents and board members of NARM. Current president Cecil Steen also received a plaque. Previously serving as NARM toppers were Jim Tiedjens (1958-60), Harold Goldman (1960-61), Ed Snyder (1961-62) and Glen Becker (1962-63).

NARM Sets '63 Convention For Miami Beach (Apr. 19-23)

CHICAGO—NARM's 1964 convention dates & sites were announced at last week's mid-year of the rack organization. Dates are April 19-23 at the Eden Roc Hotel in Miami Beach, Fla. Co-chairmen of the convention are Ed Snyder and George Berry.

Newport Folk Fest Scores Stunning Triumph; 47,000 Attend 3 Concerts, All-time High

NEWPORT, R.I.—Dramatic proof of the current folk music renaissance was the recently concluded 3-day (26-28) festival held in and around Freebody Park, this city. The folkfest, which consisted of four main concerts and a series of morning and afternoon workshops and panels, even broke attendance records of its more-firmly entrenched "big sister" Jazz Festival. In cold dollars and cents aftermath, the 47,000 paid admissions will mean that the nonprofit Newport Folk Foundation will have about $70,000 to utilize for educational projects.

The first concrete indication of the tremendous turnout came on Fri. afternoon (26) when incoming crowds were bogged down, for nearly three hours, in a standstill traffic jam behind the Jamestown-Newport ferry. Despite a scorching 86 degrees, the spirits of the fans sandwiched in the mammoth logjam of burning automobiles remained significantly high. Many festival-goers, who were, for the main, clean-scrubbed collegiate types, passed the stagnant hours singing and pickin' in hootenanny fasihon with their friends. A spirit of camaraderie and unrestrained exuberance filled the air.

For coordinating the event and preventing what might have developed into a disjointed hodge-podge of trivia, credit must be given to technical producer George Wein and the seven atrist-board members who devoted their time and services; Theodore Bikel, Bill Clifton, Clarence Cooper, Erik Darling, Jean Ritchie, Pete Seeger and Peter Yarrow. For the financial success of the festival, credit must also be given to the more than 70 performers who worked in the stifling heat for minimum wages.

This year the festival committee invited a formidably eclectic program of folksingers to appear in the historic resort city. There was a cross-section of first-line professionals and an impressive array of little-known performers. The audience could also pick and attend 18 daytime panels and workshops, as many as four at a time, which were conducted on the tennis courts of the Newport Casino. But the crowd came, in many cases from such distant plances as Calif. and Wash., to see their favorites.

Heading the list of crowd-pleasers was Vanguard's Joan Baez. The madonna-like folksinger's sensitivity, superior musicianship and ethereal beauty have made her, according to one trade source "the high-priestess of the contemporary American folk movement." Baez is obviously cognizant of her role and offered her fans a generous helping of songs frequently-associated with her including "Freedom," "All My Trails" and "Long Black Veil." Further playing-up to her disciples, she amused the vast audience by rendering a pungent satire of a popular rock 'n' roll song.

However, the acclaimed hero of the fete was a 22-year-old writer-singer-guitarist-harmonica player from Hibbing, Minn. called Bob Dylan. The artist, who records for Columbia and who is the writer of the current Peter, Paul and Mary hit, "Blowin' In The Wind," completely captured the imagination of the audience and performers alike with his hard-driving talkin' blues style and biting, topical songs of protests. Looking something like a displaced Bowery Boy, the sandy-

It's Dion DiMuci Now

NEW YORK—Dion, the star songster, has added his surname—DiMuci—to his future billings, including dates on disks, TV, concerts, flicks, supper clubs, etc.

All future contracts calling for the performer's services, it was announced, will stipulate that he be billed as such.

At the beginning of his disk career, DiMuci sang with The Belmonts, then known as Dion & The Belmonts. After he left the group to become a solo, he retained the Dion billing.

DiMuci, one of the Columbia label's powerhouse teen performers, will do his first "book" show when he stars in a summer production of "Wish You Were Here" at Cleveland's Cane Park from Aug. 14-25. Other upcoming p.a.'s include a one-niter tour in a package in which he'll co-star with Sam Cooke, and a tour of England. While in England, he's scheduled to star on the popular "Saturday Night at the Palladium" TV'er.

NEW YORK—Robert Lissauer, vice president and general manager of the Youmans Music company, has announced that 20th Century Fox Records will issue a memorial album of Vincent Youmans tunes this month.

The LP will be tagged "Like Time On My Hands, A Tribute To Vincent Youmans," and will feature pianist Til Dieterle and her instrumental group.

An all-out celebration is planned to commemorate the 65th anniversary of the late composer's birth, and the LP will be shipped to distributors on Aug. 20, ready for the Sept. 27 birthday anniversary, the focal point for the commemorative tribute. Youmans died in 1949 at the age of 49.

London Sets Aug. Stereo Tape Release

NEW YORK—Marty Wargo, sales director at London Records, has announced the label will release its first stereo tape packages of material selected from the catalog of its subsidiary classical label, L'Oiseau-Lyre.

The first release, to be available early this month, includes two operas, Berloiz "Beatrice and Benedict" and Purcell's "Dido and Aeneas."

The August tape sets from London will include "She Loves" by Frank Chacksfield, a coupling of "Wild Strings" with Werner Muller and "Golden Strings" with Johnny Douglas, and one classical entry, "Tales of Old Vienna" with the Vienna Philharmonic conducted by Willi Boskovsky.

4 Albums In Summer Issue From Caedmon

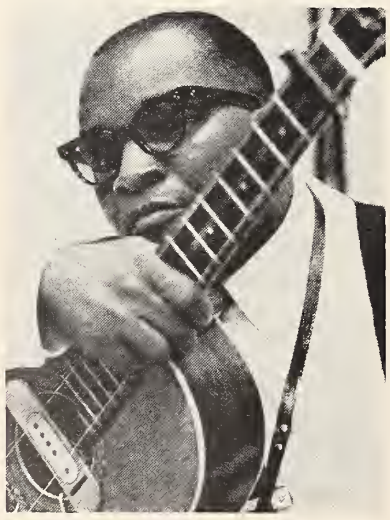
NEW WORK — Caedmon Records' summer release schedule calls for the release of four LP's.

In its Shakespeare Recording Society series, the spoken-word outfit is offering "Sonnets of William Shakespeare" read by Sir John Gielgud (2-LP's). Rudyard Kipling works are featured in two separate entries featuring Boris Karloff, who does Kipling's Jungle Books: "How Fear Came" and "Toomai of the Jungle." The final issue is Roark Bradford's "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun" narrated by Mantan Moreland.

Dealer Calls It Quits

NEW YORK—Current efforts to bring price stabilization within the industry have come too late for Edward L. Flynn's two disk dealerships in Taylor, Mich. Flynn has closed both stores with the following explanation to Cash Box: "We have closed both of our stores . . . It seems a shame that the music industry has fallen to such depths that discount stores sell our product cheaper than we can buy it from the manufacturer . . . If the prevailing industry conditions are improved and we go back into business again, we would be happy to re-establish our relationship with you."

Epic Inks Rodriguez



NEW YORK — Arsenio Rodriguez, the vet Cuban composer who originated the mambo back in 1937 with his composition "So Caballo," is back on the scene, this time on Epic Records with a new Afro-Cuban beat, the "Quindembo" which in Congolese means "mixture." The artist was blinded at seven but he has mastered every musical instrument specializing in the "Tres"—or 3 string guitar native to Cuba. Rodriguez was signed to the label by Pete Rosaly who produced his first LP.

Monte Denied Injunction In Suit Against Pickwick Int'l

NEW YORK—The New York State Supreme Court has denied a motion by Lou Monte for an injunction to restrain Pickwick International from distributing & selling a low-priced LP featuring tracks by Monte & The Botti Endore Quartet.

In a damage suit against PI, Monte charged that he did not grant PI permission to release the dates and that the LP contained a voice that sought to take advantage of his special brand of Italian-flavored vocals.

The Supreme Court overruled Monte's claim that "production and distribution was not authorized" by him. PI contended that "such authority was given to the plaintiff's predecessor in interest and that the linking of plaintiff's recordings with other artists in a single album is practice common to the trade."

The Court held that "in view of the conflicting arguments and in absence of a clear showing of irreparable damage, the drastic relief herein sought cannot be granted."

Monte's attorney, Edward J. Kaufman, told Cash Box that he would bring the case before a jury.

Carlton's "Few But Great" Release Policy Debuts With Connie Francis Protege

NEW YORK—After three months of drydocking all releases under a new "few but great" policy, Carlton Records last week revealed a deal with MGM singing star Connie Francis which will result in this week's launching of the first single under the new marketing philosophy.

The Carlton deal with the star, does not involve her personal artist services, of course, but was consummated on behalf of her young protege-star Rick Skylar. Negotiations were completed last week by Miss Francis' manager George Sheck and Carlton prexy Joe Carlton.

The young chanter has been signed to a term contract calling for joint creation and production of records by Connie Francis' production staff of arrangers and writers and the Carlton personnel. The first session starring Skylar has already been cut with large orchestra and group under the auspices of Connie Francis' publishing company, Merna Music, with producer-writer-arranger services contributed by Stan Vincent, Hank Hunter and singer-writer Skylar. Both Vincent and Hunter have indie hits chalked up to their combined writer-arranger credits, apart from the many clicks for the lark.

Unique production deal between Carlton and MGM singing star's firm calls for a long-term build-up via singles and albums with promotion and creative costs to be jointly financed. Initial large-sound, teen-platter entitled "Crying In My Cherry Soda Pop" ships this week.

Emphasizing its enthusiasm for the Francis-produced platter, Carlton Company previously had curtailed releases rigidly, prexy Joe Carlton contending the only solution for the "saturated market" problem to be manufacturer adoption of his "few but great" theory.

Distribs handling the new platter under the new policy, Carlton emphasizes, will receive absolutely no allocations of product, absolutely no "free goods" except for direct radio-disk-jockey airplay purposes, and will be asked to place complete reliance on public reaction to product without discount. As balm to the distributors, a "realistic" new pricing policy will be announced later.

Columbia's Got Cassius Clay For A "Greatest" Long Play

NEW YORK—Cassius Clay, boxing's poet and prognosticator, has entered the disk ring via a deal with Columbia Records.

Clay, who'll enter the boxing ring next month to fight Sonny Liston for the heavyweight title, will write, produce, direct and star on an LP called "I Am The Greatest," which is one of Clay's many self-proclaimed tributes. Sessions for the LP, which will include Clay rhymes, songs and skits, take place in New York this week.

"Cassius Clay," says Columbia's Dave Kapralik, who negotiated the contract that brought the boxer to the label, "has proven throughout his meteoric career that he has an indefinable quality which makes him an extraordinary public personality. We strongly believe that we can capture his truly unique personality on his forthcoming records."

Clay has employed his rhymes, mostly in the form of couplets, to predict the exact rounds in which his opponents will be defeated, and he's been remarkably accurate. He's won all 19 of his professional bouts. In the above pic Clay discusses his new recording plans with Goddard Lieberson, prexy of Columbia Records.

Columbia To Promote Thornton's Dauntless Disk

NEW YORK — William Gallagher, vice president of marketing for Columbia Records, has announced that the label will promote Teri Thornton's single, "Somewhere In The Night," on the Dauntless label. The lark was pacted to Columbia a few weeks ago.

Gallagher and Sidney Frey, Audio Fidelity topper, of which Dauntless is a subsid, negotiated to have Columbia promote and re-service the Dauntless disk. A national campaign has been planned, and Gallagher stated that future recordings made by the songstress for Columbia will be strengthened by this arrangement.

Chi Music Show Sets New Attendance Mark

CHICAGO — The 1963 Music Show, sponsored by the National Association of Music Merchants, and held in Chicago's Palmer House July 21-25, set a new attendance record.

William R. Gard, executive secretary of the NAMM, reported buyer attendance at the five day affair was up 32 per cent over last year. Final count of buyers this year was 4,936, compared with 3,829 last year. Overall registration was 13,192, compared with 11,769 last year.

Retailers left the show in an optimistic mood. A survey disclosed merchants look for a 10 per cent increase in business this year, according to Gard.

With about 75 per cent of NAMM members selling home electronics, there was much emphasis placed upon phonos, small screen television; color TV and solid state (all transistorized) and TV sets at the Show.

Eldred S. Byerly, Byerly Brothers Music Co., Peoria, Ill., was elected president of NAMM during the Music Show, succeeding Ted S. Korten, Korten's, Longview, Washington.

The 63rd annual show next year will be held in the Palmer House in Chicago, July 19-23.

Queens Litho Suffers Damage In Thunder Storm

"Sukiyaki's" Sakamoto Sets U.S. Visit This Month

HOLLYWOOD—Kyu Sakamoto, the young (21) Japanese star whose Capitol recording of "Sukiyaki" was America's No. 1 record for four weeks this summer, will make his first visit to the United States in mid-August. Label has just released his follow-up date, "China Nights."

He will arrive here the evening of Aug. 13 and return to Tokyo the night of Aug. 16, traveling both ways via Pan American jet. During his brief stay in Hollywood, Sakamoto will be on an 18 hour-a-day schedule, capped by two appearances on the Steve Allen Show for airing in Sept.

Also on his agenda are a press conference, in-person and telephone interviews, a cocktail party, and conferences with representatives of the Japanese government in Los Angeles.

A highlight of Sakamoto's trip will be a visit with Los Angeles Mayor Sam Yorty, at which the young entertainer will present Yorty with a scroll and official greetings from the mayor of Osaka, Japan, sister city to Los Angeles.

The final day of his stay in the United States will be strictly pleasure for Sakamoto, who then will be guest of honor at Disneyland.

While in Hollywood, Sakamoto and his party will stay at the Beverly Hilton Hotel, where the cocktail party and press conference will be held. He will be accompanied on the trip by his personal manager, Masao Manase and Mrs. Manase and Warren Birkenhead, Capitol's rep in Japan. Also traveling with Sakamoto will be a cameraman from a Japanese TV network who will cover the performer's first visit to the United States.

The trip marks the second time the popular young entertainer has trekked outside of Japan. Last Sept. he made a 20-day tour of Europe.

A highly successful star in Japan, Sakamoto in the past four years has recorded four LP's and 15 singles, all hits, has starred in eight motion pictures, headlines four weekly television shows, and appears regularly on radio.

Victor Makes New Rep Agreement With Teldec

NEW YORK — RCA Victor Records has concluded a new long-term deal with Germany's Teldec label that marks a major step in the eventual use of the RCA Victor logo all over the world.

Deal was finalized in New York recently when Teldec execs Hans Lieber, general manager, and Artur Waizenegger, sales manager, were on a U.S. visit. Teldec will continue to press, on a custom basis, Victor product for indie RCA distribs in Scandinavia, Austria and Switzerland.

"The RCA Victor imprint will be used throughout Continental Europe," stated Dario Soria, veep of Victor's international dept., "which means another step forward in establishing the label on a global scale."

During their stay in the U.S., Lieber and Waizenegger visited the Victor plant in Indianapolis and attended the label's Best Buy sales meet in White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. (see separate story on execs' meets with officials of London Records, U.S. outlet of Decca of England, affiliated with the German label since 1950—Teldec is a contraction of Telefunken and Decca).

Teldec will also issue Victor's new low-priced classical line, Victrola, to the West German market. Teldec's association with Victor dates back to 1957.

Grand Award Issues 3 Lingual LP's

NEW YORK—Going abroad and not up on the Italian, French and Spanish languages and locales? Grand Award Records can be of help with three new LP entries for the tourist and traveler.

Each package includes a full-length LP language course (in Italian, French and Spanish), a pocket-sized world-phase guide and an illustrated tourist guide book prepared in cooperation with Pan American Airways. The Spanish LP, incidentally, is intended for use in connection with trips to South America.

The packages, listing at $4.98 in mono and stereo, provide key words, phrases and sentences to cover such exigencies as arrival, transportation, money, sightseeing, shopping, making phone calls, sending telegrams, ordering meals and seeking entertainment.

Approach of each set is similar: first the word, phrase or sentence is said in English. It is then repeated in the language three times with pauses between to allow the listener to repeat them to himself wtih the proper inflection and pronunciation.

Enoch Light, head of GA, served as exec producer for the albums, which feature the expert lingual knowledge of college professors Olga Ragusa (Italian), Guillermo Brown (Spanish) and Dr. Michael Riffaterre (French). Lyle Engel was exec director and Julie Klages produced and directed.

Kessler Exits Leiber & Stoller, Revives Kryder Music

NEW YORK—Danny Kessler has resigned as veep and professional manager of the Lieber-Stoller indie production-pubbery organization.

Kessler, who said his parting with L&S was amicable, has reactivated his music operation, Kryder Music, which has been inactive for the two years he has been associated with L&S. He said that he is presently arranging for office space to house his pubbery and production company. Several production deals are being negotiated, he added.

During Kessler's tenure with L&S the firm made a number of successful production deals and inked a host of click writers, such as Jeff Barry, Ellie Greenwich, Billy Ed Wheeler, Tony Powers and Van McCoy, who were responsible for such hits as "Da Doo Ron Ron" by The Crystals, "Whata Guy" by The Raindrops, "Reverend Mr. Black" by The Kingston Trio, "Let's Kiss & Make Up" by Bobby Vinton," "She Cried" by Jay & The Americans and others.

Kessler has had A&R stints with Columbia and Victor. After his label affiliations, he formed Rush Music, which he sold just prior to joining the L&S setup.

Newport Folk Fest

haired, lanky youth, who wore the same pair of bluejeans and mustard-stained workshirt for most of the Festival, ranks as the logical successor to Woody Guthrie as the folk-poet laureate of the nation.

Another newcomer who exploded on the Newport scene was John Hammond, Jr. The 20-year-old son of the Columbia executive, who was not known by the bulk of the crowd prior to the event, thrilled the fans with his distinctive rural blues. Vanguard, which recorded the entire 3-day Festival, will release Hammond's first album in the near future.

The smorgasbord element of the program was clearly-delineated by the chasmal variance in the performers. The first evening concert (26) ran the gamut from the slick, polished Peter, Paul and Mary, who offered a bevy of their single hits, to Bill Monroe and His Blue Grass Boys, who were superb with their rich catalog of bluegrass evergreens. The concert also had first-rate performances by such seemingly incompatible artists as Jean Redpath, a traditional singer of Scottish ballads, and the Freedom Singers, a gospel quartet, who made some eloquent musical statement for the integration movement.

The air of good fellowship and warmth was glaringly present in the afternoon workshops. Here was where the enthusiastic youngsters came to learn and observe their idols close-up. The programs varied as much as the concerts. To mention a few, there were "Bluegrass Bands," hosted by Bill Clifton with appearances by such giants in the field as Bill Monroe, Mike Seeger, Eric Weissberg, Jim and Jesse, Mac Wiseman and the Morris Brothers. There were symposiums devoted to fiddles, banjos, guitars and the autoharp. Alan Lomax gave a stimulating talk about collecting folk music and there was an interesting panel in which lawyers and singers discussed the intricate copyright situation. There were two children's concert workshops and a session devoted to topical songs and new songwriters. A noteworthy highlight was a 2-hour segment in which anthropologist David McAllester introduced the Albuquerque Intertribal Dancers, a gregarious troupe of Indian dancers and musicians.

There were many voices at the festival that deserve special mention. Among the old-standbys who turned in their usual high-quality performances were Ed McCurdy, Jean Ritchie, John Lee Hooker, Dave Von Ronk, Maybelle Carter, Theodore Bikel and of course, folkdom's perennial juvenile Pete Seeger, who closed the final concert (28) by leading all the artists present in a rousing rendition of Woody Guthrie's immortal, "This Land Is My Land."

Favorable responses were evinced from the crowd by showings by the newer crop of folk stars including appearances by the Tarriers, Judy Collins, Mike Settle, the Dillards, the Rooftop Singers, Jackie Washington and the New Lost City Ramblers.

Although the Newport police prepared for any contingency, imported 50 extra patrolmen for the event, there were few arrests (mostly for minors purchasing alcoholic beverages) and only minor skirmishes. A police official commented: "These kids are remarkably well-behaved. We don't expect any trouble." For the most part, the fans spent their "off hours" between concerts and workshops, strolling around Newport and perfecting their own musicianship in small, closely-knit clusters.

The success of the Newport Folk Festival has an important, far-reaching meaning. Folk music need no longer take a back seat status. Folk music is a business as well as an art form and it's a business that can pay off handsomely.

Bill Randle Appointed To Newly-Created Post At Col.

NEW YORK—David Kapralik, pop A&R director at Columbia Records, has announced the appointment of Bill Randle to the newly-created post of special projects assistant.

In his new position, Randle will be responsible to Kapralik for assisting in the planning of pop A&R and for suggesting new artists, ideas and concepts for albums and singles.

Randle, who is currently a lecturer at Columbia University's department of history, has his own daily WCBS radio show and has an extensive background in American music. The new special projects assistant is the producer of "The Shaker Heritage," a 10 LP set published by the press of Western Reserve Univ., and "The Bill Broonzy Story," which was nominated for the NARAS award in '62. Randle is also a frequent contributor to national magazines, including Esquire.

New Vinton, Maharis Decks From Epic

NEW YORK—Epic Records has announced the immediate release of singles from two of its major artists, Bobby Vinton and George Maharis. Both decks were produced by Robert Morgan, label A&R exec.

The Vinton single pairs "Blue Velvet" with "Is There A Place (where I Can Go)." The sides are culls from the songsters current LP, "Blue On Blue."

The new entry from actor-chanter Maharis couples "That's How It Goes" with "It Isn't There," a follow-up to his "Where Can You Go (For A Broken Heart)." Along with the release of the Maharis single, the label has sent a press kit to 500 deejays and publications which contain pics and bio material.

New Chi One-Stop

CHICAGO—Russ DiAngelo, a one-stopper who was employed for several years as a manager of Jim O'Dwyer's Music Box One Stop organization, recently formed his own one stop with another one stop veteran, Tony Burasco. The new firm is known as The Record Mart One Stop, serving music ops and dealers, on the south side of this city.

Dootsie Topper Working Against "Earth Angel" Phonies

Another ring of record counterfeiters is being forced underground by the combined efforts of law enforcement officers and industry officials, Dootsie Williams, president of Dooto Records, has disclosed.

The latest ring now being investigated and slated to feel the "full force" of law detection and public exposure is operating in New York and other major markets, Williams said. Its members attempted to peddle thousands of counterfeit copies of the teen classic "Earth Angel" by The Penguins.

Previously, Williams and cooperating agencies had floored record bootleggers dealing in comic Redd Foxx's albums. One group in the Midwest, Williams said, went so far as to tape Dooto albums and then issue bogus copies under the "Fox Records" label.

In the case of "Earth Angel," a New York record presser reported that "a person" came to his establishment, stated that he held proper authority, and ordered five thousand copies of "Earth Angel" manufactured.

When he didn't return to pick them up, the presser became suspicious.

"We've been in contact with the New York District Attorney's office," Williams said, "just as, in the past, we've worked with district attorneys in other major markets, helping to assemble evidence leading to crackdowns on the crooks who sell bogus, counterfeit, bootlegged and inferior copies of our copyrighted works."

Williams continued:

"Our investigations have caused the counterfeiters to go underground. We're quite sure now that only the genuine copies of 'Earth Angel' are being sold. However, as protection for our customers, we're offering a $10,000 reward for information leading to the apprehension and conviction of anyone counterfeiting our records."

Williams admitted that the counterfeiters' activity was "a left-handed compliment" to his product.

Although it was released as long ago as 1954, "Earth Angel" is still a big seller. "It brings sure bread-and-butter money to our company," Williams quipped.

To date, more than two million copies of the record have been sold. Additionally, Doota has leased its masters for over a score of "oldies but goodies" albums. More than 30 American and foreign singing groups have recorded the song.

Atco Handling Colt 45 Disking

NEW YORK—Atco Records has made an agreement with Colt 45 Records to be the national distrib of the label's "Run Little Billy" outing by Barry Darvell. Action on the deck, Atco said, has started in Washington, D.C.

ABC-Par Names Charles LP, Changes Title of Sherwood Set

NEW YORK—ABC-Paramount Records has come-up, after some delay, with the title of its new Ray Charles LP. It's "Ingredients in A Recipe for Soul." In another LP title matter, the label has reported a change-in-title of the new Roberta Sherwood album. Previously called "Gospel Goes Pop," it is now known as "The Joy—The Excitement—The Inspiration of Roberta Sherwood Gone Gospel."

American Hootenanny Festival Clicks With "Pick-Along" Gimmick

NEW YORK—A "pick-along" contest for amateur guitarists and banjo players is making the "American Hootenanny Festival" tour (headed by the Greenbriar Boys and emcee-banjoist-singer Bill Faier) one of the most successful folk packages currently on the road. Although the bill doesn't spotlight big names, it has been booked solid since July 17—playing the capacity crowds in most locations with dates running through Labor Day.

In addition to the "pick-along" gimmick the small-budget package is drawing crowds on the basis of low-admissions (average $1.20-$1.80) and lengthy (three to four hour) performances. Produced by Fred Hertz, the package is the first folk bill booked by Willard Alexander, heretofore a specialist in the pop band field.

Due to the success of the current tour, Hertz is readying a second company, "American Hootenanny Festival, Act II," which will go out in mid-August with folksinger Logan English as headliner and emcee. Alexander's office reports that five of the first seven promoters who booked the current tour have already signed to present the second company.

LP Chart Collection

NEW YORK—The number 41 listing on last week's mono LP chart was incorrect. Album in that spot should have been "Oldies But Goodies, Vol. 5" (Original Sound), not "Golden Goodies, Vol. 5" (Roulette).

Nina Simone Skeds Lots Of Aug.-Sept. P.A.s

NEW YORK—Nina Simone, fresh from breaking all attendance records at New York's Village Vanguard, has lined up a busy schedule of concerts & club dates for Aug. and Sept.

The Colpix jazz stylist's first Aug. date was an appearance last weekend (3) at the Forest Hills Festival in New York. This week (5), she'll perform at the AGVA benefit for Rev. Martin Luther King in Birmingham, Ala.

Looking ahead, she'll be the featured attraction at the Ohio Jazz Festival in Cincinnati on Aug. 25; from Aug. 27 through Sept. 1, the artist will fill an engagement at the Minor Key in Detroit, to be followed by a stint at the Paradise West in Los Angeles from Sept. 18 to Oct. 1.

Her latest LP, part of Colpix' summer albums, is tagged "Nina Simone at Carnegie Hall." Label also plans a singles release in the near future.

Lester Flatt & Earl Scruggs Set A Record

NASHVILLE—Lester Flatt and Earl Scruggs recently drew the biggest crowd in more than 10 years into the Music City's Centennial Park to see them perform. A holiday atmosphere was evident long before concert time when every seat was taken. By the time the group began to play, there wasn't standing room where you could see the stage. Many of the people across the street abandoned the national pastime at a baseball game to watch the Columbia musicians.

Teacher On Sabbatical As Teen-Beat Cleffer

NEW YORK—A cleffer-teacher has been on sabbatical leave from the Boston Public School System for the past year devoting his time to creating teen-market tunes.

Lee Morris, who had his first hit 11 years ago as co-cleffer of Tony Bennett's "Blue Velvet," has had a number of his efforts cut by major rock-area performers.

Artists who have cut Morris items include The Chantels ("Some Tears Fall Dry"), Toni Fisher ("Lovers, Dreamers, Fools"), The Cascades ("A Little Like Lovin' "), Elvis Presley ("You Can't Say No In Acapulco") and Peggy March ("Johnny Cool"). Morris is currently working on a collection of "fink" tunes that will eventually go into a "fink"-themed LP. Already completed is "Think Like A Fink."

Atlantic Inks Farmer-Hall Quartet

NEW YORK—Jazzdom's Art Farmer-Jim Hall Quartet has been inked to an exclusive pact by Atlantic Records. The combo, headed by flugelhorn-trumpet playing Farmer and guitarist Hall, has already cut its initial sessions for the label, and the results will be contained in an LP to be issued this fall. A singles outing will probably be marketed at the same time. Since their teaming at the end of '62, the jazzists have led their combo at leading jazz spots around the country. Engagements have been set for Aug. and Sept. in Pittsburgh, Boston and New York.

Musictapes To Issue Everest Catalog

CHICAGO—Musictapes has received tape marketing rights to the complete catalog of Everest Records.

The initial Everest tape release, set for early next month, will include approximately 30 of the label's best-selling recordings, including the complete nine Beethoven Symphonies by Sir Joseph Krips and The London Symph. in a deluxe package at an "estimated" price of $24.95. With Everest in its fold, Musictapes will be expanded to more than 150 tape titles of music of all types.

Epic Bows "Memory Lane" Series With 10 Singles

NEW YORK—In response to requests from retailers, juke box ops and rack jobbers, Epic Records is introducing the Memory Lane Series, according to announcement made last week by Len Levy, the label's general manager.

The new series contains some of the most popular hits of recent years cut by Epic artists. The first release in the series comprises 20 selections on ten singles. Special labels and sleeves have been designed for the series, which is available to distribs in a counter browser bix which contains titled divider cards.

Smash Pacts Lee Dorsey

CHICAGO—Charlie Fach, Smash Records topper, has announced the signing of songster Lee Dorsey to an exclusive long-term contract.

Negotiations for the pact were concluded by Dorsey's producer Marshall Cehorn who has produced some of the chanter's earlier sides.

Dorsey, who scored previously with a million seller dubbed, "Ya-Ya," on the Fire-Fury label, has a first Smash single planned for immediate release.

Garner Making Solo P.A. In N.Y. This Season

NEW YORK—Erroll Garner makes his only New York area concert appearance of the season at the Westbury Music Fair, Long Island, on Monday evening, Aug. 12.

Accompanied by bassist Eddie Calhoun and percussionist, Kelly Martin, Garner will present a new program of improvisations based on show tunes, standards, and some of his own compositions.

Featured will be treatments based on selections from Garner's new best-seller album, "One World Concert" Garner's first "live" concert recording in seven years. LP is on Garner's Octave label and released through Reprise Records.

Garner comes to the Westbury Music Fair from a record-breaking engagement at Chicago's London House. Prior to that, the pianist spent several weeks in Hollywood recording music from a forthcoming Paramount film, "A New Kind Of Love", starring Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward, for which Garner composed four themes. Garner recorded the film score with a 35 piece orchestra, conducted by Leith Stevens.

In Sept., Garner leaves for an extended concert tour of England and Europe.

Mills Music To Open Branch In Milan

NEW YORK—Jack Mills, topper of Mills Music, Inc., has announced that the pubbery is completing negotiations for the opening of Mills Italy in Milan, the firm's 10th foreign office.

Under the pending agreement, the Italian firm Edisioni Curci, managed by Gramitte Ricci, will function as Mills Music Italian office.

Mills, who just returned from a six-week stay in Europe, also announced a five-year extension of the firm's representation of Garisch of Milan, and a pacting with Spanish composer Luis de Pablo.

Jack Pleis To Score "Diary Of A Bachelor"

NEW YORK—Vet pianist, composer and arranger Jack Pleis has been signed by producer-director Sandy Howard to compose and conduct an original score for the Homer Productions comedy, "Diary Of A Bachelor."

Pleis will compose his score around seven themes—one for each of the bachelor's girl friends.

The cleffer has a long list of composing and arranging credits to his name having arranged for Bing Crosby, Sammy Davis Jr., Danny Kaye and a host of others.

Command LP Aims To Give Pic Main-Titles Their Due

NEW YORK—Bringing flick background music to the forefront is a principal aim of Command Record's new LP, "The Year's Most Popular Themes."

Label topper Enoch Light, who heads the 55-piece orchestra on the set, believes that the selections (e.g. "Lawrence Of Arabia," "Days Of Wine & Roses," "I Could Go On Singing") represent the finest in pop American output, yet their "impact has been buried because of its use as mere background."

"One of the reasons that movies have musical accompaniment," Light explains," is the ability of music to amplify the emotional situation being shown on the screen. . . . and it is because this music is aimed so deliberately at our emotions that it has proved to have such popular appeal." "Yet the astonishing fact is that most of us have never heard this tremendously exciting music played under circumstances in which the full force of its emotional appeal is displayed."

Light says the LP strives to make things right by combining arrangements specially written to bring into focus "the heart & spirit and true power" in the themes." The exec credits Lew Davies' arrangements with being his "most inventive & beautiful."

Mercury's Peru Rep Drops-In At HQ

CHICAGO—Dante Capella (right), head of the international department of El Virrey Industries Musicales in Lima, Peru, a Mercury Records Licensee, recently visited Mercury's Chicago office. He's shown with Mercury A&R man-maestro David Carroll, who's explaining the label's PPS sound to him.

Capella met with various department heads, including Irwin Steinberg, executive vice-president; Kenny Myers, vice president in charge of sales; Lou Reizner, import coordinator; Eva Dolin, publicity director; and David Carroll, recording director.

Capella advised the Mercury staffers that Peru has only recently become stereo conscious, but that now the demand for stereo albums is running high. Mercury's Perfect Prescence Sound series was reported a top seller in Peru, where, Capella pointed out, instrumental music is very popular.

Among the top-selling artists in Peru, he said, are Xavier Cugat, David Carroll and Clebanoff, and the Platters.

Stacy Deck Makes Kids See Red & Buy It

CHICAGO—Stacy Records is in the black with its red, transparent vinyl pressings of "Surfin' Hootenanny," the Al Casey chart rider.

According to Stacy topper Jim Gaylord, the red-pressing is not a promotional gimmick, and was issued to radio stations. "I believe in packaging," Gaylord said. "Sure, record's got to have it in the grooves, but if the grooves look good as well as sound great, the disk has a lot more going for it." The deck is encased in a transparent plastic sleeve, adding to the visibility of the disk and buyer impulse appeal.

Although Stacy anticipated some resistance in the trade, only one rack-jobber in the entire U.S. refused to order the record, claiming it was difficult to count quickly. Special copies in regular black were provided to jukebox operators who had no need for the red vinyl. Gaylord, who's also a manufacturer of cosmetics and other goods, stated that one-stops and retailers reported high teen sales partly due to the red-vinyl. Deck, Gaylord reported, has passed the 200,000 mark in sales. It moves up to number 56 on this week's Top 100.

National Rac Bows In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI—A new rack-jobber operation, National Rac, Inc., has opened shop at 7624 Reinhold Drive in Cincinnati. It will service retailers in Ohio, Kentucky & West Virginia, an area which, the firm noted, accounted for $17 million in disk sales in 1962.

According to Earle F. Bracken, president, NR will give each retail client electronic inventory controls, eliminating "the present costly stock counts and haphazard reorder procedures."

Other officers of NR are Jerry Weiner, veep and general manager; and Carroll Wilkes, veep and secretary-treasurer.

WP Names Alpha In N.Y.: Bock Notes Top Summer Season, Addition of 3 Attractions

HOLLYWOOD—The World-Pacific/Pacific Jazz disk setup is now represented in the New York area by Harry Apostoleris' Alpha Distributing Corp., according to Richard Bock, WP topper. Three new LP's, Bock said, are leading the way in giving WP its top summer sales period to date. LP's are: Les McCann's "Gospel Truth," The Jazz Crusaders' "Tough Talk" and "12 String Guitar." Diskery has beefed-up its singles talent roster, the exec also reported, with the inkings of The Angelaires, a gospel group, singer Barbara Wilson and Kansas City jazz organist Charles Kynard.

Del-Fi Sets "Surf" Deals

HOLLYWOOD—Bob Keene, president of Del-Fi Records, has announced the label is readying an all-out campaign to promote its catalog of 12 surfing LP's.

One attention-getting stunt is the giving of "surfin' hearses" and surf boards in 16 cities in addition to providing entire show packages for surfing fans in tie-ins with radio stations.

Surfing shows have been set for Oakland, San Jose and Santa Rosa in tie-ups with KEWB and KYA of San Francisco. The diskery package includes a 45-minute surfing film, with live performances by Jan & Dean, The Lively Ones and Larry Bright.

Criterion Names Goldfeder Manager Of N.Y. Office

HOLLYWOOD—Joseph Goldfeder has been named general manager of the New York office of Criterion Music, it has been announced by Michael H. Goldsen, prexy of the Hollywood-based pubbery.

Goldfeder was previously associated with the firm in various capacities over the past ten years.

Pickwick's Sales Confab Spotlighted Seminars

NEW YORK—Pickwick International gave a new twist to the traditional national sales meet format with a switch to seminars followed by question and answer periods with general discussion.

Featured in the various seminars, held in New York July 24-26 were President Cy Leslie, who introduced the new product and general outline of the Fall program; executive vice president and general manager Ira Moss, who discussed marketing techniques and the need to fit sales programs to individual requirements; sales promotion director Joe Abend, who outlined Pickwick's advertising, publicity and promotional plans and Ralph Berson, executive vice president in charge of sales, who reviewed the sales patterns of the past year and indicated what could be anticipated during the coming Fall and Winter selling season.

In attendance were Al Bean, southern regional manager; Lou Werth, western regional manager; Stuart Falk, special projects; Dave Goldstein, product coordinator; Bill Trister, east coast sales; Abbott Lutz, product director and the full Pickwick International sales force.

Historic Moment

HOLLYWOOD—Bing Crosby recently teamed-up with Dean Martin and Frank Sinatra on his first recording session under his new contract with Sinatra's Reprise Records. The trio cut "The Oldest Established Permanent Floating Crap Game" and "Fugue For Tinhorns" from "Guys and Dolls," one of the four Broadway albums the label is currently packaging using its roster of stars as a repertory company under the direction of Morris Stoloff. Ken Lane (at the piano) rehearsed the three.

Colpix' Lewis To London To Record "The Victors"

NEW YORK—Jack Lewis, A&R LP director for Colpix Records, left for London last week for conferences with Carl Foreman, writer-producer-director of "The Victors," and Sol Kaplan, composer of the musical score for the Columbia Pictures flick. Lewis will record the soundtrack of the film for Colpix release.

Amy-Mala Names Uttal Gen. Mgr.

NEW YORK—Larry Uttal has been named general manager of Amy-Mala Records, according to Al Massler, head of Sherman Sales Co., the label set-up's parent company. Uttal, a music business vet, had his own music operations, Monument Music and Madison Records, and most recently was associated with the professional dept. of E.B. Marks Music. At Amy-Mala, he will be in charge of sales, promotion, production and the securing of already recorded masters.

New Chi Label: Joday

CHICAGO—A new record label, Joday Records, headed by David Sher, president, has debuted in Chicago. Initial product released under the Joday banner is an album by 88'er Joe Burton tagged "Subtle Sound" and a single, also by Burton, of "St. Louis Blues."

Commenting on the firm's future plans, Sher said that he has quite a bit of new material in the works and is considering entering the international market very shortly.

Veteran promotion man Paul Gallis was appointed by Sher to handle record promotion for the label in this area.

LOS ANGELES—51 new mono and stereo albums for the fall selling season were introduced at the just-concluded NARM (rack-jobbers) convention in Chicago by Crown Records, the low-priced LP label. Collection includes a varied bill-of-fare, including hootenanny, country, jazz, blues, movie-theme dates. In addition, the diskery unveiled eight new Christmas LP's.

CONNY

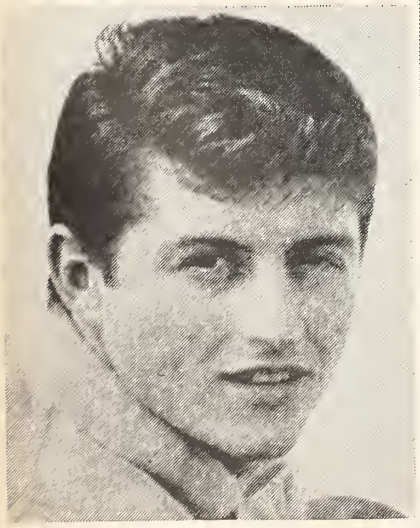
TEENAGERS' IDOL—E.M.I. INTERNATIONAL STAR

"This Conny is a phenomenon," say the experts of the "pop" market. Their assessment is well understandable, for not only do this young Berlin girl's records sell like hot cakes but for the second time she has succeeded in changing over to a completely new line, proving with her prize-winning best seller "Kleine Lucienne" that she can also interpret tender melodious numbers which are more "chansons" than "pop" music.
Conny's record of "Zwie Kleine Italiener" was one of the finalists at the German Pop Festival in 1962 and captured the top of the poll in many foreign hit parades. She was also awarded Radio Luxembourg's "Silver Lion" and now, this year, Electrola's "Golden Dog" for this million seller.

FRANCK POURCEL

A MILLION DISC CONDUCTOR—E.M.I. INTERNATIONAL STAR

The most internationally famous French string-orchestra conductor. His recordings of "Amour, Danse et Violons." "Franck joue por les amoreux," "Pages Celebres" have made Franck Pourcel one of today's foremost million LP sellers. Franck, as a composer, is equally famous, his recent "Chariot" having been on the American charts for several months.



TONY RENIS

A GREAT DISCOVERY—E.M.I. INTERNATIONAL STAR

22 year-old Italian, Tony Renis was snapped up by "La Voce del Padrone" following his promising performance in 1959's "Six Days Of Song." Soon afterwards his "Ti Prego Amore" dominated the Italian juke boxes and quickly established his popularity with all youngsters in Italy. The following year he scored another resounding victory with "Tenerezza," a song written by himself.
Then, last year, Tony put his stamp on the San Remo Festival with "Quando, Quando, Quando." Apart from this world-wide hit, Tony Renis has two other compositions among the current Italian best sellers—"Tango, per favor" and "Blu." These, in addition to his very attractive "Piccilo Indiano" and "Amor, Amor, Amor," the latter regarded as one of the finest sambas of the past 15 years.

E.M.I. REPORTS ANOTHER YEAR OF WORLD-WIDE SUCCESS

Once again in the pages of "The Cash Box," Electric and Musical Industries Limited are privileged to report on their past year's activities. In all fields E.M.I. has made steady progress. Total turnover for the Group is expected, at the end of the financial year, to top a quarter-billion dollars. Sales derive from a variety of operations in electronics and manufacturing activities in the domestic appliances field as well as from records, but the latter, of course, represent a very large proportion of total sales.

RECORD SALES

World sales of E.M.I. records are continuing upwards and figures for the year July 1962-June 1963 will show a marked advance over the previous year. Taking into consideration the troubled conditions prevailing in many overseas countries, E.M.I. regards its continuing all-over sales expansion as highly satisfactory.

In Britain, E.M.I.'s position continues to strengthen in a total U.K. market which was over 10% up on the previous year.

"RECORDING ANGEL" RETURNS TO BRITAIN

Ten years ago the E.M.I. "Angel" trademark reappeared in America after a 40 years' absence from the record scene. In May this year it returned to Britain, joining the famous "Dog" in the creation of the "His Master's Voice Angel Series."

The new series is devoted to new complete performances of major operatic works in which artists previously exclusive to either the H.M.V. or Columbia labels will be able to appear together.

The first four releases in the new series have been enthusiastically received by reviewers in the record journals.

More about E.M.I.'s record business in the U.K. can be found in a separate article in this issue of "The Cash Box."

MOVING FORWARD IN WORLD MARKETS

Sales of E.M.I. Group records continue to increase in many overseas countries. In Australia, New Zealand, Spain, France, India, Greece and Chile, trade winds are blowing strongly in E.M.I.'s favour and sales have shown a marked improvement over the previous year. Even in countries where the advance of television is giving the record business a knock, E.M.I. has increased its share of the market. In Sweden, for instance, the Group is holding a bigger share of the record trade than at any time in the past.

E.M.I. is also pushing ahead in world markets through its manufacturing subsidiaries. The new member of the Group in Nigeria, which has its own record plant and recording facilities, is making good progress and proving a fine base for expanding sales in the newly-created African States generally.

In the Far East, the Hong Kong company continues to thrive. This modern Hong Kong centre co-ordinates supplies from sources including India, Australia and the U.K., as well as from America, to distributors in Malaya, Singapore, Borneo, the Philippines and other East Asian countries.

EXPANSION IN EUROPE

The general upswing in prosperity and the beneficial effects of the Common Market on the countries comprising that group, have led to highly satisfactory record sales over the past twelve months, and the interchange of finished product in the record field is increasing rapidly throughout the area. E.M.I. is continuing to study and co-ordinate policy in relation to Common Market problems. Francois Minchin, well known to many American record men from his long association with Pathe Marconi in France, is keeping sales going with a swing for "Voce del Padrone" in Milan. "Electrola" in Cologne continues to forge ahead in the German market under the able leadership of Dr. Ladislaus Veder, whilst Pathe Marconi successfully maintains its pre-eminent position in France under its vigorous president, Ted Cross.

Under its newly-appointed managing director, George Alexander, E.M.I.'s "Odeon" company in Spain is undergoing rapid expansion in records and other E.M.I. products.

There is no doubt that owing to interchange of product and movement of populations, European artists are increasing their popularity throughout the Continent as a whole. This is only to be expected, because European musicians and singers are getting around more, widening their scope and enjoying increasing publicity through TV, radio and stage appearances.

In certain other overseas markets, notably Australian, New Zealand and Latin America, local artists are also taking an increasing share of the record business. This can be attributed to the spread of T.V. which, in these areas, tends to favour "live" local performances.

SIR JOSEPH LOCKWOOD
CHAIRMAN: E.M.I. LTD.

THE TREND IN THE U.S.A.

The overseas success of many American "hits" is ample proof that the best American material can still sell in a big way but backing up by personal appearances of the artists concerned is still a very important factor in several countries as many of the big selling records are "local language" versions of the original American "hits."

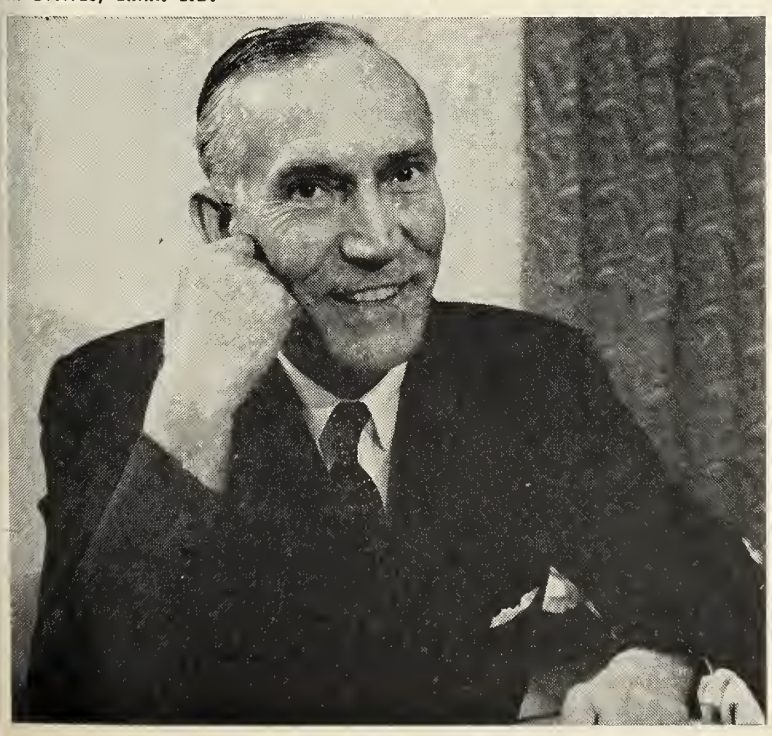
As regards American "pop" material generally, the public is undoubtedly becoming more selective. The American "pop" recording with big appeal can still sell a million copies in Europe—but some will not necessarily make a fortune for anyone in Europe, even though they may rate high according to the American charts.

WORLD MARKETS FOR U.S.A. MATERIAL

E.M.I. really is the greatest recording organization in the world. With its world-wide string of associated companies, licensees, and distributors, it is favourably placed for keeping a finger on the pulse of world demand for American recorded material. The Capitol label has contributed greatly to the success of E.M.I.'s marketing of American recordings during the past year. Additionally, E.M.I.'s representation of such other leading American labels as Liberty, M.G.M., Mercury, United Artists, Verve, Warner Bros., Epic, ABC-Paramount, and Roulette, has contributed to the establishment and continued popularity of many of America's top recording artists in many important territories outside the U.S.A.

To ensure the greatest possible exploitation and sales of the best American material from such "livewire" independents as Laurie, Swan, Rendezvous, Diamond, Scepter, VeeJay, etc., the various E.M.I. companies are pressing under the new E.M.I. label "Stateside." This was launched in England a year ago and is now becoming well established in the other major markets.

R. DAWES, E.M.I. LTD.



MEN WHO MAINTAIN E.M.I. LEADERSHIP

No major changes in top-level personnel have taken place over the past year. Sir Joseph Lockwood, Chairman of the Parent Company, E.M.I. Limited, continues his dynamic direction of the Group as a whole, seconded by Richard Dawes as head of the Records and International Division. Contact with the American record industry is maintained on the English side by Leonard G. Wood, managing director of E.M.I. Records Limited, and on the International side by newly-appointed Commercial Manager Ken East from E.M.I. (Australia) and Frank Chalmers of the International Repertoire Department.

During the year ended June 30th 1963 EMI Records Ltd., continued to make progress and once again report that they have surpassed all previous efforts and have had the biggest year ever in their history.

During the year EMIR averaged almost 50% of the LP, EP and Top Singles Charts.

In spite of intense competition the Company retained its hold on the Pop record charts and further maintained its reputation in the New Musical Express Poll for 1962 by winning 27 out of a possible 48 top three positions.

Frank Ifield's "I Remember You" was voted the best British disc of the year in the Poll.

A new Award was introduced by Melody Maker in 1962 entitled "Press Awards for the Records of the Year." EMI won first place with "I Remember You" by Frank Ifield and Acker Bilk's "Stranger on the Shore" was voted to second place. Nat King Cole's "Let there be love" and the Ray Charles recording of "I can't stop loving you" also captured press votes.

One of the EMIR high spots this year was the sensational number of certificates awarded to the Company by the Gramophone Record Retailer's Association and "Record Retailer." In the Awards for the best records of 1961 EMIR won 9 out of a possible 15 places. In the 1962 Awards announced in March 1963, records issued by EMIR won 12 out of the 19 places. This was four times the number of awards made to any other company.

The Acker Bilk record of "Stranger on the Shore" made history in December when it was announced by the trade paper—"Record Retailer"—that this record had appeared in the Top Fifty charts for 52 consecutive weeks —the first time that a record had ever achieved this honour.

EMI also participated in the Annual Ivor Novello Awards being awarded the runner's up certificate for sales of the British composition "Bachelor Boy" performed by Cliff Richard.

From July 1962 up to the time of writing (early June 1963) EMIR has won 17 Silver Discs for sales in excess of a quarter of a million Singles. This is 50% of the Silver Discs awarded during the year and is 5 more than has been awarded to any other Company in the United Kingdom.

The sensational HMV records by the George Mitchell Minstrels of the "Black and White Minstrel Show," which last year exceeded total LP sales of 250,000, have now sold over half a million LPs collectively and a second Silver Disc was presented by the company to George Mitchell to mark the achievement.

A Silver LP was also presented during the year to the famous Scottish dance band leader Jimmy Shand, whose LPs have collectively sold more than 250,000 in Great Britain.

To mark the 35th anniversary of the recording association between Ernest Lough, Dr. Thalben Ball and His Master's Voice, Gold Discs were presented to the two artistes in January 1963. Their most famous record was "Hear My Prayer" recorded when Ernest Lough was a boy soprano. The record remains on the catalogue and still sells consistently in spite of its great age.

A Gold Disc for sales in excess of one million records was awarded by EMI Records Limited to Australian singer Frank Ifield for his outstanding single "I Remember You."

Veteran band leader Joe Loss, who is one of EMI's longest serving artists, recorded "Begin The Beguine" in 1939. In Australia alone over 100,000 copies have been sold over the years and as a tribute the Company presented Joe Loss with a Gold Disc to celebrate the achievement. Joe Loss is still making hit records and frequently appears in the Pop charts.

It has long been EMI Records Limited contention that records must be heard by the largest possible audience to compete successfully with vigorous competition. The Company has, therefore, increased its Radio Luxembourg sponsored air-time to 11 hours each week, covering 24 programmes. Whilst efforts have been made by competitors to increase their own sponsored airtime, EMIR still have considerably more programmes than other companies and thus reach the widest possible teenage audience.

The successful live recording of "Friday Spectacular" continues to attract big listening figures and this programme has been supplemented by a further live show recorded at EMIR headquarters in London's Manchester Square. This half-hour programme entitled "Dancing Party" meets the need for a programme of Pop music suitable for teenage dancers and is heard by millions of listeners each week.

This aspect of the General Promotion Department is merely one facet of an organisation strong in promotional ideas which has been still further strengthened by an influx of new personnel and a re-organisation of the American repertoire exploitation team, which during the months ahead will ensure a still larger share of sales for EMI's many American labels.

In previous editorials the promotional stunts and outstanding receptions for visiting artists have been covered extensively, and the year just ended has been no exception to the continuation of these sales getting presentations which have attracted widespread press coverage and have become the highlights of so many artistes visits to the United Kingdom. Heavy promotional activity has been put behind a number of important artistes, including Capitol's Bobby Darin whose "18 Yellow Roses" was backed by heavy press and Radio Luxembourg promotion. Darin is one of a number of Capitol artists who make a strong impact in the United Kingdom. The Capitol soundtracks of "The King and I," "Carousel," and "Oklahoma," together with records by such artists as Nat Cole, Judy Garland and George Shearing continue to create extremely heavy sales on the Capitol label in the United Kingdom.

During the year ended June 30th 1963 contracts were signed for EMI Records Limited to distribute the catalouges of Walt Disney's "Disneyland" and "Buena Vista" labels. The Charlie Parker and "Charter" labels will also be distributed by EMIR in future in the United Kingdom and certain other territories. Contracts were renewed with Roulette, Swan and ABC Paramount.

EMI Records Limited own label—Stateside—which was introduced 12 months ago to handle non-classical repertoire primarily from the United States, was firmly established during the year and has now created an image as one of the strongest American labels in the U.K.

EMIR's entry into the 3¾ i.p.s. tape market in March 1963 has been further strengthened by releases of top Pop material from both the United Kingdom and America. EMIR is the only major company producing its leading artists both in disc and on tape. The tape catalogue has been further strengthened by the addition of a series of light orchestral tapes primarily intended for background listening for which there is a heavy demand in Great Britain.

Realising the growing importance of point-of-sale aids for dealers' premises, the supply of these attractive units has continued during the year, backed up by posters and other promotional aids aimed at the consumer on the dealer's own premises.

Whilst EMIR is heavily committed in the Pop field, its interest in the non-popular market has not been overlooked and during the year considerable promotional efforts have been made in the marketing of classical repertoire. Experiments have been carried out in direct consumer marketing involving national press advertising and direct-to-public distribution of both leaflets and records. Further stages in the campaign to widen the market for classical records will be undertaken through dealers in the coming year.

One of the earliest trademarks in the history of recording has just been revived in the U.K. by EMI Records Limited. Whilst the Angel trademark has a formidable reputation for classical repertoire in the United States it has not been used in the United Kingdom for many years. The new HMV series of Angel recordings, which was launched in May, consists of major classical works presented in luxury packaging and has already proved its worth to the discriminating public.

EMIR's own training school for dealers enters its 9th year this year. For six months of the year it runs four-day courses designed to teach retail staff the elements of record salesmanship and display. This pioneering effort has been well rewarded by constant support from the trade and is the only course of its kind in the U.K. It is yet another example of the planning and energetic drive of the executive team forming EMI Records Limited, a team which keeps EMI records in the forefront of the British record industry.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR

Before reviewing the record scene over the past twelve months it might be interesting to study the official Board of Trade figures to get an overall picture of production and sales in the U.K. in 1962.

Comparing last year's figures with those of 1961 it will be seen that the production of 78 r.p.m. disks continued to decline and records of this speed are now virtually extinct. Output of 45 r.p.m. disks showed little change but production of 33⅓rd r.p.m. disks increased by five per cent. It will also be seen that quarter by quarter sales, too, showed a healthy increase over the previous year and in the final analysis manufacturers' sales were nine per cent higher than in 1961 with increases both in the home and export markets of ten per cent and three per cent respectively. This was achieved despite the disastrous weather at the beginning of December which seriously affected the Christmas market. The current year, too, got off to a bad start sales wise, again due to the climatic conditions, which resulted in a seven per cent drop in January sales compared to the same period in 1962. However, by the end of the first quarter, with production at a steady level, sales were already up on last year and as we go to press the outlook for 1963 is both encouraging and invigorating.

This year has seen a necessary and welcome reduction in the purchase tax on TV and radio sets, record players and gramophone records which now stands at 25 per cent. It has also seen a necessary, if not so welcome, increase in the price of disks. In July this year manufacturers, faced with increasing costs of production, raised the price of singles from 6s.3d. (87¢) to 6s.8d. (94¢) and, in general, the standard priced LP's went up by 1s.6d. (21¢). While the consumer met the raise with indignation dealers themselves and their official organisation. The Gramophone Record Retailers Association, accepted it as inevitably justifiable and unlikely to have an adverse affect upon sales. Once again single sales remain steady, although slightly down on last year, and E.P.s continue their rapid decline in popularity particularly in the face of fierce competition from the low-priced L.P. Sales of top price, top quality classical L.Ps go up and up. Decca are currently enjoying a well deserved success with their double album of Benjamin Britten's "War Requiem." It is interesting to compare the pre-war price of a classical work comprising perhaps six 12" 78 r.p.m. disks costing 36s.0d. ($5.04) excluding tax, with a similar work today which may be available on one L.P. costing 37s.6d. ($5.25) including tax or a little over £1.0.0. ($3) if on a low-priced label. The most striking increase has been in the sales of pop L.Ps which, thanks to artistes such as Cliff Richard, The Shadows, The Beatles etc. are now selling in larger quantities than ever before. Progress in the stereo field, except for operatic works, is virtually at a standstill.

The ever-growing popularity and success of British artistes and material overseas is evidenced by their increasing representation both in the American and continental charts. During the year under review the number of British copyrights to enter the American Top 100 has increased over the preceding year. Although these are listed elsewhere in this issue special mention must be made to The Tornados whose Decca recording of "Telstar," released in the States on London, reached the No. 1 spot in that country thus winning the first Gold Trophy to be presented by Cash Box, and two Gold Disks for world sales of over two million copies. At the time of writing Australian born Rolf Harris already established in the States with "Sun Arise" is heading for the top with "Tie Me Kangaroo Down Sport" released here by E.M.I. on the Columbia label and in the United States on Epic. Cliff Richard retains his international crown enjoying ever increasing sales and chart entries in this country and throughout the world. Another British artiste Frank Ifield has attracted world wide attention first with his million selling "I Remember You" which not only commercialised country and western in Britain but took him to the No. 1 slot for six successive weeks and into the American Top 100. Two more British chart toppers followed "Lovesick Blues" and "The Wayward Wind." Many other British artistes have hit the overseas charts with English recordings in the past year including Helen Shapiro (Columbia); Vera Lynn (HMV); The Springfields (Philips); Frankie Vaughan (Philips); Ronnie Carroll (Philips); Kenny Ball (Pye) and groups The Shadows (Columbia) and The Tornadoes (Decca) whose instrumental talents know no international barriers. However, with the fast increasing number of local language records finding their way into the continental charts it is becoming more and more necessary for British and American artistes to record in as many languages as possible. This is particularly so in countries such as France, Italy and, perhaps most important of all, Germany. Alma Cogan (Columbia) set the pace by recording "Tell Him" in half a dozen languages. Recently Cliff Richard, Frank Ifield and The Shadows went to Barcelona to record in Spanish; Helen Shapiro and Maureen Evans to Germany and Harry Secombe and Doug Sheldon to France. In France Petula Clark has scaled the heights of international fame with four major hits—"Chariot;" "Coeur Blesse;" "Je Me Sens Bien" and "Monsieur Monsieur."

On the home front it has been a year of continued and sustained success for established artistes of all labels; while others such as Mark Wynter, Ronnie Carroll, Joe Brown, Kenny Lynch, Billy Fury etc, have experienced unprecedented chart success, growing in stature and enhancing their reputations. The year has also brought forth a prodigous crop of new talent notably Susan Maughan with "Bobby's Girl" (Philips); Mike Berry "Don't You Think It's Time" (HMV); Billie Davis "Tell Him" (Decca) and ex-members of The Shadows Jet Harris and Tony Meehan took on a new lease of life with "Diamonds" and "Scarlett O'Hara"—both on Decca. However, as the year 1961/62 will be remembered for the successful upsurge of traditional jazz so the year 1962/63 will go down in record history as the year of new groups and new sounds. This started to emerge towards the end of 1962 sparked off by the meteoric ascent of The Tornadoes and "Telstar." The trend really got under way in February this year when The Beatles marched south from Liverpool to storm the charts with two successive hits "How Do You Do It" and "I Like Me To You" on Parlophone. Within a month another Northern group Gerry And The Pacemakers took EMI to the No. 1 slot again this time on Columbia with two more lightning hits "How Do oYu Do It" and "I Like It." Next came Billy J. Kramer with The Dakotas straight to No. 1 with "Do You Want To Know A Secret" on Parlophone, with Freddie And The Dreamers (Columbia) and The Searchers (Pye) in hot pursuit. By the end of June six British groups were in the Top Ten and enjoying unparalleled success. At the same time British copyrights accounted for six out of the Top Ten numbers in the Best Selling Sheet Music lists. Later in July the percentage was even higher with 15 British numbers in the Top Thirty. Although British artistes and material continue to dominate the charts Americans are still much in evidence and many of them have had an impressive year.

While the Presley beat remains a chart certainty it has also been good to renew Top Ten acquaintance with such old friends as Nat "King" Cole "Roses Are Red" and "Let There Be Love" (Capitol); Andy Williams "Can't Get Used To Losing You" (CBS) and Ray Charles "I Can't Stop Loving You" and "Take These Chains From My Heart" (HMV)—all three artistes visited Britain during the year. Country and western singer Ned Miller had his first British chart entry with "From A Jack To A King" on London while Roy Orbison achieved the unique distinction of having two separate country and western style singles "In Dreams" and "Falling" both on London simultaneously in the Top Twenty. Others who made a successful crossing from the American Top 100 to the British Top Twenty include Del Shannon with "Swiss Maid" (London); Bobby Vee "The Night Has A Thousand Eyes" (Liberty); Chris Montez "Let's Dance" (London); Brenda Lee "All Alone Am I" (Brunswick) Little Eva "Locomotion" (London) etc. etc. Although top continental stars still find it difficult to make the grade over here Swedish group The Spotnicks entered the charts with "Hava Nagila" for Oriole.

The volume of sales achieved by best selling singles would seem to be diminishing. From July 1961 to July 1962 seven Gold Disks were awarded for sales exceeding one million copies. In the year under review only two singles "I Remember You" by Frank Ifield (Columbia) and "Telstar" by The Tornadoes (Decca) qualified. The number of Silver Disks presented for sales reaching the quarter million mark has also fallen. In 1960, 34 were issued. In 1961, 36 and last year (1962) the figure fell to 33. 19 of these went to British artistes and 14 to American. Although the drop in top sales may be due in part to a lower percentage of disks in the Gold and Silver class, over production and over exploitation of certain top artistes allied to the ephemeral nature of the present day musical scene are other contributary factors. As craze follows craze, each breaking out in a rash of competitive releases the market is flooded with good, not so good, and mediocre versions, confusing the consumer and devastating the dealer, thus scrambling sales and reducing the jackpot. Changes and new ideas are good, vital and necessary but discrimination in the quantity and quality of output is essential if artistes, manufacturers and the industry as a whole, are to enjoy maximum sales. This time last year the twist was the rage of Europe since then we have had the Madison, (which brought veteran bandleader Joe Loss back into the charts with "Must Be Madison" on HMV), Bossa Nova, Golli Golli, The Sidewalk and Tamoure and, today, we are on the brink of a surfeit of Surfin'. The biggest comedy record of the year came from America with Vaughn Meader's first L.P. "The First Family" on London. This country produced nothing in the comedy line to equal the previous year's successes by Bernard Cribbins "Hole In The Ground" (Parlophone) and Mike Sarne "Come Outside" (Parlophone).

The year has seen the triumphant Broadway opening, to rave reviews and long runs, of several British shows. Unlimited airtime took "What Kind Of Fool Am I" into the Top 100 long before Anthony Newley and "Stop The World" arrived. Critics hailed Lionel Bart's "Oliver" as 'the best musical since My Fair Lady' while the off beat revue "Beyond The Fringe" was an off-Broadway success. American shows arriving in London were less successful. "Fiorello," "Carnival" and "On The Town," despite long American runs, folded here after only a few weeks, while "Yankee Doodle Comes To Town" failed to reach the West End at all. None of the music made much impression on stage or turntable. In the realm of new British musicals the year has given London three major hits. Lionel Bart's "Blitz" with a score published by Bart's own publishing company, Apollo; a return to favour of Tommy Steele as Kipps in "Half A Sixpence" by David Heneker published by Brittania (Chappells) and the latest classic turned musical "Pickwick" with music and lyrics by Cyril Ornadel and Leslie Bricusse published by Chappells and starring Harry Secombe. Meantime with "The Black And White Minstrel Show" still packing the Victoria Palace the L.Ps by The George Mitchell Minstrels issued by H.M.V. have collectively notched up over half a million sales. However, one American show "How To Succeed In Business Without Really Trying" was not only raptuously received when it opened at the Shaftesbury Theatre in March this year but also furnished Dorchester Productions Ltd. (E.M.I's newly formed theatrical production company) with its first smash hit.

For E.M.I. Records Ltd. it has been another year of leadership and chart supremacy claiming almost 50 per cent of the singles, E.P. and L.P. chart entries over the past twelve months. Airtime on Radio Luxembourg has been stepped up to eleven hours a week covering 24 programmes. Besides renewing contracts with Roulette, ABC Paramount and Swan Records, E.M.I. have acquired the catalogue of Walt Disney's Disneyland and Buena Vista labels and those of Charlie Parker and Charter. Verve Records still handled by E.M.I. are now issued on their own trade mark instead of M.G.M. as before. The recording 'angel,' one of the earliest trade marks in the history of the industry made a welcome re-appearance here in May this year when together with the famous H.M.V. 'dog' it became the symbol of E.M.I's new His Master's Voice 'Angel' series specially designed for the connoisseur of classical music. Another luxury package release by E.M.I. during the year was "The Living Bible" series comprising 12 L.P's of readings from the Old Testament by Sir Laurence Olivier.

Towards the end of 1962 Leomark, with the release of another nine L.P's in their "New English Bible" series, brought the total to 18. By the time this review goes to press it is expected that the complete New Testament, spoken in the full text, will be available on 30 Leomark 12" L.P's. The series has attracted world wide interest and critical acclaim.

Argo, the well-known subsidiary of Decca Records, devoted to Spoken Word Recordings, this year completes the formidable task of recording the first folio of Shakespeare's 36 plays and his poetry. The entire canon comprising 134 L.P's and representing seven years' preparation and recording, will be available by February 1964—the 400th anniversary of the poet's birth.

Another exciting contribution to Spoken Word recordings came from Pye Records with "Face to Face" capturing for posterity the voices of famous present day personalities in a series of controversial interviews with John Freeman. During the year Pye also launched the 'Heather' series of Irish and Scottish material and a new 'Rhythm and Blues' series. During the year Pye has further expanded its factory potential, output and custom pressing, moved into new premises and effectively opened new studios for domestic and outside recordings. In an effort to bridge the transatlantic gap between the British and American hits, which are often dis-similar, Pye brought over Bobby Rydell, recorded him in their own studios for this market and achieved notable success. During the year Frank Sinatra and Sammy Davis, Jr. also recorded in Pye's London studios. One of the major surprises of the year was Pye's acquisition of the Cameo-Parkway label previously with E.M.I. In the overseas market Pye completed pactings with Nippon Columbia in Japan and more recently with Negram Records in Holland. The Colpix product previously issued on Pye's International label now comes out on its own trade mark.

The Decca Record Company continues to enjoy chart success particularly with American artistes. Elvis Presley topped the singles charts with "She's Not You" and E. P. charts with "Follow That Dream" and "Kid Galahad." The company also topped the singles charts with "Speedy Gonzales" by Pat Boone and "Let's Dance" by Chris Montez—both on London. Same label had chart success with Little Eva "Locomotion" and Del Shannon "Swiss Maid." Besides Presley three other RCA artistes made the grade Neil Sedaka, Duane Eddy and country and western singer Jim Reeves who is currently in the charts with "Welcome To My World." On the distaff side Brenda Lee visited this country and also sustained her chart successes with "All Alone Am I" and "Losing You" on Brunswick.

However, Decca's three most sensational hits of the year came from British artistes with "Telstar" by The Tornados, "Diamonds" and "Scarlett O'Hara" by Jet Harris and Tony Meehan and "Last Night Was Made For Love" and "Once Upon A Dream" by Billy Fury. During the year Decca launched a new low-priced label RCA Victrola.

Over to Philips where once again British artistes have played an important part in the company's highly successful year. Ronnie Carroll, besides representing Great Britain in the Eurovision Song Contest with "Say Wonderful Things," also had a solid hit with "Roses Are Red." Over the past twelve months Carroll has sold more records than in the previous five years. Frankie Vaughan, too, had his best year to date selling over one million disks—his biggest hit "Tower Of Strength" claiming 600,000 of them. In the L. P. field Harry Secombe is still the label's strongest seller. Susan Maughan came to the front with "Bobby's Girl" and The Springfields followed their transatlantic chart successes "Silver Threads And Golden Needles" and "Island Of Dreams" with a recording session in Nashville, Tennessee. American duo Paul and Paula hit the charts with "Hey Paula" and "Young Lovers." In December last Philips took over the distribution here of Audio-Fidelity Records. CBS celebrated its first anniversary with a visit from Andy Williams then in the charts with "Can't Get Used To Losing You" and also opened an international office in Paris. Fontana set up a new company in New York to handle American exploitation of the label and at home added the World Pacific catalogue to their already formidable jazz repertoire. The Rooftop Singers made it with "Walk Right In" on Fontana and the label's latest signings are Eden Kane and jazzman Johnny Dankworth.

The growing trend for record manufacturers to have their own wholesale outlets continues to threaten the livelihood of independent factors. Tragically the past twelve months has seen the demise of two important and long established firms. Thompson, Diamond & Butcher closed their doors in October after 42 years of service to the industry. Next to go in February this year after 70 years in business was the Northern wholesale firm Appletons of Leeds who had previously been taken over by Philips. Central Record Distributors also ceased to operate during the last year. Closures such as these increase still further the distribution problems of the smaller record companies. However, many of our leading independents have forged ahead with appreciable success.

Oriole Records have further consolidated their new look policy inaugurated in 1961. The past year has given the label its first major chart successes. Maureen Evans "Like I Do" broke in January this year and a few weeks later Swedish group The Spotnicks entered the Top Twenty with "Hava Nagila." Last Autumn Oriole acquired the U. K. rights to the Tamla, Motown, Gordy catalogues and have added the American Savoy label incorporating the World Wide and Regent jazz catalogues. More recently they acquired classical and neo-classical E. P. and L. P. recordings from Ariola in Germany to be issued on Oriole-Eurodisc. Expansion in the L. P. field came in March with the launching of a new low-priced Realm series specially designed for the family market.

In December Delyse Records celebrated their eighth anniversary by issuing, appropriately enough, eight L.Ps—their biggest release to date. The year's major successes include an L.P. by the celebrated Welsh opera singer "Geraint Evans Sings In Llanduff Cathedral"; a recital of 16th, 17th and 18th century "Songs Of Love" by David Hughes and more recently "A Nation Sings" 5000 voices recorded in the Royal Albert Hall and reported to be selling at the rate of over 1000 copies a day.

One of the biggest expansion programmes of the year has come from Ember Records International. Label chief Jeff Kruger has set up distribution deals throughout the world. Two major triumphs in Ember's progress have been the appointment of Selecta Gramophones as their distributors and of ace-composer-recording star John Barry as Head of the A & R Department. Thus strengthened the company plans a rapid expansion in the British, American and international markets.

The last year has seen the opening in London of Pickwick International (Great Britain) Ltd. which began operations just before Christmas. Headed by Monty Lewis, working closely with Cy Leslie in New York, the company is producing two main lines—a catalogue of popular 12" L.Ps and a varied line of 7" and 12" kiddie records marketed on the Happy Time label. Initial success here has led to extended production in five European territories. A 1963 Christmas programme has been arranged which will take the 12" L.P. line into 1000 specially selected Christmas trade outlets.

The Transatlantic Record Company is becoming just that. Their highly successful L.P. of poetry and folk music "Songs Of Love, Lust And Loose Living" by Tony Britten and Isla Cameron is released in the U.S. on London. During the year Transatlantic have moved to larger premises, taken over the Folkways catalogue and completed a deal with a major label, Decca, to release a single by Sheila Hancock coupling two tracks from her Transatlantic L.P. "Puttin' Out The Dustbin."

England — The Past Twelve Months

During the past twelve months the Esquire Record Company has stepped up its country and western output on the Starlite label. Particularly interesting has been the demand for singles and E.Ps of artistes such as Howard Vokes, Danny Harrison and Tex Bellin. The label's Director Carlo Kramer expects to see a considerable growth in gospel recordings in the coming year and in this category Starlite has a wealth of talent headed by the famous American group from Illinois The Faithful Wanderers. Although essentially a modern jazz label Esquire plans to inject, from time to time, some of the better blues performers available to them including albums by Sleepy John Estes, Big Joe Williams and Rufus Perryman.

Vogue Records, Decca owned since 1953, this year re-introduced their Vocalian label with a catalogue of jazz boasting such artistes as Dave Brubeck, Cal Tjader, Dizzy Gillespie, Gerry Mulligan and Charlie Mingus etc.

Siggy Jackson of Melodisc Records attributes the tremendous increase in r & b sales in recent months to the fact that it is 'an extension of the rock 'n' roll beat with crazier lyrics'. His label has had particular success with "Marylee" by Laurel Aitken. Departing from their usual r & b and folk music lines Melodisc this year had a popular success with "Fireball" from the popular TV puppet series. The major event of the Deutsche Grammophon year in England was the release and subsequent success of the nine Beethoven Symphonies recorded by The Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra under Von Karajan. In the pop field Polydor issued "My Bonnie" waxed in Hamburg by the now famous Beatles, way back in 1961.

Across the Irish sea Emerald Records have strengthened their position by acquiring distribution rights in their territory of the American Cimarron Sims catalogue which includes Leon McAuliff, Billy Parker, Dub Dickerson, Floyd Tillman etc. As with their recently launched Jubilee E. P. series releases are on Decca. Emerald also concluded a catalogue deal with another U. S. label Skylite.

Island Records, specialists in calypso, steel band and rhythm and blues material have had their best year so far. On the calypso Jump Up label came a single "Kennedy And Kruschev" by The Mighty Sparrow from his L.P. "The Slave." Besides venturing into the comedy field Island Records have caused quite a sensation with "Music To Strip By" on the new Surprise label.

With the opening of new studios Saga Records embarked on a programme of catalogue expansion which started by taking over the Silver Dollar 'Strict Tempo' label whose releases included versions of The Madison, Twist and Bossa Nova. Saga also took over Record Society, Micropressings, and SMM Distributors as well Associated Recordings.

Although Collector Records, specialists in folk, jazz, flamenco and Italian music, concentrate mainly on E.P. release some singles are issued. In the classical field Collector was the first company to record mandolin player Hugo D'Alton as a solo artiste.

Independent record producers, continuing to shed blood, sweat and tears in their fight for recognition have, in the last year, scored several resounding victories and one major defeat—the capitulation of Audio Enterprise, the firm who so successfully established the name of Eden Kane. However, back to the victorious. happy and glorious ones and the problems confronting them. A glance at the American singles chart in any given week reveals a multiude of independent labels credited with a considerable percentage of the Top 100 entries. In this country the position, superficially at any rate, is very different. For although the efforts of the independent producers may be responsible for anything up to 50 per cent of the Top Twenty releases they will be put out by, and credited to, a major label—the vast amount of capital required to launch a new label in this country being prohibitive.

During the year Bunny Lewis of Ritz Records succeeded in getting label recognition with his product released on the split logo Decca/Ritz in the United Kingdom, British Commonwealth and all European territories except Scandinavia, France and Spain which are still open to negotiation. Ritz recently signed their first American artiste Bobby Curtola.

Following Mr. Acker Bilk's American chart entry "Stranger On The Shore" Denis Preston of Record Supervision, whose master it is, has in the past year established Bilk in the United States as a solid album seller and is now waxing four L.Ps annually for stateside release on Atco. Preston's Lansdowne Jazz Series continues to supply E.M.I. with a remarkably high standard of jazz recordings for release on the Columbia label. R.S.L. introduced the Tamoure to England with recordings by The Maori Hi Five.

However, perhaps the biggest independent splash to be made this year in the transatlantic ocean came from Joe Meek of R.G.M. Sound with his two million selling, Cash Box Gold Award winning, "Telstar" by The Tornados. During the year in addition to producing many British chart entries Meek also recorded top Swedish artistes Jerry Williams and The Violents.

Robert Stigwood Associates Ltd. continued their promotion of John Leyton and Mike Sarne and introduced a new British artiste Bick Ford.

Lawrence Wright, founder of one of this country's most successful publishing houses, received a special and well deserved Ivor Novello Award for 'outstanding services to British popular and light music'. Lawrence Wright also published one of the year's biggest successes "Lovesick Blues" by Frank Ifield. The Southern group continuing their pro-British policy made impressive entries into the charts with two Mike Sarne numbers "Come Outside" and "Will I What?" It was a pleasure to meet Southern's Director Mrs. Ralph Peer during her annual visit to Europe. E.M.I.'s publishing house Ardmore & Beechwood enjoyed considerable success with both American and British numbers. From America The Four Seasons contributed two solid successes "Sherry" and "Big Girls Don't Cry" while in both the American and British markets Rolf Harris' "Sun Arise" and "Tie Me Kangaroo Down Sport" hit the jackpot. Chappells continued to skim the cream from the best of American and British musicals of stage and screen and, at the same time, handle such individual hits as "I Can't Stop Loving" by Ray Charles; "Island of Dreams" by The Springfields and "Take These Chains From My Heart" (Ray Charles.) During the year Chappells also acquired the Planetary Kahl catalogue and set up two new companies P. K. Music which scored with Frankie Vaughan's "Loop De Loop" and Delfont Music to handle the score of the British musical "Pickwick." Welbeck Music was launched by Pye Records under the aegis of Leeds Music and immediately achieved success with "I Will Follow Him" by Petula Clark and "Suki Yaki" by Kenny Ball. Decca's publishing outlet Burlington Music had a trump card with Ned Miller's "From A Jack To A King" and also Del Shannon's "Swiss Maid." They also published "Acapulco 1922." The K.P.M. group entered the record and best selling sheet music charts with "Like I Do" by Maureen Evans and "Nobody's Darling But Mine" by Frank Ifield and set up a new publishing outlet in America with Al Gallico. In London they took over the Spanka catalogue previously handled by Bron Music. The biggest hit of the year for Bron was "Dance On" by The Shadows closely followed by "Esso Besso" by Paul Anka. Noel Rogers who handles the Aldon and Dominion catalogues this year moved to new offices and had such outstanding hits as "Locomotion" by Little Eva; "It Might As Well Rain Until September" by Carol King; "Up On The Roof" (Kenny Lynch) and "Venus In Blue Jeans" by Mark Wynter etc. Another publisher to move to new offices was Lee Pincus of Ambassador Music who besides enjoying success with "A Taste Of Honey" has also successfully placed many British copyrights on the American market through his parent firm Gil Pincus Music. John Fields of Harold Fields Music also moved offices and achieved success with his own composition "My Love And Devotion" which was recorded by Matt Monro. A stone's throw away Cyril Shane of Shapiro Bernstein launched a concentrated attack on the charts first with "It Only Took A Minute" by Joe Brown and "Guitar Man" by Duane Eddy. Shapiro Bernstein also published the music from 'the film of the year' "Lawrence of Arabia." For Mills Music it was a British composition which gave them their biggest success "Guitar Tango" by The Shadows. London Manager Cyril Gee also visited New York on a 'Buy British' music selling campaign. Ivy Music were the lucky publishers of "Telstar" by The Tornados. Fred Jackson of Tin Pan Alley had two hits by the American duo Paul and Paula "Hey Paula" and "Young Lovers." Individual chart successes were scored by Lafleur Music "Wayward Wind"; Leeds Music "Roses Are Red" and Kassner "Bobby's Girl." However, when all is said and done the title of "Publisher Of The Year" undoubtedly goes to Dick James who, last October celebrated his first anniversary as a publisher in his own right, expanded his offices and stepped up his artistes and agency activities. For Dick James and his associate companies, Northern Songs and Jaep Music 1963 has been a year of stupendous achievement. The first link in the fantastic chain of hits that brought him four No: 1 chart toppers in as many months came in February this year when Liverpudlian group The Beatles shot to the top with "Please Please Me." Next came Gerry And The Pacemakers with "How Do You Do It." Then came the Beatles follow-up "From Me to You" who gave way to yet another group Billy J. Kramer And The Dakotas "Do You Want To Know A Secret" and Gerry And The Pacemakers "I Like It." For the week of May 25th Dick James was in the unique and enviable position of having four copyrights in the Top Twenty at one time—and all British.

ENGLAND — The Past 12 Months

On this happy and encouraging note we end the Review Of The Year 1962/1963.

So. AFRICA —

To gain anywhere near a complete picture of the Record Industry in South Africa, it is necessary to be aware of the problems peculiar to the territory.

16,500,000 people live in the Republic of South Africa, which covers 472,358 square miles, that is, five times the size of the United Kingdom (population 53,000,000). Of the 16,500,000 population 3,266,000 are whites, and, in the main, the group to which the record industry looks for its support.

The 12,234,000 non-whites are specially catered for in their own language. An African record catalog, for example, would include Jive Bands, Saxophone Jive Flute, Zulu Vocal, Shangaan Vocal, Xhosa Vocal, Rock and Roll, Sotho Vocal, Pedi Vocal, Nyanja Vocal, Shana Vocal and so on. These are just some of the language categories and they are broken down almost endlessly in this way—Zulu Guitar, Zulu Violin, Zulu Concertina, Sotha Concertina, etc. Each tribal group has a particular style on an instrument which is essentially its own. You can't sell a record of a Zulu Concertina number to a Shangaan or a Sotho. Big catalogs are, therefore, carried by the companies, all of which have an African record division.

As regards the Indian and Malay people they, too, have their own music which is available from most companies but in limited supply.

As can be seen from the accompanying schedule of South African record companies and the labels they own and represent, material is acquired from all parts of the world. However, it is the American product that dominates the market, with the British product coming in second.

Having given an idea of the mass of product, the diversity of the people to be reached, let's now examine the promotion outlets. There is Laurenco Marques Radio with its Studios in Lourenco Marques, Mocambique, and the commercial managers of the station, Davenport and Meyer (Pty.) Limited, with their head office in Johannesburg. This station beams to all points in South Africa and the Rhodesias. Primarily it is a record station.

Springbok Radio, the commercial service of the South African Broadcasting Corporation, beams to all points in South Africa and the Rhodesias. Its programming is heavy with plays, serials, etc., but it is a very important medium for records. Its listener ratings are on average, higher than any other station. The SABC also runs a non commercial service for English speaking listeners and another for Afrikaans speaking listeners. These programs do not enjoy the mass listenership of the commercial programs. The 'Bantu' program, as the service is called for the African population, is expanding by leaps and bounds and is broadcast on a very costly system of FM transmitters.

Radio exposure is, therefore, confined by and large to the two commercial stations. There is no television in South Africa. The press is used, public appearances, screen slides and any other means of promotion.

SWITZERLAND — The Past 12 Months

Switzerland . . . means Music. Every kind of music is demanded in our small country: folklore, top hits, jazz, light and classical music and also one dance relieves one other; yesterday there were twist, madison, today it is Bossa-Nova and tamouré and tomorrow it will be the slop. Just in that moment we have a very great trend in Hill-Billy-music which is proved with the new top hits "7000 Rinder" by Peter Hinnen (Ariola) and the first prize of the German Song Festival "Ich will 'nen Cowboy als Mann" by the Danish Singer Gitte (Columbia) and many others.

As always we have a very, very great demand for Italian disks—at the moment, about a hilf a million Italian workers are employed in our country. The greatest successes are recorded by Rita Pavone (RCA) and Adriano Celentano (Clan).

Musikvertrieb AG in Zürich obtained the representation of the Ariola record label for Switzerland so that another great label is controlled by this active Swiss label. These companies' biggest sellers in 1962-1963 have been "Schuld war nur der Bossa-Nova" by Manuela (Decca)—in addition to that it must be mentioned that this title was the first record of her and it claimed for a long time the first position in the German—and Swiss hitparades—further they noted great sales with "Gaucho Mexicano" by Renate and Werner Leismann (Ariola), the second prize of the German Song-Festival "Ob in Bombay, ob in Rio" by our Swiss singer Anita Traversi (Ariola), "La partita di pallone" and "Il bella del mattone" by Rita Pavone (RCA), "Nachtexpress nach St. Tropez" by Teddy Parker (Telefunken), "Meine Braut, die kann das besser" by Gerd Böttcher (Decca) and finally "Im kleinen Dorf am Rio Grande" by Renate and Werner Leismann, which promise to be a very big hit this summer. Elvis Presley made a great come-back with "Kiss Me Quick" and "Girls, Girls, Girls," on RCA.

In the French part of Switzerland, Musikvertrieb AG had good sales with the Swiss singer Larry Greco with "Mary-Lisa" which is played in all French Broadcast Stations, and also "Les Aiglons"—a rock and roll group on Barclay—notes good successes.

In the category of background music great quantities of records by Mantovani (Decca) are demanded and also Frank Chacksfield (Decca) notes good sales. The disc, "At the Carnegie Hall" by Judy Garland seems to have great success too.

The only pressing plant in Switzerland, Turicaphon AG, has raised sales about 10%. It acquired the repertoire of the Ricordi disks for Switzerland. On its own label, Elite-Special, it has great successes with "Cowboy-Jimmy" published in its affiliated Annabella-Publishing Company in Uster and "Drei weisse Birken" is still one of its bestsellers. Elite-Special, which is also represented in Germany and in Austria started the first Slop-records in these countries. At the affiliated Music Publishing Company "Musikus" in Uster, it controlled bestsellers like "Für Gaby tu ich alles," "Bossa-Nova Casanova," "Barcarole in der Nacht," "Er macht mich krank, der Mondschein an der Donau," "Paradiso," "Wenn du gehst" and many others.

Jecklin & Co. looks back to a very, very big hit last year: "Zwei kleine Italiener" by Conny Froboess (Columbia); this last year's first prize of the German Song Festival achieved a one million sale in the German speaking countries. Jecklin had not only the last year's first prize in his catalogue, also number one of 1963 "Ich will 'nen Cowboy als Mann" by Gitte is recorded on Columbia which is actually a very great hit. Other best sellers have been "La mezza luna" by Adriano Celentano (Clan), "Caldo, Caldo" by Celentano, "J'entends siffler le train" a french number by Richard Anthony" and "Bacci" by Renzo Germani. Bill Ramsey, ex-GI married a Swiss Girl and now lives in Zurich. He became acclimated very quickly; Columbia recorded a Swiss folklore "'s Ramseyers wey go grase," which he sings in our Swiss-German dialect. Another great hit with Russ Conway has been "Lesson one". Just in the last minute Jecklin announces that he acquired following representations: Carisch, Gloria, Imperial, Odeon, Parlophone and Pathé. Titan AG ceded his full deposit to Jecklin with exception of Mercury which has been acquired from Philips AG.

Ester Ofarim (Philips), an Israelite girl—started the Swiss great success on the occasion of the Eurovision-Festival in London, with Switzerland honored with the second prize. This title is a very great hit in the Philips-repertoire. Another notable sale of Philips is the UNO-disk which achieved in our country sales of 55,000 copies. Other hits of Philips have been "Piccolina" with Leo Leandros, "Ich tanze mt dir in den Morgen" by Gerhard Wendland (Philips) and "Ich schau den weissen Wolken nach" by Nana Mouskouri. In the musical field Philips had two top sellers with "West Side Story" and "My Fair Lady."

They noted this year enjoyed success with the French singers Claude François, "Si tu veux etre heureux" (Fontana) and with Sheila (18), who started with "L'Ecole est fini" and "Pendant les vacances." Johnny Halliday is still the most popular singer in France and in the French part of Switzerland.

Siemens (Deutsche Grammophon) looks back to a great list of bestsellers so as "Barcarole in der Nacht" by Connie Francis (MGM), "Wenn erst der Abend kommt" by Peter Alexander (Polydor), "Junge, komm bald wieder" by Freddy (Polydor), Wini-Wini by the Tahiti-Tamourés (Polydor), "Wir könnten Freunde sein" by Sacha Distel (Polydor), the French singer with an accent. Max Greger back on Polydor started again with a great sale "Yakety-Sax." As all other companies Siemens represents a great Italian repertoire with Mina (Italdisc) "Stessa spiaggia, stessa ma", Domenico Modugno (Fonit) "Lettera di un soldato" and "Malascemcena" with Connie Francis on MGM. In the American field of Siemens we find successes on Brunswick with Rick Nelson "Gipsy Woman" and "You Don't Love Me Anymore," on Verve with Ella Fitzgerald "I Can't Give You Anything but Love" and "Mack the Knife" with Stan Getz "Desafinado" and finally back to Brunswick with Bill Anderson and his title "Still."

The Vogue SA, Finsterwald and Cantacuzene and Editions de Belmont SA controlled the biggest hit of Switzerland, "Monsieur," in the past season with Petula Clark (Vogue). Petula Clark recorded other notable hits just as "Kapitän," "Casanova baciami," "Chariot" and many others. Françoise Hardy (Vogue) delights all our young people with her songs, and one of her recent records "Les garçons et less filles," had a great sale like all her other ones. Editions de Belmont SA is the sub-publisher of all Françoise Hardy-titles.

HMV and Electrola, controlled by Hug & Co. in Bale, were tops with Toni Renis (Voce del padrone) "Quando, Quando," Ray Charles' (HMV) "I Can't Stop Loving You" and "Speedy Gonzales."

Editions Sidem SA, headed by Heinz Liechti controls the group of "The Big 3" (Robbins, Feist, Miller) and also the rights of Dr. Hans Gerig in Cologne. He noted many successes like "Wenn ich ein Cowboy wär" by Martin Lauer (Polydor), "Ohne Krimi geht die Mimi nie ins Bett" by Bill Ramsey (Polydor), "Adios Amigos" by Sacha Distel (Polydor), "Roses are red," "Verliebt, verlobt, verheiratet" with Conny Froboess and Peter Alexander (Polydor) and many others. Mondiamusic in Geneva is owner of the Copyright of "T'en va pas" by Ester Ofarim.

Edition Melodie, Anton Peterer in Zurich is the publisher of the newest titles of Pierre Cavalli. Pierre Cavalli, the best European jazz-guitarist, is also known in the United States through his tours and numerous recordings. The Edition Melodie is publishing many Swiss folklore music. In this category Jost Ribary was about 30 years in front with his records and now his son—also named Jost Ribary—takes this place. His recent record "Alpenflug" an EP on Polydor notes good sale.

"Mr. Music Man of Switzerland," Cedric Dumont and his assistants Jane and Anton Peterer reported a very successful year with the Edition Coda. A new long term contract renewal has been signed between Publications Francis-Day SA in Paris and the Edition Coda in Zurich. In view of the growing importance of and demand for background and film music in Switzerland, Edition Coda is establishing an own tape and records library, the CODA-ARCHIVES. For this it already has acquired several foreign catalogs.

As in preceding years, Edition Coda has a great list of notable successes: "Monsieur," "Zwei kleine Italiener," "Eine Rose aus Santa Monica," "Telstar," "Ich will 'nen Cowboy als Mann," "Im kleinen Dorf am Rio Grande," "Wini-Wini," "Pepino, the Italian Mouse," "Mr. Casanova," "Ob in Bombay, ob in Rio," "Mitsou" and many others.

Many Coda-originals have been recorded by several stars and bandleaders so by Bert Kämpfert, Frank Chacksfield, Frank Valdor and by Cedric Dumont himself. As always, Cedric Dumont arranged many records for the Ex Libris diskery.

BELGIUM — The Past Twelve Months

According to information made available by the Belgian Syndicate Chamber of Record firms, the sales of singles and EP's on the Belgian market has during the past twelve months increased by 10% while also some 15% more LP's were sold. The progress noted for the LP's is restricted however to the recording of light music, since the sales of classical music have slightly declined.

The Belgian disk market seems to be suffering from strangulation with the volume of sales almost half the volume of imported records.

The great demand for American hit songs has stabilized itself, despite the fact that during the past few months a new trend has appeared in the taste of buyers, especially among the Flemish record fans who seem to show a marked preference for Flemish hit tunes. As an example, one can cite the case of "Eenzaam Zonder Jou" (Lonely Without You) by Will Tura, which has broken all previous sales records. There still is a great demand for French light music and top favorites are for the moment Petula Clark, Françoise Hardy, Sylvie Vartan, Gilbert Bécaud, Les Chausettes Noires (a twist-ensemble), Aznavour, Johnny Halliday, Richard Anthony and a few others. Opposed to this trend is an apparent decrease in the imports of German records. Among the British labels the Columbia label is tops (distributed in Belgium by SA Gramophone) with names such as Cliff Richard, Helen Shapiro, Acker Bilk and others.

As mentioned before the production of Flemish records seems headed for better days. It is however doubtful whether we will witness a period similar to the one which existed a few years ago when the Flemish songs by Jean Walter outsold every single foreign record. It started with "Eenzaam Zonder Jou" and it went on with the success of such tunes as "Geef Mij Nog Een Kans" (Give Me Another Chance) (by Marva on Vogue), "Waar En Wanneer" (Where And When) (Bob Benny on Polydor) and others.

Despite this trend, Elvis Presley remains on top with e.g. "Return To Sender," "Girls, Girls" and others. Other American groups have their following over here, such as for instance The Contours ("Do You Love Me"), The Cascades ("Rhythm Of The Rain"), Peter, Paul and Mary ("If I Had A Hammer," "Puff"), and others. There still is a demand for names as Bobby Vee, Bobby Rydell Connie Francis, Brenda Lee, Paul Anka, Nat "King" Cole and this year too for Andy Williams. Rydell's "Loop The Loop" has done much better than the original version by Johnny Thunder.

As far as the distribution of the labels is concerned it should be pointed out that a few American labels are being distributed by the rather small outfit Show Records, which hasn't got its headoffice in one of the principal Belgian towns. It represents the Cameo, Parkway, Colpix labels, and the Swedish Sonet line. Its biggest hit so far has been Chubby Checker's "Timbo Rock."

Among the French speaking performers in Belgium there is now, of course, the very strong Pathé star Adamo. As a young man, from Jemappes he won the Charles Aznavour prize in France three years ago, but then faded away. A few months ago, he emerged to the surface with "Sans-toi Mamie" (Without You Mamie), which has set new records for sales in the entire country. He has followed on this success with "Amour Perdu" (Lost Love), and who knows what could come next?

There is of course the establishment of the CBS label in Belgium, which such best sellers as Andy Williams, Dion, The Brothers Four, Tony Bennett, Johnny Mathis, and now also has Frankie Laine among its stars.

Main news from SA Fonior is the fact that it had the top-hit "Speedy Gonzales" on its label, as well as "Telstar." There were of course several other best sellers but both these songs undoubtedly topped the lists during the past twelve months as far as Belgium is concerned. On the Barclay label, also distributed by Fonior, the artists most in demand remain Aznavour and Brel. Mentioned too should be the sales of the cheaper Stella records, now available for 39 F (78¢) as compared to the normal price for a single of 66 F ($1.32).

From Socodisc the most striking feature is the tremendous success of the Will Tura, hit "Eenzaam Zonder Jou" (Lonely Without You) on Palette. The same firm of course is putting the records of The Cousins. Noteworthy too are the first sales of the LP Sinatra-Basie on Reprise.

Looking over the list of the best sellers a name which appears often is Philips. This success is due mainly to Robert Cogoi, a young French singing Belgian, with his "Sin Un Jour" (If One Day) and other popular hits topping the list in Belgium.

One label which has now disappeared is Marshall, which originated from a collaboration between Robert Bylois, manager of the Benelux Theater and the well known composer Louis Marischal. The latter is now working for Vogue, which has asked him to set up a Belgian department of the Editions Vogue International.

Sobedi, a firm producing mainly popular records, which can attribute its success to "De Witte Muis" (The White Mouse), interpreted by Eddy Roos a Flemish artist. Similar songs have quite a following among the Flemish population. A very good single on the market is the one by Jean-Marc Bertrand.

Best sellers for Discobel are names such as Fats Domino, Leny Escudero and most recently The Spotnicks on Discostar. This Scandinavian ensemble has broken through in Belgium with its hit, "Johnny Guitar." A competition seems to be engaged between the Shadows and The Spotnicks.

Moonglow is especially proud about its hit tune "Buona Notte Bambino," first in the original interpretation by the Sicilian Angelo Biondi and later in another version by Rocco Granata, who wrote the music and the lyrics. The number has now reached the hit parades in several countries and this can be considered quite an achievement.

Vogue is enjoying good sales with Petula Clark and Françoise Hardy, and also with records by Rosy Armen, The Cascades and others. Marva has broken through in the Flemish area. Mode records seem to be quite in demand. Worth mentioning is the departure of Guy Khavessian, head of Vogue-Belgium, to Paris, where he is to hold an important post in the head offices of Vogue. Roger Meylemans is to take over in Belgium.

Discotrade was proud to be able to present to its best selling artist, accordion player André Verchuren, a golden record. Verchuren is the leading artist in his specialty. During the past year several Festival records enjoyed good sales.

RCA, of course, holds one of the top sales positions. It can boast such names as Elvis Presley, Paul Anka, Belafonte, Sacha Distel and many more. Presley remains the singer whose records still are purchased in the thousands. Anka isn't doing badly either.

HOLLAND – The Past Twelve Months

The Dutch record-scene during last season 1962/63 showed a certain stability and, in fact, no 'worldshaking' news is to be reported. Artone added some new important labels to its organization e.g. Cameo-Parkway and Motown-Tamla-Gordy, while Artone-president Bill C. and Casper D. Slinger founded a new company for exclusive distribution of CBS-records in Benelux. Dutch Siemens company took over distribution of MGM, while Dureco recently made a contract with the Johnny Hoes Production Cy., "Telstar." New founded record-company: Max Mackintosh Productions (M.M.P.). Mutations: J. Th. van der Meer left Phonogram, being succeeded as director by J. J. M. Haslinghuis; R. H. Klaassen has been appointed to Adjoint Director of Phonogram. Harry Jansen and Ben Levi left the record-business, as directors of Nederlandsche Gramofoon Maatschappij (NEGRAM) and Dureco, respectively. Robert Oeges took over the management of NEGRAM.

Most successful record companies were Phonogram, with 11 records in the list of the 30 best sold platters in the past 12 months, closely followed by Bovema (9) and Artone (8). Bovema especially made very big business with its Columbia-artist Cliff Richard, who had no less than 5 records on the Top Thirty-list.

Most successful music publisher was Symphony House (Editions Altona, Editions Climax, etc.) with 7 titles in the Top 30, followed by Belinda and Basart (each with 5 titles), Benelux Music and Chappell (each with 3 titles).

A marketing research recently was made by the CCGC. It is known now that Dutch public (population of Holland: about 12 million) possesses a total of 59 million records: 16 million LP's and 43 million EP's and singles. Here is the subdivision in categories:

	Total Number of LP's		Total Number of EP's
	Number	Per Cent	Number	Per Cent
Classical	7,800,000	49%	3,600,000	8%
Light-classical	2,200,000	14	3,500,000	8
Religious music	600,000	4	1,600,000	4
Opera	1,300,000	8	1,000,000	2
Readings etc.	100,000	1	200,000	1
Cabaret, chanson, musical	500,000	3	1,400,000	3
Jazz (modern and traditional)	700,000	4	3,800,000	9
Folks-music	400,000	3	1,500,000	3
Light-music (dance music, tophits)	1,600,000	10	18,800,000	44
Marches, fanfares, festive music	300,000	2	2,000,000	5
Dutch songs	100,000	1	3,800,000	9
Children records	100,000	1	1.700.000	4
Totals	15,700,000	100%	42,900,000	100%

37% of the families in Holland are in possession of a phonograph. In 1% of these Dutch families, there is even more than one phonograph. This means that there is a phonograph in about 1,100,000 families and that 1,900,000 families don't have a phonograph. Of the 1,150,000 phonos in Holland, only 200,000 are stereo equipments. Furthermore, 400,000 are record-changers. Per year about 150,000 phonos are bought by the public. The total turn-over record-dealers made in 1962 was about 61,-000,000, which is about $1,700,000. Approximately 2/3 of record-owners buy their records in special record-shops; the remaining 1/3 buy in radio-shops or in department stores.

To conclude this survey of the Dutch record-market, here are the figures on the total turnover in the period June '62—May '63:

LP's	2,500,000 records
EP's and singles	9,500,000 records
Totals	12,000,000 records

And that's it concerning Holland in this Cash Box World Wide Directory and 21st Anniversary Edition.

GERMANY—The Past Twelve Months

Every year seems to bring many changes to the record business in Germany as in other countries. The past 12 months have seen the 12" LP become a main factor in the market here. For the first time 100,000 seller LP's and even some have reached the 200,000 mark. These figures were considered dream figures just a year ago. It was the year that saw the independent record producer get his foot in the door at almost every major firm here. It was the year that saw singles sales drop, but singles productions also went down. Singles remain the most important sales factor in this market. The last 12 months saw many publishers entering the recording field. Less and less foreign material found its way into the top 10 here, and only two songs from Germany made the top chart positions in the U.S.A. The singles prices were raised almost 20%.

Once again, let's delve into our crystal ball for future trends. More LP sales than ever before. Continued drop in singles sales or the price of singles will once again go down to a dollar here and singles sales will rise again. More and more independent productions on the market and an ever increasing dollar volume in sales. More exports and less imports of material. The long shot of the year would be a strong independent distribution organization for Germany.

Last year, we predicted more small labels entering the market, an increase in the singles price thus pushing the LP up front, a huge increase in album sales and steady sales on singles, more million selling singles and less middle selling ones, more flops, more music exported than in the past, less imported hits, better distribution for small labels, increased publicity, major foreign labels opening their own operation here, and minor ones joining together for the same goal and increased dollar volume in the record business. All of the predictions came true except for the million selling singles (we had less); minor labels did not join together to form strong combines; singles sales dropped. For the monthly report on what happened in the record business in Germany for the past 12 months here is a month to month report of the record business from July through July in Germany as it appeared in Cash Box.

JULY

Mina continued to head the hit parade with her first German language recording. She also made her first German press conference. Record firms began to make deals with the music box operators for special pieces on box records. Deutsche Grammophon GMBH and Philips Records joined together business wise for the sensation of the season. They stayed separate firms in Germany. The German Pop Music Festival was planned for 1963 despite rumors that the festivals were over for Germany. Teldec released a special series of classical LP's at reduced prices. Ariola Records joined their Sonopress pressing firm to make a joint corporation. Wilfried Jung took over as distribution chief for Electrola Records. Erich Storz renewed his Metronome contract for 3 years. Alfons Bauer who had been with Electrola for 5 years switched labels to Philips.

For the first summer in the history of the record business here, top artists had new releases. Summer hits included new waxings by Conny, Gus Backus, Connie Francis, Gerd Boettcher, Caterina Valente, Billy Vaughn, Gerhard Wendland and Nana Mouskouri. Classically, Hans Ritter left D.G.G. for the classical A&R post at Electrola and Fritz Ganss left Electrola for the same position with Ariola. Festival wise, strong classical programs were beginning in Bayreuth for Wagner, and Salzburg for Mozart.

AUGUST

Radio Luxembourg presented their ½ yearly awards to Freddy, Mina, Conny and Bob Moore for the most requested records of the season. Lou Van Burg joined the station as quizmaster. Two sided decks began to rack up top business topped by Philips stars Nana Mouskouri and Gerhard Wendland and MGM's Connie Francis. Peppino Di Capri had his first hit in Germany with the Italian recording of "St. Tropez Twist." The German team composed of Nina Weston-Philips, Ralf Paulson-Electrola, Angela Monti-Teldec, Ulla Raphael-Polydor and Peter Kirsten finished 3rd at the Knokke, Belgium festival. Japan's top star Sachiko Nashida did her first German recording. Rainer Bertram switched labels from Polydor to Metronome. D.G.G. classical artists Karl Boehm, Wilhelm Kempff, Lorin Maazel, Rita Streich, Gezo Anda and Tamas Vasary toured the U.S.

SEPTEMBER

Following in the footsteps of Metronome who had raised their singles prices from 4 DM (1 dollar) to 4.50 (1.12), the major German record firms lead by Polydor raised their singles prices to 4.75 (1.19) and Metronome later followed suit.

Billy Vaughn, Siw Malmkvist, Bobby Vinton, Alvino Rey, The King Sisters, and Henri Rene visited Germany.

Metronome took over the Spanish Belter label. Nils Nobach took over the production of Dalida for Ariola.

Joey Dee had his first German smash with Ya Ya which passed the 100,000 mark in sales and went on to double that sum. The madison hit Europe and record producers here jumped on the band wagon. Enrique Lebendiger visited Germany to bring the Bossa Nova here. Electrola celebrated its 10th anniversary in Cologne with a big party. Sir Joseph Lockwood and L. T. Dines from EMI were on hand along with many Electrola stars and Holland's Gerry Oord. Jerry Thomas of Liberty Records visited Germany. Bert Kaempfert did the music for the film "90 minutes after midnight," his first film score. Philips released an LP under the title "Cash Box Top 100" and began to use the rubrick Cash Box Top 100 to point out their top American sellers. Metronome later followed suit.

OCTOBER

The music box industry took the show as Al Adickes of Nova Apparate did a showing of the new Rockola boxes in Hamburg and Munich. Seevend soon followed with Seeburg shows in Hamburg and Manheim. Martin Haerle from Starday visited Ariola for talks about hillbilly production. Ariola took over Kapp Record distribution for Austria and Germany. Electrola Records took over the Epic line for Germany. All major and minor labels switched to the new singles price of 4.75 DM (1.19 dollars). Sonet-Storyville switched distribution from Metronome to Philips. Hans Bertram of Polydor produced the "Baby Twist" and Electrola followed suit with the "Babysitter Twist." Polydor won the hit race. Caterina Valente produced 2 new shows for German TV costing about 180,000 dollars. Bernhard Miqulski opened his own pressing plant in Frankfurt to carry his own production for Roulette, and Carina. The German Musical "Heimweh Nach St. Pauli" (Homesick for St. Pauli) starring top record star Freddy opened in Hamburg to smash press raves. The show is still running. A new Rock and Roll club in Hamburg, The "Star Club" began booking top acts such as Little Richard, Joey Dee, Fats Domino, Brenda Lee, etc. Rolf Engleder of Ariola announced a new classical label called "Eurodisc." He signed top stars Erika Koeth, Renate Holm, Lisa Della Casa, Hans Hopf and Alberto Erede to contracts as well as Rudolf Schock. Marlene Dietrich visited Germany for new record dates. Teldec lowered their classical LP price for mono and stereo from 25 DM (6.25 dollars) to 21 DM (5.25). The director of Teldec Records Hans Lieber celebrated his 40th year with the firm.

NOVEMBER

The price raise showed its mark in sales as middle selling records dropped out of the picture all together, and hot hits such as "Baby Twist" sold 200,000 and more in nothing flat. Polydor released a new classical LP package for 9.50 dollars. Barbara Kist took over the music promotion slot at Schaeffers Music replacing Gerd Hammerling. The music boxes began to scream about the singles price raise and tried to find a way to combat it with their own production, etc. No solution is in sight. A new gag hit the market again through producer Hans Bertram. This time it was the "Spiegel Twist" named after the political affair which tore the German government in two. Electrola also followed suit but a Hamburg court made them change the name of their release to "Bundesball Twist." Tom Ward visited Germany for talks with Peer Music here. Metronome records reorganized and put Reinhard Streit in as distribution chief.

DECEMBER

Publishers were screaming about the advances and percents asked by American Publishers and many German publishers were planning on cancelling their contracts to begin the new year. Philips started a publicity compaign for The Firehouse Five Plus Two and their jazz catalogue including the huge "Interdisc" cataloge. A new man was hired to look out especially for jazz repertoire. Ariola held a press conference in Vienna for director Rolf Engleder to tell about the new plans of the firm. Petula Clark reached the ¼ million mark with Monsieur to make it the best selling record ever for the young Vogue records here. The first German 70 MM color film "Flying Clipper" was premiered in New York and Germany.

That's about it for 1962. We must admit that our predictions in the directory issue and last year's Xmas issue turned out just right. How about 1963. For our new year's predictions let's look for more indie labels, the birth of indie producing in Germany, heavy concentration on LP product and further increase in LP sales, stronger independent distribution, less single sales, more cover production at lower priced levels for department stores. Cash Box will be on hand to report the excitement that is the record business in Germany again in 1963.

JANUARY

The new year set the trend for the months to come as singles sales as well as the production of singles records dropped considerably and LP's began to sell in good quantity. Philips awarded a gold record to "My Fair Lady" which passed the 125,000 mark in sales and musical LP's started moving with the film music from "Porgy and Bess" and "West Side Story" all in the top 10 LP lists here. A German musical "Heimweh nach St. Pauli" (Homesick for St. Pauli) starring German star Freddy was also in the top 10 and a single from the show "Junge, komm bald wieder" went on to top the charts. The 2nd TV channel (national) in Mainz hired Max Gregor for South Germany and Kurt Henkels for North Germany with their full orchestras. Josephine Baker picked up 2,000 dollars working at the Munich Madame Club Hall. Bossa Nova came to Germany and although two songs "Desafinado" and "One Note Samba" got over 50 different recordings here between them, the dance never quite made the grade, and no Bossa Nova made the charts until much later in the year. "Automaten Markt" a local trade paper picked the juke box favorites of 1962. The most played male vocalist award went to Philips' Gerhard Wendland with Polydor's Peter Kraus and RCA's Elvis Presley following. The most played female vocalist was Philip's Nana Mouskouri with MGM's Connie Francis and Polydor's Mina following. The most played vocal group was Caterina Valente and Sylvio Francesco (her brother) as a duo. They record for Teldec. The Orchestra award went to Teldec's Bob Moore. The most played single record was "Speedy Gonzales" with two artists, Electrola's Rex Gildo and Teldec's Pat Boone splitting the honors. Gerd Hammerling left Peter Schaeffers Music to form his own Nero Music with Peter Meisel. Dr. Karlheinz Busse picked up Chris Barber for Italy and Germany and also Betty Curtis. The artists will both be distributed by Metronome and produced by Dr. Busse. Paul Siegel announced that his productions of the Oederland Orchestra would be released by Dot in the states. Composer and publisher Will Meisel was given a special award for his works by German President Dr. Luebke.

FEBRUARY

February started with 8 German songs in the top 10 here. The industry went out on a full Bossa Nova push, but never brought it through despite TV dance instructions, full press coverage, etc. Francoise Hardy came here and made her first German record for Vogue. Work began for the 3rd German Pop Music Festival and 297 songs were sent in by songwriters here for consideration. Last year's festival resulted in over 2 million sold records. Sonny Rollins made his first trip to Germany. Gus Backus and Peter Kraus both went to the U.S. for productions for MGM. The low price LP business started in Germany. Musikvertrieb A.B. in Zurich took over Ariola for Switzerland. Philips released their second LP under the title Cash Box Top 100.

Hans R. Beierlein reported that the 2nd German recording of Petula Clark in German passed the 100,000 mark in sales after only 2 weeks. Ariola reported that their sales for January/February topped the previous year by 300%. Teldec picked up the rights for the soundtrack to the new German production of "3 Penny Opera." Independent production started in a big way in Germany and two indie discs "Wini-Wini" and "Blame it on the Bossa Nova" went on to head the charts here. The "All Star Festival" LP for the United Nations Refugee Fund was released by Philips here and went on to top all other European countries with over 200,000 records sold by Philips here. Peter Hinnin flew to N.Y. for appearances on the Jack Paar Show.

MARCH

Hans Gerig Music took all 3 prizes in the "top carnival song" awards from Radio Luxemburg and took 2 of the 3 prizes in the pop competition. Radio Luxemburg awarded their gold, silver and bronze lions to Freddy, Will Brandes, Sacha Distel and Joey Dee for the most requested tunes of the first 3 months of 1963. Pat Thomas visited Germany for TV shots and promotion on her new LP by MGM. Brenda Lee began producing in German with A&R work handled by Bert Kaempfert. Ariola started their "Eurodisc" label for classical music and took over A&R man Fritz Ganss from Electrola and several name artists including Rudolf Schock who visited the states to do several concerts including a Carnegie Hall shot. Philips changed their name from Deutsche Philips to Philips Ton GMBH with Hans Schrade as General Manager. After a long period of time CBS records finally got started in Germany with Bernhard Mikulski as head. Verve records left Mr. Mikulski to go with Deutsche Grammophon but Mikulski held on to Roulette, Blue Note and several other important lines. Heidi Bruhl from Philips represented Germany in the "Song From Europe Contest" in London. 2nd TV started a German Hit Parade Show. Electrola released a "Music in all cities and Towns" LP series with 12 cities represented and the series won the Gran Prix du Disque in Paris.

SUPREME QUALITY THE WORLD OVER

GERMANY—The Past 12 Months

APRIL

Billy Mo from Teldec had his first chart topper with "I'd rather buy a Tyrolian Hat" sung in German. A Tamoure craze started in the record industry but only Hawaiiana Melodie and Wini-Wini both published by Gerd Hammerling's Nero Music and "My bride can do that better" published by Rolf Budde made the charts. The dance never caught on. CBS released 300 LP's, about 100 EP's and over 30 singles to kick off the label here. Michael Arends picked up the important Burlington Publishing group for his publishing company. Helmut Jantsch left his A&R post at Ariola to go indie. The popular teenage magazine "Bravo" awarded their "Otto" prizes for the most popular record stars. The distaff awards went to Connie Francis for the second year in a row, Caterina Valente and Conny Froboess in that order. The male honors went to Freddy, American Gus Backus and Rex Gildo in that order. Edith Piaf did her first German tour. Ariola took over the Colpix label in Germany, Austria and Switzerland. Christa Williams left Ariola to go to the indie AMFED productions who distribute the gal through Metronome. The Brothers Four were the first CBS artists to hit Germany and were recorded in German by A&R man Gilbert Obermaier. Electrola records divided their press-public relations and artist promotion departments for pop and classical. Herfrid Kier takes over the classical side of the picture, Walther Friedrich took over pop artist promotion and Marianne Schönfeldt is heading the pop press bureau. Otto Dehmler who was heading artist promotion took over the Electrola publishing company, Accord. Rudi Von Der Dovenmuhle left his A&R post at Teldec to sign a 5 year A&R contract with Amadeo. Max Gregor left Ariola to return to Polydor. Holland's Anneke Groenloh made her first German recordings for Philips. 1962 sales figures for Germany were announced and the trend was that singles dropped tremendously, the 12" LP gained 27% in sales dollar volume wise. Export rose 12.3% and import rose 21.4%. Stereo also gained in popularity.

MAY

Russ Garcia moved to Germany. Teldec awarded a gold record to the Egerlander Musikanten for over 2 million sold records. Helen Shapiro and Pat Boone did their first tour of Germany and Pat recorded his first German waxing. Ariola director Rudolf Engleder flew to the Far East for business in Tokyo, Bankok and Hongkong.

The U.S. State Dept., finally agreed to pay the German copyright and performance agency for plays on the American Forces Network. Gema picked up 75,000 dollars for past years and 31,000 dollars a year for future plays. Philips issued the first special jazz LP selling for under $2.50 with Cannonball Adderly as artist. The Alien Property Custodian Act was finally repelled and all German songs confiscated by the U.S. during the war were given back to the German publishers and authors. Herman Starr of Harms-Witmark visited Rolf Budde in Baden-Baden.

JUNE

"The Lazy, Hazy, Crazy Days of Summer" started with the tune of the same name written by Hans Carste and Hans Bradtke and published by Rolf Budde making its way into the Cash Box top 100 sung by Nat "King" Cole. David Rose did his first LP in Germany for MGM. Songwriter Harry Tobias visited Germany. Metronome records started a new LP series selling for $3.20. Electrola signed the Hazy Osterwald Quintet away from Polydor. "Blame It On The Bossa Nova" sung by newcomer Manuela on Telefunken topped the charts here. Globus Automaten celebrated their 10th anniversary in business. CBS released a Joey Dee LP selling for $2.40. At the German Pop Music Festival 3 German songs won awards for the most performed songs of the past year. First place went to "Tanze Mit Mir In Den Morgen" (Dance with me in the morning) published by Melodie Der Welt and sung by Gerhard Wendland on Philips, second prize went to "Zuckerpuppe" (Sugar doll) published by Hans Gerig and recorded by Bill Ramsey on Polydor and third prize went to "2 Kleine Italiener" (2 Little Italians) published by Peter Meisel and recorded by Conny on Electrola. "2 Little Italians" also picked up the first golden record for 1 million sales in one year. The Electrola "Silver Dog" awards were made in Cologne on June 6th. Jayne Mansfield recorded her first record for Germany for Polydor. Gitte took first place at the German Pop Music Festival at Baden-Baden with her Electrola recorded song "Ich Will 'nen Cowboy als Mann" (I want to marry a cowboy) published by Minerva Music and written by Rudi Von Der Dovenmuhle and Ariola producer Nils Nobach. The record immediately began to sell like hotcakes.

JULY

Reports for sales in Germany during the first 3 months of 1963 showed a singles loss of 17.5% over the previous year but a 57.4% gain in LP sales. EP's lost 3.8%, exports picked up by 6.4% and imports by 10%. Ralph Maria Siegel celebrated his 15th year in the publishing business. Hans-Georg Ehmke took over the export department of Ariola in addition to the import department. Barbara Eggers took over the catalogue department and Wolfgang Renk took over the affiliate in Frankfurt for the firm. Larry Yaskiel from England took over the international dept. of German Vogue. Petula Clark made her first tour of Germany. Glyn Taylor of Southern Music in South Africa visited Germany for talks with Peer Music boss Theo Seeger. Gerhard Schultze's Loewen Automaten started a new Quick Record Service and hopes to raise their volume in their 12 one-stops from 650,000 to a million records this year. Richard Anthony did his first German recordings for Electrola. Bobby Darin also did his first German waxings for the firm. The slop started on its way to popularity. The film "The Endless Night" took the music awards at the Berlin film festival and Philips A&R man Peter Thomas picked up the award for his music. Edition Coda signed a new long term contract for Francis Day and Hunter in Switzerland. Freddy picked up the 2nd gold record of the year for 1 million sales on 1 record for his "Junge, komm bald wieder" co-published by Esplanade and Sikorski and released on Polydor. The awards were made on a ship in Hamburg on July 18th.

That's about it for this year in Germany. Cash Box will be on hand to report the excitement that is the record business in Germany again in the coming year, number 22 for the magazine and now the most popular international trade paper in Germany.

SO. AFRICA PAST 12 MONTHS

To overcome the vital problem of exposure, the South African Record Manufacturers Association has embarked on a nation-wide press campaign to stimulate record buying. Full pages are being taken on a regular basis in the major newspapers throughout the country. Although all member companies are rivals in business, they are successfully uniting as an association to promote records. The Association has also scheduled a 'Record Festival' for South Africa. Plans are being laid now for a big nation-wide promotion with all companies taking part.

Very much alive to the lack of adequate promotional outlets in this country, Teal Record Company Limited, RCA and Reprise franchise holders, undertook the largest promotional campaign of its kind ever staged by a record company in the country. In August 1962, Jim Reeves, Chet Atkins and Floyd Cramer toured the country. What followed is now record industry history in this territory. Jim Reeves, already a popular artist here before he arrived, was welcomed like a reigning monarch. When the trio left a few weeks later Teal Record Company Limited wallowed happily in one of the biggest record selling sprees ever known here. Every little dealer in every country town had to have good stocks of Jim Reeves records. Jim Reeves' "Adios Amigo" became far and away the biggest seller for the year. In March 1963, Jim Reeves returned to South Africa—he gave five concerts and starred in the film "Kimberley Jim," which is nearing completion in Johannesburg. Other stars to visit this country last year include Connie Francis, Cliff Richard, Helen Shapiro and Carmen Cavallaro.

The chairman of EMI, Sir Joseph Lockwood, visited this country during the year as did T. A. van de Haar, international sales manager of the Philips Record organization.

The chairman of the South African Record Manufacturers and Distributors Association, Arnold Golembo said with regard to the past year's trading: "The industry has been static this past year, but all indications are that business will improve." His statement is borne out by the quarterly economic review of the South African Reserve Bank . . . income, production and employment increased substantially in the first four months of this year. The economic upswing not only continued, but gained additional momentum. With a strong Record Manufacturers Association—with well laid promotional plans—the record industry in this country is overcoming the major media problem. We look forward to an active and a fruitful year.

FRANCE—The Past Twelve Months

To meet a record manufacturer is always a pleasure, particularly when he explains that everything runs fine and the figures are good.

Nevertheless, it seems that the meetings of the "Chambre Syndicate" look more like "weeping wall" than a general board meeting: the economic situation seems pretty bad, common market faces insoluble problems, income is crushing. The price of records has to be increased, even if new lower price series must be found later on.

Let us try to have a look on the matter and contemplate the record industry during the 12 past months.

On the obituary side, as far as independent, Vega has gone. It was created by N. Bonfanti, and Adès was the manager. Except Paul Anka and Ray Charles from U.S. catalogues, Vega was not too successful with the popular field. But it devoted most of its activities to classical, which was really appreciated. But such a repertoire was almost impossible to handle within a short period of time.

An important electronic French corporation (C.S.F.) took over Vega and Adès came back to Le Petit Menestrel, his first label.

After many different managers, C.B.S. was supposed to control the company and its factory, but finally French Decca & RCA prexy, M. Froment, took over Vega, adding an additional repertoire to their classical ones.

If Vega has gone, C.B.S. made its entry into the French market. After taking over ARTECO, C.B.S. made a discrete appearance on the French market. This is a quite important event.

If nothing important has risen on the popular field yet, the classical catalog will likely interfere with the other such classical repertoires, which will create heavy problems, and many are waiting for CBS's plans on the matter of clubs.

There has been no important transfers of artists during this period of time, except J. J. Debout, who followed Johnny Hallyday's example and went from Vogue to Barelay.

This is a pretty good thing, after the Hallyday affair, which checked so much of the music business in France. In fact, the Hallyday case" is still going on and the final decision will be likely given before the fall.

If nothing has happened as far as the artists are concerned, we must point out Philips A & R manager, Canetti, has left the company. It is well known that Canetti has done a great deal to build Philips to its present status. But would he succeed with the new teen trend?

One of the most important fact of these past 12 months, is the appearance of a new phenomenon on the French market: "the one shot singers".

Of course, there are a few exceptions to this rule, such as Françoise Hardy and Lenny Escudero, authors/writers and singers. They both probably will stand as artists, not only because of their singing but also by the quality of their songs.

We must also mention C. Nougaro, Gilbert Becaud, who had no hits recently and Petula Clark who recently had a child.

Among the new talents, let us mention Alain Dumas, who joins Claude Francois and Sheila. The name of Sheila brings us to a new model on the French musical business, the independent A. R. men.

This artist was the result of the joined forces of 2 independent A & R men, Carrère & Plait, who discovered the singer, selected the songs, made recordings and gave Philips the exploitation rights. This new method on the French musical market might offer new perspectives, which are difficult to determine right now.

Another recent event is the importance of the TV for the promotion of a song or a singer, even if it is government controlled.

During a long time, TV was considered as unimportant, but the great increase of TV sets and the importance given to the shows can help an artist as well as a publisher: Françoise Hardy's and Claude Nougaro's appearance at "Toute la Chanson" was almost the starting point of their carrier.

And a second TV network will give more and more opportunities to producers, artists and publishers.

Radio jogs along, Europe No. 1 being the hipest and Daniel Flipacchi's "Salut les Copains" gives a chance to teenagers such as Sylvie Vartan.

The common market has obliged the record industry to work in terms of European market instead of national one. Vogue prexy, Léon Cabat, was the first to expect such an evolution and took steps to face the new common market.

A few international companies such as Philips, Pathé, Decca and RCA seemed much better equipped to face such new probems, but it happened that it is Vogue which had to build an organization able to solve these problems which has now Vogue affairs in Belgium, Switzerland and Germany for example.

In fact Vogue is the only record organization with its brain trust in Paris and it is to be known that artists like Petula Clark or Françoise Hardy or Aimable made hits in Bel-Belgium, Italy or Germany with songs in the various languages.

It seems that Barclay gets conscious of this problem since Barclay Bruxelles is announced, and Barclay/Italy rumoured.

No doubt that the common market will have helped exchange between its different countries by customs levelling.

If these firms cannot match their efforts with the classical English and German catalogs, the common market will have helped the penetration of French popular music throughout Europe.

For an example: when Petula Clark, Françoise Hardy or Dalida are recording new hits, the French, Italian and German versions are recorded almost at the same time.

It is true also for Nana Mouskouri, who had various hits in German as well as in Greek.

Since a year, a big commercial move is on its way in the French record industry. After the States, and Great Britain the sales in France are made through distributors, and the chain stores have opened record stands.

It is a fact that the price of records are still pretty high in France, but this mainly because of the contact between the record industry and the BIEM among other things. No doubt, the day will come where records will be made available for everyone.

One of the most important facts of the past year was the appearance of a big teenager audience. Therefore, it is not a surprise to notice that the A & R men are strictly looking for making records or artists which might suit to this crowd of teenagers.

Before we close this panaroma of the latest events, we must point also the importance taken by the publishing companies owing to record companies. At first they were built just in order to collect mechanical rights paid by the record industry. With the experience gained, it seems that publishing companies such as Alpha, or Vogue International (Vogue), Barclay, Caravelle (Barclay), Tutti (Philips) are getting most of the big hits and build new writers which in turn make a great deal for the record companies.

No doubt it takes a long time to build music publishing catalogs, but the means given by the record firms have given them all the possibilities to build very important catalogs which are getting them a proponderant strong place for the future in collecting companies and might one day bring a big change to the relationship between the collecting companies and the record manufacturers.

The last, but not the least aspect of this wide problem shows a stronger and stronger competition referring to the prices asked for by artists. Government is involved with more and more interest in the record business.

ITALY — The Past Twelve Months

As often written in editorials of past years, no official figures are available on record production and sales over the just expiring twelve months, therefore the following considerations and statements are based exclusively on our impressions, confirmed, of course, by most of this industry's people, and on our experience in the field of music commerce.

The general impression is that record sales on the Italian market received a strong new impulse, beginning from the Summer of 1962 up to the present. In fact, those titles which reached the first positions on our charts achieved sales exceptionally higher than those of the past, and particularly one number, "Stai Lontana Da Me"/"Sei Rimasta Sola" by Adriano Celentano, marked the record of sales of a single on our territory with 700,000 copies sold in the course of one year of continuous success. In addition to Celentano's "record," a series of steady sellers appeared on our hit parades, as follows: (once again, attention of the reader is drawn to the fact that the figures are not official and only indicate the estimation and the sales-value in the "general opinion.")

Come Te Non C'E' Nessuno (Nobody Is Like You) by Rita Pavone, RCA Italiana (500,000)

Preghero' (Stand By Me) by Adriano Celentano on Clan (500,000)

Speedy Gonzales by Peppino Di Capri on Carisch (350,000)

La Partita Di Pallone (The Football Match) by Rita Pavone on RCA Italiana (250,000)

Il Tangaccio by Adriano Celentano on Clan (200,000)

Chariot by Betty Curtis on CGD (150,000)

Uno Per Tutte (One For All) by Tony Renis on His Master's Voice (150,000)

Giovane Giovane (Young) by Pino Donaggio on His Master's Voice (150,000)

Alla Mia Eta' (At My Age) by Rita Pavone on RCA Italiana (150,000)

Amore Fermati (Love Please Stop) by Fred Bongusto on Rifi (100,000)

Il Ballo Del Mattone/Cuore by Rita Pavone on RCA Italiana (100,000)

Baci (Thinks) by Remo Germani on Saar (100,000)

Another sign of the enlargement of the record market is the increase of LP sales, which now represent approximately 10% of the whole record amount sold annually in Italy. Of course, this increase was aided strongly by the recent lower LP prices and by the opening of two important record clubs (RCA Italiana and His Master's Voice). The first record house to decide to reduce LP prices was RCA which brought to about $3 the cost of a LP that normally amounts to $5. Following RCA, His Master's Voice, as well, reduced the prices of its classical LP repertoire, initially to $3.60 and then to the same as RCA's level, that is $3. The old price of $5 was really too high and did not offer a development of the sales area, while the new one of $3 is "approachable" and open practically to all music lovers. The reduction was possible of course because the classical catalog consists mainly of masters ammortized.

Consequently, also some reductions in the LP pop field came. But it's interesting to note that on the other side, the price of singles was at the same time brought up to $1.25 from the former price of $1.15. This increase was due to the general increase of all costs of production either artistic or industrial, and it initially produced a certain recession in record sales owing to the reaction especially of the record dealers but the phenomenon soon disappeared and singles again started increasing in sales in spite of the price. Another reason of the enrichment of record sales is found in the expansion of publicity means, especially during the months preceding summer, over which there is a strong competition to get the best selling disk of the season. The Italian music industry is looking for new means of publicity also because the traditional vehicles like radio, television and film do not cooperate closely with the music industry.

It is universally known that the number one means of publicity used by music is radio and television broadcasts and maybe in some foreign country the relation between the radio & television industry and the music industry are good or excellent. In Italy, the monopoly of radio & television broadcasts creates an atmosphere of great difficulty in any relation with the music industry. In addition the bureaucracy of such a monoplastic organization keeps contacts with the music industry from being fluent. Another obstacle is represented by the distance between the center of the radio & television industry which is in Rome and the center of the music industry which is in Milan. Of course, the only record company headquartered in Rome (RCA) takes full advantage of this geographical position.

The current trend of the Italian music and record industry is moving towards concentration in few big organizations, while some small houses born four or five years ago are on the point of disappearing. These big organizations develop into an industrial structure either from the point of view of the production or distribution. First to be mentioned as a pattern of this trend is RCA Italiana in Rome, especially for two important aspects: the cooperation of the independent producers; the new structure and the dynamism of its group of agents. Among the most successful of RCA's independent producers are the following:

Teddy Reno, who is responsible for the discovery and of the tremendous vedette, Rita Pavone.

Franco Migliacci, who discovered Gianni Morandi.

Nanni Ricordi, responsible for the recent talents Michele and Enrico Polito.

RCA has 80 agents of distribution throughout Italy, divided in four lines of records: 20 agents distribute the LP catalog, classical EP's and Compacts. 20 agents distribute the catalog of Italian derivation. 20 agents distribute the RCA Victor catalog. 20 agents distribute RCA International (Barclay, Ducretet Thomson, Discophile Francois, Pye Serie "X", Vic).

It must be said that 80 agents for distribution is quite exceptional, when one thinks that the other record houses have a maximum of 30 agents. Thanks to its strong system of distribution and sales, the fortunate cooperation of expert independent record producers, and to a dynamic management of its Director, Giuseppe Ornato, RCA Italiana has reached an extraordinary position of prominence on the Italian market, where this year, according to general opinion, it has about 50% of the record sales, a terrific achievement. After Nico Fidenco, the big smash of two years ago, RCA released at the beginning of this year, a new star, Rita Pavone, a young Italian girl who with two records, La Partita Di Pallone (The Football Match) and Come Te Non C'e' Nessuno (Nobody Is Like You), has suddenly entered in our music scene as the number one vedette, and has more than one million and a half records in Italy in seven months.

His Master's Voice of Italy recorded this year three important victories: it got the first and the third places at the San Remo festival with Uno Per Tutte by Tony Renis and Giovane Giovane by Pino Donaggio, both of them destined in the following months to become consistent big sellers on records. Tony Renis was the hot winner of the festival of last year, as well, with Quando Quando Quando—an international favorite—and Pino Donaggio lost two years ago the festival of San Remo: he got only the number four spot, but over those following months his song, Like A Symphony, proved to be the real winner in record sales, becoming a big Italian success. The third HMV victory of this year regards the low priced classical LP's: a most important initiative destined to bring on the record player of serious music lovers all their favorites, since the new price is practically open to all. Of course, only a limited section of the big HMV classical catalog is available in the low priced series called Invito Alla Musica (Invitation To Music).

An event of great importance was, at the start of the year, the merging of Philips and DGG into the new company Phonogram. The big problems to achieve this new large record family are about to be solved and surely Phonogram will soon give evidences of its strong record force. It is currently looking for new Italian talents and, interesting to note, it too, tries to get the cooperation of Italian independent record producers and, in fact, it already signed a pact with David Matalon, who, record-wise, handles our first-class vedette Mina.

At the same time another big record merger took place in Italy: the marriage between CBS and Ricordi, which created a strong new force on our market. Vast publicity campaigns and production of Italian material was done under the CBS label.

Recently, Walter Gurtler decided to give up keeping two separated record houses and thus closed the Gurtler company and moved everything to his other organization, Saar. So, for instance, Tony Dallara formerly tied to Gurtler has now signed a new contract with Saar. The Barclay line, formerly represented by Walter Gurtler, has now passed to RCA Italiana, while Vogue from Durium passed to Saar. Taking advantage of the discovery and success in France of songstress Francoise Hardy, pacted by Vogue, Walter Gurtler immediately started a promotional campaign on this new name, got a strong reaction, and was able to bring Francoise Hardy's Tous Les Garsons Et Les Filles to the first position on our charts, both in the French version and in Italian. Walter Gurtler kept three special promotional campaigns entitled respectively Happy Winter, Happy Spring and Sure Shots Tris, each of which was a good success in sales. Incidentally, through these promotional efforts came the new singing talent Remo Germani with his recent successful record Baci (Things).

Walter Gurtler has plans to cut versions in tIalian of some pop Warner Bros. hits to be put on our market under the WB label. This is another clear sign of a general phenomenon which involves our music commerce since about two years ago: the disappearance of foreign songs and the foreign versions on our charts, which more and more become crowded with Italian music, Italian-made records or records cut by foreign talents in Italian.

The most astonishing phenomenon of this year has been Adriano Celentano, who left his original record house, Saar, and opened his own record firm, Clan. While very often—when an artist leaves his original house—he loses popularity and his sales decrease, this time—on the contrary—Adriano Celentano saw his prominence on our market reach unmatched sales. Up to now Celentano published three singles:

1) Stai Lontana Da Me/Sei Rimasta Sola/Amami E Baciami.
2) Preghero'/Pasticcio In Paradiso.
3) Il Tangaccio/Grazie Prego Scusi.

At this writing, the three singles have sold some 1,800,000 copies, which represents a record-figure. But besides the tremendous success of his recordings, Celentano was able also to create new talents such as Ricky Gianco and Don Backy, who thanks to the expert artistic management of Adriano got very popular. But soon after his pact with Clan, Ricky Gianco left and joined Jaguar Records, a newly formed firm directed by Benito Vassura. The other boy, Don Backy, got success with Amico (Friend). The most recent recording by Adriano Celentano is La Lunga Notte (The Long Night), which will be released next Autumn.

It must be said, and stressed, that the many activities of Adriano Celentano are managed by his brother Alessandro. Together they lead two record labels, Clan and Italian Yank, one firm of music publishing, Italian Yank, which is a member of the Curci group, and a company for show productions.

At the start of this year, Rifi Records, a young and up-and-coming company, changed its address, moving into larger offices located in the center of Milan, Corso Buenos Aires 77, and not long after the president changed, too. Alberto Carisch, who opened the house along with Mr. Ansoldi, decided to leave his post at Rifi Records to work exclusively at Southern Music.

An important event for Rifi Records last year was taking over the distribution of the Clan production and it can boast of one of the largest and dynamic networks of distribution in Italy. At the same time, it was able to bring to good popularity a new name, Fred Bongusto, especially with "Amore Fermati," and Eugenia Foligatti, who took the second position at the last San Remo contest with Amor Mon Amour My Love.

Recently, Rifi entered the classical field with the representation in Italy of two catalogs, Westminster (a division of ABC-Paramount) and Delta (an English label specialized in historical re-issues).

First Durium-news of this year was its pact with Adriano Celentano for the distribution of his records abroad and up to now Durium has signed contracts with Vogue in France and in Germany and Vergara in Spain. Other contracts are forthcoming.

A joint initiative of Durium and Vogue brought Adriano Celentano twice on the stage of Olympia in Paris, and on French TV screens. This year, Durium put out the first LP by Los Marcellos Ferial, which got sudden success last summer with Cuando Calienta El Sol, and over the following months renewed with other best recordings in its South American style their first success. Their last hit record was Cuando Brilla La Luna.

At the last Cantagiro (a special kind of music festival moving through many towns of Italy) Little Tony took away the second prize while another Duriums' talent, Isabella Iannetti found her chance to expose her voice successfully.

Carisch is the record house the success of which has been tied closely—during the last three years—to the name of Peppino Di Capri, a real hot vedette of our music world. Peppino, who started with a pretty Neapolitan catalog, passed very soon to pop music in general and was in a terrific way responsible for the smash in Italy of the Twist craze. Recently, he brought to top success the American hit, Speedy Gonzales.

Carisch also distributes the Parlophon and Odeon catalogs, importing the best of the records produced by sister-companies, as happened, for instance, recently with Bossa Nova dates by Joao Gilberto and Elza Soares. Thanks to the sale during 1962 of 2,000,000 records, Carisch fills a position of importance in the Italian record industry, and a series of contracts with foreign record houses give it the opportunity to be represented in major countries abroad: the best instance of its success abroad is the recent 400,000 copies sold in Germany of St. Trope Twist by Peppino Di Capri. Carisch is just finalizing a contract with one of the most important companies of Japan.

Recently, David Matalon, the owner of Italdisc, moved again his offices into his old ones (Milan, Via Beccaria 5) and decided to give up to his own network of distribution-agents and gave his catalog to Phonogram's agents to sell it throughout Italy. He became himself an independent producer of Phonogram. Mina, the most exciting name of his catalog, had big sales recently in Germany and hopes to do much on the American market, too, thanks to the recent contract signed with MGM.

A recent rumor has it that Fonit-Cetra is looking for a new owner. As explained in former editorials Fonit Cetra was a company owned by an Italian electrical company and due to the recent nationalization of electrical energy, Fonit Cetra became State property. This event caused, of course, a situation of uncertainty in the activity of the house and the record firm's development came to a halt.

This year CGD bought 50% of the Juke Box label, founded and managed by Carlo Alberto Rossi, who can boast of one of the best, most modern recording studios available in Italy.

At the same time, CGD changed its little theatre in Galleria Del Corso (Milan) into a sound recording studio. Betty Curtis, the best female name appearing in the CGD's catalog, got strong success with Chariot and published her first German records in Germany through the local record house, Italia Schallplatten.

Now we wish to examine the situation of music publishing. It is a general opinion that publishing in Italy is becoming more and more difficult, and this for a principal reason: The always increasing difficulty in the promotion of new repertoire, either for the lack of cooperation on the part of our Radio and TV company, and, consequently, for the increase in the cost necessary to introduce the musical production on the market, or for the decrease in the number of artists able to create a hit, in view to the great number of numbers available.

Considering the costs of a promotional campaign and the few promotional facilities available to the pubbieries in comparison to the good number of direct means of promotion available to the record producers, like jukes boxes or direct campaigns with retailers, it is easy to understand that the initiative on the musical world is now in the hands of the record houses. At this moment, because of the above reasons, the help given to the record producer by the publisher, is negligible, so that, the record producer prefers for economical reasons to be "independent" or "sufficient" and for this reason many record producers created their own publishing firms.

The most outstanding case is that of RCA Italiana, and, of course, such a solution is perfectly justifiable, the promotional campaign on every record completely entrusted to the record organizations.

Considering also that sheet music sales are almost unimportant, we can deduce that the music publisher, as he was classified some years ago, is gradually losing his role on the music scene. In this situation, the only publishing firms that could maintain their prominence are the publishers with an interesting and considerable repertoire of "standard" numbers, but they also must think carefully of the future since their catalogues are about completely exploited. During the last years, music publishing has not replaced the old "standards" with new ones. Because of the few number of artists available for the launching of a hit, following the general trend, the publishers have "commissioned" special numbers to be proposed to one or to the other of the fashionable "stars." Due to the great dynamism of the record market such stars have a very short life, and being that their repertoire is strictly connected with their personality, when they disappear from the hit scene, the numbers they launched disappear with them. At this moment, considering the present situation, the indie music publisher is destined to disappear too, or he must change his policy.

He must recreate his repertoire, which is the base of his earnings, following the abstract concept of "good music" independently form the "trend" existing on the market, or from the stars and the "vedettes" available. He must give up the temptation to have a hit for the moment. It is our opinion that the music pubberies must now build again their future or they will slowly disappear. We think that the problem is perceived, and can see some signs like an "underground" trend to get back to the "melody," to the music for orchestra, which means a return to the traditional "good" music. This will recreate the repertoires which the publishers have lost, and which, along with their survival, true riches, the riches of all the music world.

As reported above, we can say that the most outstanding event of this year on the publishing field concerns the new RCA publishing firm that during the first period of its life has registered already a lot of hits. It is sufficient to point out "Come Te Non C'e' Nessuno," "La Terza Luna," "Alla Mia Eta," "Io Che Solo Te." This, of course, is partly due to RCA's promotional facilities. Another new firm has made since its debut good success: we refer to the Celentano's publishing firm Italian Yank, the fortune of which is strictly connected with the activity of his record production and with the personal success of Adriano Celentano himself.

Italian Yank, thanks to an intelligent agreement between Celentano and Gramitto Ricci, has become member of the Curci Publishing Group.

Since the purpose of this little section is limited to the presentation of new activities started on the Italian market during the year, we can't conclude our list without spending some words about the new publishing activity of Nanni Ricordi.

The property of the pubberies of the late Maestro Redi (Edizioni Musicali Redi e Canzoni Del Mare) has been transferred to Ricordi, and therefore his editorial task began with a good number of "standards" of this old catalog, but the prominence of his publishing activity belongs to him for having signed a contract with Universal Edition of Wien, to represent and exploit this catalog in Italy, continuing the work already started some months ago with the name "Musichouse Italiana." Principal cooperator of Nanni Ricordi in this activity is Bruno Pozza, who recently left the Ricordi Publishing Group.

Another interesting publishing activity will be started by Walter Gurtler, who has already formed a publishing firm, Mas Edizioni Musicali, in connection with his record organization Saar. Mas is a member of Leonardi's publishing group.

ITALY—The Past 12 Months

And now we conclude our editorial doing a speedy review of the situation of Italian production on the international market. We have noted that during the year foreign countries have strongly welcomed some of our pop talents like Adriano Celentano, Mina, Tony Dallara, Betty Curtis and so on, but foreign record firms have preferred to release new productions with these artists than use the production waxed by them for the Italian market. We have noted a deep decrease in the exportation of our original record masters all over the world, South America and Spain the only markets in which the business of licensing masters still has appreciable figures.

The same thing happened in publishing matters, and we have noted that the sub-publication of our music abroad was, until now, decreasing. In some territories like England, US, Germany and Scandinavia, it was an "extraordinary" event the conclusion of a sub-edition agreement.

The situation is better in other territories, but in any case there is a decrease in all figures concerning the exploitation abroad of our music. This phenomenon is a further confirmation of the tendency of the publishers, at least until today, to create productions strictly connected with the personality of the interpreter. This creates, of course, many difficulties in the exploitation abroad of such material. On the other hand, there is also, in our opinion, another big obstacle for the diffusion of our music: Probably due to the increase of promotional costs, and the difficulty of getting a hit, publishers are asking big advances, for the licensing of their productions in foreign countries. This is also a consequence of a certain "custom" set up by the North American publishers. Connecting both things, (the scarse suitability of a repertoire created on the personality of a star, and the big amount of money requested to conclude an agreement) we can understand the big decrease in the exploitation of Italian music abroad.

But the phenomenon is general. We have noted that such a situation is the same in Italy for foreign catalogs and consequently there's a decrease of foreign success on our charts.

We think that all over the world there is now a transition period due to domination of the recorded music over the "written" music, so that the ones who create the success are the record producer along with the artist, and the musical work is almost secondary. But, in our opinion, we think that this period is ending. We have noted an increase in the request of Italian compositions, especially for the new hits on our charts. We predict a return to melody and "good music."

Of course, now we couldn't continue without mention all the big names of our publishing editorial industry like Ricordi, Messaggerie Musicali, Curci, Leonardi, Ariston and so on, at which there are so many interesting events to demand a separate and bigger article. Let's only mention the formation in Italy of Paul Anka's firm under the name Spanka Italiana, handled by Curci, the big interest showed in the US market by Alfredo Rossi, who is signing contracts with Palace and Burlington Music, and the great dynamism of the young Franz Leonardi, who obtained during the past twelve months nine big hits.

Potential of Record Sales in Italy Greater Than Present

by Vincenzo Micocci—A&R Director of Dischi Ricordi & CBS

After the remarkable expansion of recent years, one can say that at present the Italian market is rather static. The total volume of sales remains considerably below that of other European countries. Though the per-capita income in Italy is less than in Germany, France or England, Italy's market potential is unquestionably more than the levels that have been reached at this time.

The major labels fully realize this and are carrying-out a series of studies and other endeavors in order to exploit this potential more thoroughly. They meet, however, remarkable difficulties, among which are the negligible cooperation of the State-run radio & TV system, burdensome and antiquated fiscal systems and a contract with BIEM that does not sufficiently correspond with the current market status. All this makes it difficult for price revisions and promotional undertakings needed for further expansion.

Considering the pop field in particular, a new event has taken place on the Italian market: this is the ever-increasing acceptance of local artists and repertoire. The greatest hits are Italian. Several big foreign hits have gotten recognition in Italy only through an Italian singer, and foreign artists have succeeded on the charts almost exclusively by recording their hits in Italian.

For instance, a recent look at the Italian charts showed: among the 27 best-sellers, 14 were Italian songs by Italian artists; two Italian songs by foreign singers; three foreign tunes sung in Italian by Italian artists; 5 foreign pieces sung in Italian by foreign artists; and only three foreign hits in their original versions. The majority of Italian-sung works is very significant.

Record fans do not only want to listen to songs in their own languages, but also want the opportunity of meeting foreign artists in order to understand and appreciate better their personality. It's therefore necessary for foreign singers to come to Italy at least for TV appearances and perhaps give up those high fees they usually get in the U.S. Among the top companies, CBS is just starting to act on the Italian market by having their biggest U.S. titles sung in Italian by American artists. These artists thus show a greater and greater interest in the Italian repertoire, which is often internationally exploitable.

Hit Songstress

MILAN—Caterina Spaak, who recently got a big hit with "Tous Les Garcons Et Les Filles," is shown with Vincenzo Micocci, the artistic and production director of Dischi Ricordi and CBS Records.

G. RICORDI & C. — MILAN — Bari — Basel — Berlin W. — Bruxelles — Buenos Aires — Frankfurt/Main — Genoa — Leipzig — London — Madrid — Mexico — Naples — New York — Palermo — Paris — Rio de Janeiro — Rome — Sao Paulo — Sydney — Turin — Toronto —

All over Italy, all over the world, RICORDI, the oldest musical organization, is at the disposal of music lovers. RICORDI was founded in 1808: the musical experience was born with RICORDI.

Italy's Record Market Will Expand

by GIUSEPPE ORNATO, General Manager of RCA ITALIANA

I believe in the expansion of the Italian record market.

Tomorrow's forms of entertainment will go through a deep variation thanks to the greater free time at disposal of the average Italian and to the increased standard of living.

The record will become a product of larger use, a new form of entertainment which will add to those traditional forms such as the sports and cinema and those developed in the years of the Italian "economic miracle" such as automobile excursions, television and so on.

To help this trend, the record industry has to continue the improvement of quality of both recordings and finished product (records, covers, etc.) the development of an ever efficient and capillary distribution through dealers, helped by sales through record clubs, and finally the development of new forms of publicity and promotion to make records better known to the various levels of the Italian public. To this end, the jukebox would continue to be a fundamental element, especially amongst teenageers.

Therefore if the record industry will know how to continue in this healthy manner, offering products that meet with the public's taste, our forecast will be valid that the Italian market from the present 20/22 million records may reach the sales levels of other European countries such as France (40 million), Germany (60 million), Great Britain (80 million).

At Work

SPAIN—The Past 12 Months

As expected, the past twelve months in Spain's record world were really successful, which means a great growth of sales. The market is now a little bigger because of the number of record players in homes increased this year. A big promotion is underway for record players and probably at the end of the year, there will be nearly 200,000 more phonos in homes. On most of these record players it is possible to play stereo records. There will be almost a million record players in Spain at the end of the year, including those of 78 r.p.m., not used much.

The Spain market is still-and probably will be forever—an EP market. Besides a considerable increase of LP sales-really low last year—most of the advences and progress of the market were done on EP. Some companies report a 30% sales increase. Singles sales are not good. Perhaps the reason is that Spain has not many juke boxes. Another reason is that dealers do not like singles, because they do not sell them as well as EP. Only Fonogram, Odeon and RCA continue releasing a certain number of singles. Prices are: 85 pts. for EP (1$=60 pts) and around 250 for LP's. Singles rose from 45 to 50 pts and recently Hispavox began to sell EP's for 90 pts.

EP sales figures are now higher than a year ago, but remain still low, compared with other markets. Initial releases usually consist of 500 copies. A good sale (really a hit) is the 5,000 mark. With big promotion and spending, a big hit can reach 20,000.

Recently a strong increase of LP sales was noted. Hispavox sold very well stereo and mono copies of the original soundtrack of "West Side Story" (probably the number one LP seller). Fonogram did the same with Mercury stereo albums. RCA recently released its "Colección preferente," LP series at low prices (175 pts). The labels included are Pye Golden Guinea, Vik, Victrola and Camdem. Record clubs continue their success at selling LP's by mail. These clubs are: Selecciones (Reader Digest), Club Internacional del Disco and Discorama (which sells Mercury product).

LP stereo releases get good sales. There is a hopeful future for stereo in Spain. Till now, only Fonogram, Odeon, Columbia, and Hispavox released stereo records. Most successful labels on stereo are C.B.S. (distributed by Hispavox), United Artists, Mercury, Capitol, Decca (English). Fonogram issued PPS Mercury albums with success. Belter will begin selling stereo records in October and RCA will promote in September Dynagroove Living Stereo recordings. Hispavox has the only stereo cutting plant in Spain (Ortofon).

The list of best sellers is something new in Spain. Till now, several magazines and radio programs have made popularity polls that show the popularity of a singer or of a song, but not the amount of sales. Between them we can mention Discomania, Olimpiada musical, Discobolo, Escala de la fama, Campaña de la popularidad. A few months ago, Discobolo began to make a list of best sellers every fifteen days, taking information from dealers. This survey is now the most respected hit parade of Spain.

The Festival de Madrid (May 15) was a great success. The first prize was "Enseña tus manos," and after, as follows: "Con permiso de papá," "Contigo sí," "Balada del soldado," Hasta luego, corazón." "Mucho, poco y nada," "Viejo piano," "Humo." "Definitivamente." "Medieval." "Viejo Madrid" and "Hecha en España." The songs were acquired by the publishers that organized the Festival, after the prizes were known. This summer they will have more Festivals: Benidorm (Spanish songs only) and the "Festival de la Canción Mediterránea" with songs composed by authors of France, Italy, Greece, Malta, Spain, Chipre.

Hard facts concerning the record industry were the sale of RCA installations (pressing plant, recording studio, offices) to Fonogram S.A., a new company formed by Philips and Siemens; the inauguration of new Hispavox studios, with a party featuring the Brothers Four and Los 3 Sudamericanos, both of C.B.S., now handled in Spain by Hispavox. Cash Box also met there Peter de Rougemont. As noted in the April column, another party was given by Hispavox for Goddard Lieberson, who recently visited Spain to contact Hispavox' executive members. Jimmy Johnson, from Disneyland and Villareal, from Mexico C.B.S. were also here. Saef company was incorporated to Belter.

Other label news: Cameo Parkway changed from RCA to Hispavox. Odeón began to distribute here with success the Stateside label. Belter now distributes Prosadisc and Ri-Fi sessions. MGM will be handled by Fonogram. Cubalegre distributes three new labels: Marpar, Crown and Chantecler. Vergara distributes Clan Celentano and Cetra. Zafiro is doing well with the French label Ducretet-Thomson. RCA began to handle Disc-jockey label production.

Artist news: Local artists now get better sales. Duo Dinámico still remains a top Spanish group. José Guardiola—still a top local singer—changed from HMV to German label Ariola. His first recording for Ariola is now getting good sales in the market. The new sensation, Tito Mora, reached in few months a high position among Spanish artists. Raphael, a very young singer introduced last year in the Festival de Benidorm, changed from Philips to French label Barclay. Marisol, the 15 year old songstress and film actress, signed a contract with the Zafiro label, which also signed Elder Barber. Belter got Andy Russell, Juanito Valderrama, Franz Joham (who is the most popular TV showman of Spain Dolores Abril and Estrellita Castro.

C.B.S. issued a series of hits sung in Spanish: "Blame It On The Bossa Nova" (Eydie Gorme), "Gina" (Johnny Mathis), "Go Away Little Girl" (Steve Lawrence).

Visits of international artists are now a usual matter. Top TV shows ("Amigos del lunes" from Barcelona, and "Gran parada" from Madrid) present such popular artists as Johnny Hallyday, Mina, Richard Anthony, Petula Clark, Claude Françoise, The Tokens, Domenico Modugno, Hermanos Rigual, Lucho Gatica, Luciano Tajoli, Harold Nicholas, Tony Renis, Cocki Mazzetti, Peppino de Capri, Alma Cogan, Nico Fidenco, Emilio Pericoli, Jayne Mansfield, Tony Dallara, Donna Hightower, Lou Bennet, Gilbert Becaud, Sacha Distel and others. Top English team, Cliff Richard, The Shadows and Frank Ifield, were in Barcelona recording in Spanish. Adam Faith spent his holidays in Barcelona. Norrie Paramor produced the recording of Cliff and The Shadows. Nana Mouskouri and The Platters got success on his performances.

Best selling artists are still Elvis Presley, Paul Anka, Johnny Hallyday, Gilbert Becaud, Connie Francis, Ray Charles and Cliff Richard. The successful careers of Françoise Hardy (today one of the most popular artists in Spain) and Italian Ennio Sangiusto began just a few months ago. Among the Spaniards, Dúo Dinámico, José Guardiola, Manolo Escobar. Paquito Jerez, Joselito, Sarita Montiel and Lolita Garrido continue their success. Singers of "the new wave" are really doing well: Rocío Dúrcal, Raphael, Mike Ríos, Tito Mora and Michel are among the best of local singers.

The twist still has great commercial power, together with rock and roll and the bossa nova. A little less popular are the madison and tamouré. However, teenagers—they are the ones that buy records—also like sentimental songs (Presley ballads sell well). Spanish folk music sells well among tourists who come to Spain for a sunny holiday. Jazz is promoted now by some labels, including RCA, Odeon and Hispavox.

SWEDEN—
The Past 12 Months

1963 has, so far, been a good year as well as a bad. Unfortunately, when looking at sales figures, the impression of a bad year is the most dominating viewpoint.

To mention pleasant things first, certain labels, either new labels or labels which have been on the market for some time but without any particular success, have suddenly appeared on the charts. Among the newcomers is CBS, which got a top seller from the very start with Eydie Gorme's "Blame It On The Bossa Nova." Among labels which have been at the market for some years without making too much noise, is Warner Bros. Records, which suddenly came on with "Rhythm Of The Rain" with The Cascades, a record long on the Swedish charts. It should be noticed, however, that Warner Bros. has done better on LP sales, where there has been WB albums among the best sellers several times.

Verve was considered too much of a jazz label to have much chances in the pop music field, at least until "Desafinado" with Stan Getz and Charlie Byrd began to sell in the middle of January and held a position among the top ten for nine weeks. Also the LP album titled "Desafinado" was a top seller of its kind, and as single, EP or LP, "Desafinado" looks like an evergreen that will never stop selling.

Stateside, the EMI label, has also been a frequent guest at the charts in 1963, starting with "Remember Then" with The Earls, and later with Dion's "Sandy".

The flip side of this medal is the bad sales figures that make nobody particularly happy. When a record happens to reach a number ten or nine position on the Swedish charts these days, it means it has sold better than many other records, but it doesn't mean that the record manufacturer is getting rich on what's coming in. It might be open to question if the manufacturer will get particularly rich even if the record moves up to a number one position in the charts.

There was a time when record manufacturers invited the press to parties when Gold Disks was awarded to artists after the sale of 100,000 records, but it is almost 18 months since last time the press had to worry about such an invitation. Should the present trend continue, it is dubious if there'll be any more Gold Disk parties, unless the sales figures for a Gold Disk is changed from present 100,000 to about 60,000, which very well might be compared with a 100,000 sale in the good old days.

JANUARY

CBS label debuts in Finland, handled by Oy Musiikki-Fazer-Musik Ab . . . A Scandinavian sales conference for Pye Records takes place in Stockholm in the middle of the month . . . Swedish publisher Stig Anderson takes over the catalogues of the California-based Four Star Sales for Scandinavia . . . Norway's famous Chat Noir Theatre in Oslo destroyed by fire in the end of the month . . . Top sellers on records in Denmark, Norway and Sweden was Elvis Presley with "Return To Sender," while Brian Hyland on Karusell did well with "Sealed With A Kiss" in Finland.

FEBRUARY

Two new releases all over Scandinavia in the beginning of the month, "Blame It On The Bossa Nova" on CBS and "From A Jack To A King" on Karusell turned out to be unexpectedly big top seller immediately after the release . . . Stockholm-based Cupol Records introduced a new label, Nashville, on which is released local recordings suitable for the international market . . . It's time for the annual Song Festivals, Norway choices "Solhverv" (Turn of the sun), Sweden "En gång i Stockholm" (Once Upon A Time In Stockholm), Finland "Muistojeni laulu" (Song Of Memories) and Denmark brings "Dansevise" (Dance Song). The latter is winning the Eurovision Song Festival in London in March . . . Sale of the UNO record, "All Star Festival" starts with one of the biggest TV shows ever produced in Sweden . . . "Return To Sender" with Elvis Presley on RCA Victor still on top of the charts in Denmark and Norway, while Sweden prefers "Stand Up" with Michael Cox on HMV and Finland has the local copyright "Satumaa" with Reijo Taipale on Scandia as top seller.

MARCH

Strikes becomes the latest fashion. A big strike stops almost all activities in Finland, including railways, Post Offices, etc., and Sweden get the most unpopular strike the country ever had, the employees at the alcohol factories starts a strike that drains Sweden in no time at all . . . Record people all over Scandinavia was discussing the bad business and what to do about it . . . Denmark won praise and glory at the Eurovision Song Festival in London with its "Dansevise," a great personal triumph for the performers, Grethe and Jörgen Ingmann. But as usual with those winners, there was a minimum of money in the song itself and the Metronome record with the winning song was a disappointment saleswise . . . British vocalist Lorne Lesley, now living in Norway, introduces her own label, Lorne Records, and is being accused for breach of contract with Viking Music A/S . . . The charts are topped by "Ta med ud og fisk" "We're Gonna Go Fishin') with Gitte on HMV in Denmark, "Summer Holiday" with Cliff Richard on Columbia in Norway, "I Saw Linda Yesterday" with Dickey Lee on Philips in Sweden and "Manzanilla" with Lill-Jörgen on Columbia in Finland.

APRIL

The strike in Finland comes to an end and business life wakes up trying to repair as much as possible of the damage caused by the strike . . . American label Parliament is introduced in Norway by Egil Monn Iversen A/S . . . So called Shadows-orchestras finally hits Finland, small teenage groups with expensive electrical equipment specializing in Rock and Twist music. The Sounds is the name of the first Finnish group, and following the example from abroad, they're 'modernizing' an old folk song and get a Hit that last for months . . . The Tamouré, a dance originating from Tahiti, finds the way to Scandinavia . . . "Summer Holiday" with Cliff Richard on Columbia is topping the charts in Denmark and Norway, "Tango d'Amore" with Rocco Granata on Sonet is the top seller in Finland, while Sweden is hit by Paul and Paula on Philips with their "Hey Paula."

MAY

Hede Nielsen's Fabrikker in Copenhagen introduces a new label, Arena . . . Jazz is something to believe in, says Henrik von Denffer of Siemens' record dept. in Helsinki, which company has a lot of jazz labels in Finland . . . Pat Boone gives concert in Copenhagen during his European tour . . . Two record companies in Norway, Viking Music A/S and Manu Music A/S joins together with an artists agency known as Viking-Manu A/S . . . A Norwegian record, "The Wall," dealing with the wall dividing Berlin into two parts. A well done record, but harshly criticized for being "an attempt to make money on a human tragedy" . . . LP sales are growing in Norway, everybody is reporting . . . "All Star Festival," the UNO record, makes unbreakable records everywhere, and the LP sold more than 170,000 in Sweden where no LP ever sold more than 40,000. . . . The charts in Scandinavia are topped by "Summer Holiday" with Cliff Richard on Columbia in Denmark, "Emma"—a local copyright—by The Sounds on Fontana in Finland, "From A Jack To A King" with Ned Miller on Karusell in Norway and "How Do You Do It" with Gerry and The Pacemakers on Columbia in Sweden.

JUNE

Italian label Durium to Sonet Grammofon AB in Sweden after having been handled by Karusell Grammofon AB . . . June brings the summer to Scandinavia and if business had been bad before, it certainly didn't become better in the fine weather . . . Rumours said that German Polydor had bought Karusell, but Simon Brehm, head of Karusell, said it was only an agreement of cooperation in order to reduce the administrative costs for both companies . . . The IFPI meeting at Barcelona, Spain, is attended by representatives from one record company in each of the four countries, Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden . . . Los Paraguayos, touring Finland, is presented a Gold Disk by UNO for "All Star Festival" which has sold more than one million records . . . Norsk Phonogram A/S introducing a new local label, Cue Records, in Norway . . . Lennart Reuterskiöld of publishing house Reuter & Reuter in Stockholm back from Cairo with an Egyptian top seller in his luggage . . . EMI is doing fine in Scandinavia with Cliff Richard's "Lucky Lips" topping the charts in Denmark, Norway and Sweden. "Emma" with The Sounds on Fontana continue as top seller in Finland.

JULY

The first record distributors begin their activity in Scandinavia, when Grammofonbolagens Distributionscentral AB is started by Knäppupp, Metronome and Sonet, and distributing the products of three other manufacturers . . . Also Denmark gets its first distributor when Metronome found Faellesekspeditionen, handling the distribution for Metronome and Hartkopps Musikforlag (Pye Records in Denmark) and, starting from Aug. 1, Tono, one of the leading independent manufacturers . . . It is still summer, but with millions of Scandinavians having their annual vacation, the weather is far from what it was last month . . . The record sale is unchanged, it means, just as bad as before . . . "Lucky Lips" with Cliff Richard on Columbia is still number one seller in Denmark, Norway and Sweden and The Sounds on Fontana continues topping the charts in Finland with the local copyright "Emma."

CANADA – The Past Twelve Months

AUGUST 1962

Tamla Motown line added to the Phonodisc distribution set-up in Canada. Company also adds the Joy line.

Bobby Curtola continues strenuous promotion campaign on "I Cry And Cry," Tartan in this country and released in the U.S. on DelFi. Promotion trips took the young singer throughout both countries.

Jane Morgan appeared in Ottawa for Central Canada Exhibition and took part in numerous promotion schemes, including a complete broadcast day devoted to her Kapp records —"Jane Morgan Day" on Ottawa's CKOY.

CHFI-AM made its debut in the Toronto markets with fifty thousand watts on a dawn to dusk basis, following a good music policy.

Bob Martin hosted reception for Tony Bennett's great performance at The O'Keefe Center. The trade was buzzing over the outstanding success enjoyed by Bobby Vinton's Epic blockbuster, "Roses Are Red," soaring over the 100,000 Canadian sales mark.

The Compo Company added the Colpix line to their distribution set-up in Canada.

Capitol announced the signing of popular Canadian singer Tommy Hunter and the release of a new album produced in this country featuring Frank Bogart and his Orchestra.

The Beau Marks, outstanding group from Montreal, continued to pack 'em in at all their P.A.'s. "The Tender Years," their most recent Quality hit in Canada was officially released in the U.S. under the Rust banner.

Frank Ifield's single, "I Remember You" begins to create tremendous sales action for Capitol.

SEPTEMBER 1962

The sales pot began to bubble for Sparton's Sammy Davis Jr., release of "What Kind Of Fool Am I."

"Patches" by Dickie Lee on Smash (Mercury) began to make a strong chart push from right out of left field.

Nat Cole's "Ramblin' Rose" LP follow up to the single of the same name debuts and is declared can't miss merchandise by the trade at large.

Fred Roy's new country label, Acadia, introduces some top Canadian C&W talent with excellent sales results. Jack Silvers debut album for the label, "Sing A Country Song" well received by spinners and customers.

Connie Francis continues to lead the way for record sales at Quality. Her MGM waxing of "Vacation" was among the firm's strongest sellers throughout the Summer. Meanwhile, the charming Miss Francis proved to be a triple market threat with a French language waxing of "Jamais" (album and single) that knocked 'em dead in French-speaking Canadian markets, while her "Country Music Connie Style" became an instant best seller with both pop and country music fans.

Deejay Jim Turner debuts on Montreal's CKGM, making the Montreal scene from Portland, Me.

Lucien "Frenchy" Jaraud, CJMS-Montreal spinner called upon by rioting prisoners in Montreal-area prison to act as go-between with prison officials.

Al Alberts visits Cash Box during Ottawa night club stand, telling of plans to revive the Four Aces' sound on a vocal treatment of the now instrumental revival, "Fly Me To The Moon."

Quality Records take credit for introducing Bossa Nova trend to Canadian music scene through early exposure in Toronto market of Stan Getz-Charlie Byrd LP, "Jazz Samba" on Verve, over CKFH by morning personality, Phil McKeller. MEXICO—The Past 12 Months

The record scene in México during the past twelve months has changed little from the past year. The "new wave" with modern rhythms like rock and roll, twist, mashed potatoes, bossa nova and others have lost some popularity because folk music in its dress as "bolero-ranchero," and it looks like the tropical rhythm wants to get on the top again. In the last few weeks, a lot of trio recording have been released and it seems like a new music trend is coming very soon. Anyhow, the new wave with its big stars like Enríque Guzmán, César Costa, Angélica María, Los Rebeldes del Rock, Oscar Madrigal, La Sonora Santanera, Mayté, Alberto Vázquez, Manolo Muñoz, Javier Vega, Dyno, Fabricio, Los Locos del Rítmo and many others are still very strong.

American stars like Elvis Presley, Paul Anka, Connie Francis, Pat Boone, Frank Sinatra, Doris Day, etc., are not popular at this moment in México because radio stations do not want to play them any more because it leads to poor ratings. Only some orchestras like Ray Conniff, Billy Vaughn, Lawrence Welk and Al Caiola are being heard on the airwaves.

The bolero ranchero has such big idols as Jose Alfredo Jiménez, Javier Solís, Alvaro Zermeño, Lucha Villa, El Charro Avitia, María Elena Sandoval, Cuco Sánchez, Miguel Aceves Mejía, Lola Beltrán, Amalia Mendoza. There are also some newcomers.

The night life in México has gone down because of a Government decision to close the second class night clubs at one o'clock in the morning and the first class cabarets at four o'clock. The second class night clubs are always more popular because the prices are cheaper and you get more fun, but if you close those places at one o'clock the people don't enjoy themselves as much and seem to prefer to remain at home watching TV. You also can add that the musicians work three hours less than they used to and therefore earn less money. Another thing introduced in the last twelve months in México was the employment of foreign musical tracks to accompany the vocalists instead of producing these musical backgrounds in Mexico. This practice isn't very popular now, but it is another problem the musicians have to face. The same thing is happening on TV, where the artists prefer to "mime" their voices with their own records.

About the visit of popular foreign artists in the last twelve months, one can name such figures as Benny Goodman, Agostinho Dos Santos, Emilio Pericoli, Sonia and Miriam, Paul Anka, Darren McGavin, Oscar Peterson and some others.

Other important events: the deaths of orchestra conductors and composers Cuco Valtierra and Luis Arcaraz; the founding of the "Mexican Association of Phonograph Records" by all the Mexican recording companies, the introduction of the Bossa Nova rhythm with no success. the "First National Mexican Song Festival," where more than 600 compositions were registered, with the winner Federico Baena's song "Ay Cariño," the resignation of Mike Hazzard as president of RCA Victor, with his place taken by Pietro Baccari. who was replaced by Bernard C. Ness, the international success of Mexican song "El Pecador" composed by Rubén Fuentes, the separation of Sonia López from her Sonora Santanera. both of them the best sellers in México in the last twelve months, the change of label made by young idol César Costa from Orefeon to RCA, the debut in México of two new recording companies, Discos Universales and Velvet, the resignation of Paco de la Barrera as A&R man of Orfeon Records, the international successes by Mexican artists like Hermanos Castro, los 11 hermanos Zavala, Los Violines mágicos de Arturo Romero, Andy Russell, Enríque Guzmán, Las Mary Jets, Marco Antonio Muñíz, Juan García Esquival, César Costa, Miguel Aceves Mejía, Lola Beltrán, Los Loud Jets, La Sonora Santanera, Tino Contreras and many others. México is still the country where every Latin American artist wants to succeed to get a real international name.

The best record sellers in the past twelve months are:
El Nido
Al Di La
El Ladron
Llegó borracho el borracho,
Cosas
Pa todo el año
El Pecador
Corre Sansón
Ay Cariño
La Historia de Tommy El Mar
Speedy Gonzales
Ese Beso
Ven que te quiero
Edi Edi
Vagar entre sombras
Cuando Valverás
El Gran Tomás
Dame felicidad

JAPAN —

Development of Japan's music art in recent years is quite beyond imagination of any foreign people. Its level is quite high. In record industry, six recording companies, Nippon Victor, Nippon Columbia, Toshiba, King, Nippon Grammophon and Teichiku, each represents many foreign masters, totally over forty labels. In the peak month of the record sale, over 100 LP's (10 inch & 12 inch) and over 150 singles are released and sometimes our fans and retail sellers are confused. Also, the sale of stereo is increasing with rapid curve since last year, which is beyond expectation of the key personnels of recording companies. To back up this situation, stereo player makers have been spurring the sales competition. But, one exceptance is the EP records, which do not sell at all compared with LP's. The standard retail price of an imported record is as follows:

12 inch LP	Monoral	1,500.- Yen
"	Stereo	1,800.- Yen
10 inch LP	Monoral	1,000.- Yen
"	Stereo	1,300.- Yen
8 inch EP (single)	Monoral	330.- Yen
"	Stereo	500.- Yen

The film records in our record world can not be disregarded. In '61 and '62, so many of the book publishers launched this material. The price was very cheap and it seemed successful. But, the dissatisfaction in the sound and the lack in distribution route caused many of the companies to stop production and sale. Now, in '63, it is not so vigorous. The major part of this film record is the single disk made of vinyl, in which usually eight compositions of Japan's bands of top class artists are included, on sale at book stores in the form of folio.

The strata of our record customers are divided roughly into four, classic, American pops, foreign pops and Japanese popular songs. In these few years, the position of Japanese popular, which had enjoyed overwhelming superiority, has been replaced by American pops. Among other foreign music, Italian songs are coming up to the French chansons. The result of popularity research of foreign pop singers done this year by Music Life magazine shows following order.

Male Singer

1. Elvis Presley
2. Neil Sedaka
3. Nat King Cole
4. Ray Charles
5. Cliff Richard

Female Singer

1. Connie Francis
2. Little Eva
3. Helen Shapiro
4. Brenda Lee
5. Ella Fitzgerald

Regarding vocal groups:

1. Paul and Paula
2. Four Seasons
3. Platters
4. Brothers Four
5. Cascades

The Best Ten of the first semi annual term of this year is coming out as listed here.

1. The Longest Day—Mitch Miller (Columbia) — Sub-Pub./EMP, Shinko
2. Hey Paula—Paul & Paula (Philips)—Sub-Pub./Shinko
3. Shelly—Four Seasons (Vee Jee) —Sub-Pub./Toshiba
4. Knock On Your Door—Eddie Hodges (Cadence) — Sub-Pub./ Aberbach
5. I Can't Stop Lovin' You—Ray Charles (ABC)—Sub-Pub./Tone
6. Young Ones—Cliff Richard (Odeon)—Sub-Pub./IMP
7. Rhythm of The Rain—The Cascades (WB)—Sub-Pub./Folster
8. L'eclips—Colletto Tempia (RCA) —Sub-Pub./Yamaha
9. I'm Gonna Be Warm This Winter—Connie Francis (MGM)— Sub-Pub./Shinko
10. Locomotion—Little Eva (London)—Sub-Pub./Taiyo

Many first class foreign artists visited this year more than before, and made successful performances at well accommodated stages. Some troubles were caused by the limit of foreign payment controled by our government. The major artists who visited here this year are:

*Platters
Nat King Cole
*Gilbert Becaud
Art Braky and Jazz Messengers
Delta Rhythm Boys
Golden Gate
*Caterina Valente
Louis Armstrong
*Count Basie
*Theronious Monk Chubby Checker
Lionel Hampton
*Mantovani
Craudio Bulra
Patty Page
Marcel Amond
*Cannonball Aderley
Habana Cuban Boys

(*especially excellent box office record)

The biggest highlight of this year, after all, is the smash hit of Ueo Muite Aruko (Sukiyaki) in America and other foreign countries. This is the first Japanese song (sung by a Japanese singer) ranked in American Hit Parade, with the exceptance of Gomennasai (not by a Japanese).

The record of this Ueo Muite Aruko had long been charted in Japan's Hit Parade last year, and the big success of it in foreign countries has acted as strong incitement to our music world. Undoubtedly some of Japan's hits to follow it up will be sent out to world's market in the latter semi annual term of this year.

AUSTRALIA—The Past 12 Months

In addition to this being the wonderful and exciting occasion of the 21st birthday of Cash Box, July is also the beginning of our new financial year. Speaking with some publishing and record company executives recently, we discovered that the year which ended on June 30th was, to all intents and purposes, a fairly satisfactory year of business without setting the world on fire. There is still a great deal of lost ground to be regained in both fields (recording and publishing) but it seems that the tide has turned and is now favoring much better trading conditions. The nation's economy has become more settled and manufacturing and trading conditions are showing a return to something like normal again.

There is still much to be done to boost sales of records and music; but it is heartening to report that the untiring efforts of the trade in general are beginning to pay off. The greatest strides still to be made are on the album field which has been a difficult one over the past few years. Many people in the trade still firmly believe that the major problem is that albums are generally too costly at consumer level—yet, there are many albums in the top price bracket that enjoy healthy sales. One prominent man in the trade said recently "There's nothing wrong with the record business that the right record won't fix." There's a whole lot of meat in this statement, but we all know just how elusive the "right record" can be. For instance, last year EMI recorded the local Australian cast album of "The Sound Of Music" after the Broadway cast set had been locally released. There were "raised eyebrows" from some sections of the trade when it became known that EMI planned to go ahead with the project, but it turned out to be the "right record" and was one of Australia's best-selling albums of last year. Admittedly, records like this are hard to come by, but the fact still remains that in the case of "The Sound Of Music" (which was one of the most expensive albums ever recorded in Australia), EMI took the risk and won. One of the most disturbing features of the album business in this country right now (as it has been for many months) is the influx of low-priced sets. These aren't just "low-priced"; many people describe them as "suicide-priced"—suicide for the record companies. Let's face the fact that the record industry the world over has been stuck with low-priced products for years; there's nothing new about them. But, there are "low-priced" records and "low-priced" records. Some of the albums being marketed here are retailing at less than 1/3 the price of regular mono and stereo packages; and many of these records feature name and near-name artists. This whole business is causing grave concern to industry leaders, and it is believed that the matter of low, low-priced records will soon be discussed by the Record Manufacture's Association. But there is little that can be done about it on an industry basis since the Association has in the past allowed that the price structure of records is a purely domestic affair, and this leaves each company free to set its own price tag; perhaps the Assocation should make this a vital part of it's functions.

The Association is designed primarily to maintain a close and harmonious relationship with other sections of the industry (publishers, dealers, etc.) and to set standards that will keep the industry on an even keel. But what better to keep the industry on an even keel than standardized price ranges? The whole future of any industry or business depends almost entirely on a sensible and predetermined pricing policy that will keep the custmers coming and the industry alive. Of course, at the same time it is important to have slight price reductions and/or increases to stimulate competition and attract future business. However, the pricing "war" as applied to the record trade as it now stands is nothing short of a "slaughter" that must spell "the end" for someone if allowed to continue unchecked.

It is fairly widely believed in the trade that a price reduction (particularly in albums) is long overdue and it seems inevitable that this will come about, but it will take a little time yet. The average retail price for top-quality albums is 52/6, which is around $5.50 in American currency. It will be readily seen that this is a high figure in comparison to current ruling prices in many other countries. Australia, with its small population (10½ million) spread over such a huge area (little short of that of the US) cannot develop record business and flourish while consumer prices are so high, many believe. Perhaps a general reduction to 45/- for albums would be a reasonable figure to begin with in an effort to build store traffic and new consumer interest.

Regardless of how we feel about these low, low-priced products, the trade faced with the plain fact that these records are selling even if they are damaging the rest of the industry. Those looking at this whole business at close range for some time now find that consumers are asking embarrassing questions about the manufacturer regarding low priced disks. Such things as "Why are these LP's being sold at about 1/3 the price of others when they are all the same type and size?" are being constantly brought up to dealers; and in most cases the dealer is hard-pressed to come up with a truly satisfactory answer. One thing about low-prices is that they do and must increase consumer action, and when he finds he can't get what he wants at budget prices the consumer is then likely to turn to higher-priced records to satisfy his needs.

THE LOCAL RECORD

Probably the brightest side of the record and publishing trades in Australia over the past few years has been the birth and rapid growth of the locally produced record. Just a few short years ago it was almost impossible to give away a local disk; but these days they are really selling equally as well (better in many cases) as anything from overseas.

When the local recording started out in a small and quiet way with a few singles that did little more than cause a few caustic comments, it was a discouraging sign to all. But these companies which were first on the scene in the re-birth of the local record kept at it in spite of all the "knockers." Greater efforts were made, more time was spent on production, new studios and equipment were installed, and the local product took on a new and respected place in the trade. From these humble beginnings the Australian record and artist has won a place alongside their overseas counterparts. Nearly all record companies (Festival, EMI W&G, Radio Corporation, Australian Record Company) have a heavy release schedule of local products and it is believed that Philips (which has from time to time produced local disks) and RCA is now taking a "hard look" at the local field with a view to entering it along with the other majors.

The chief action in the local field is still in singles, but it is heartening to note that there is a continually increasing output of packaged goods featuring local artists. With this record growth there has come an automatic boost in the publishing of Australian songs which, in turn, has resulted in a vast improvement in the quality of local compositions. Radio stations and disk jockeys have noted this overall quality lift in the local product and are now happy and keen to program Australian material. The whole operation is one of quality and cooperation from all concerned, with the result that the Australian recording artist has never had it better, and the Australian record has reached new heights in popularity not only here, but overseas as well. Some record company executives believe that the future of the industry in Australia lies in the local product, and if the present trend continues this could well be the case. We don't for one minute suggest this could happen within a matter of a few years, but from a long-range viewpoint it is certainly more than a possibility.

Australia Disturbed—

After what must be considered as a trying period for all concerned, we find that most companies in Australia have finished the financial year 1962-63 with far better sales figures on the slate than for the previous fiscal period.

However rather than being jubilant over the increased sales and production, the record industry as a whole in a recent survey, seemed almost hesitant and doubtful about certain trends appearing in the trade at this time. Such practices as the importation of large quantities of LP's at almost give away prices, dumping of surplus stock by defunct record companies, selling of deleted material by most major companies, record clubs seemingly flourishing, discounting at retail level by record dealers, all these practices are casting an uncertain shadow over the LP market for both now and the immediate future. Just how the legitimate LP price can be maintained and the quality of this product kept on a worthwhile level are subjects of many, many policy making top brass meetings throughout the trade right now.

Importation of low priced products is causing havoc among the trade. Several importers have overstepped themselves and no longer exist, but the disturbing feature is that many thousands of LP's are imported into the country by fly-by-night importers not connected with the trade but only intent on a fast turnover. Such strange conventions as copyright seem to be overlooked as there seems to be no attempt to use the usual clearances etc. on many low priced imported LP's seen in many places in Australia. This fact in its self is placing the Australian manufacturer at a disadvantage because of their obligation to the copyright act and the local music owners with whom they associate and live alongside not only now, but in years to come.

Several efforts by local Australian companies to produce and market super low price singles and albums have met with lukewarm reception by the public. The basic fact to understand in this question is that the average wage in Australia is approximately $40-$60; this range probably represents the earning power of a very large slice of the record buying public in this country, the same bracket would in the United States be $90-$120; therefore the $1.98 LP in the States represents approximately 1/60th of the weekly wage, therefore we must seek an LP equal to 1/60th of the Australian wage or approximately $1. Now with a population of eleven million, wide spread in an area the size of the US, the problem of marketing an LP for $1 is quite a sizeable one, as can readily be realized, and yet until this wage to product ratio is reached, one cannot expect to see the low price record have the success that it has enjoyed in the United States. Likewise with regular priced LP's these too suffer through a heavy price structure and are burdened like all records in Australia with a 25% sales tax at the point of last wholesale price. Many many times does one hear people in the middle wage bracket exclaim "that with regular priced LP's the price they are, one thinks before one buys a record these days." Probably the recent series of articles by Cash Box and in particular the articles by the Australian Cash Box representative on the perplexity of the Australian manufacturer in relation to the extraordinary advances and guarantees asked for by U. S. companies for catalog representation has been responsible for bringing this situation before the notice of the more seriously minded American record executive. With a situation on LP products as previously outlined in this article one can imagine the chagrin of the average record producer in this country when faced with a demand for X thousand of dollars on the line before we start, with no say at all in the selection of artists or the choice of material recorded by the originating company. Many Australian companies found that the number of saleable LP's received in any given twelve month period was subject to some queries on the wisdom of weighing oneself down with a handicap of a big advance. It is doubtful if any company objects to paying a realistic advance against an LP that it selects from an overseas catalog as being suitable to market in Australia with more than a sporting chance to recoup the advance and go on to earn good money for the overseas company. But the policy of paying out money on LP's not even recorded and sight unseen is a particularly onerous one to a legitimate record manufacturer in this country and has been the direct result of more than one failure of a catalog to obtain success here, for to imagine that one simply pays the advance, feeds a tape in one end of a box and turns a handle and the records are sold with the profits coming out another shoot, is obviously what some overseas operations feel happens. Forgotten is the affiliates' investment in printing blocks, cover stock, marketing costs, all these costs can be glossed over so long as the advance is big and fat.

The rather poor quality of U.S. product en masse to appeal to the Australian market has assisted fantastically the sales appeal of the locally produced Australian product to such a degree that the percentage of Australian produced singles and LP's that achieve chart status and success in this country will soon swing the balances over and the position will be that Australian artists will have a far greater sales power than the imported product. Steadily, but surely this balance of power on the local scene is changing and alert A & R staff are well aware of this and are watching with interest this revolution as it happens. Australian artists' are accepted throughout the world and hardly a week goes by but an Australian artist's record can be found riding high on some international chart. In the light of the previous thoughts on advances and guarantees it hardly needs much explaining to understand where an A & R man would sooner spend his cash. This big, big point of the power of the Australian artist on both the Australian record scene and the international scene is worthy of sincere thought by any U.S. company which plans to affiliate here with an Australian Company.

Hard, hard is the mood of the U.S. Race Music, so called R & B that is so evident on the U.S. charts. This music is probably the hardest music to sell in Australia today and there are very little sign of its acceptance after the last twelve months. Chart action by this type of music does not indicate sales. Several record A & R executives when questioned have almost despaired to get these records rolling. Generally speaking the "Bossa Nova," "Limbo," "Twist" etc., to name a few speciality dances, have not caused more than a slight flurry on the market soon to fade out with little lasting effect. The "Tamoure" at present is doing its bit to enthuse people in the northern states is not catching to the extent of being big. The "Surf" sound has done some good business, but in winter time it is hard to enthuse about Surf and its devotees are usually up in the mountains this time of year riding the ski trails.

ARGENTINA – The Past Twelve Months

If 1961-1962 had been a difficult year for the Argentine record industry, the past twelve months, from July 1962 to June 1963 have been really critical. The growing fall of the market, started in March 1962, with considerable cuts in sales, thus putting several companies in bad financial situation. It must be said that a big part of this is owed to the general situation of the country, and the record industry has been no exception of the rule. However, many observers consider that little has been done during the past twelve months to improve commercialization of records, and of course the two price increases that became effective during this period didn't help. Standard LP's, which cost 455 pesos ($3.50) jumped to 545 pesos ($3.95) on July 1st. For comparison purposes, we may note that the dollar exchange rate rose only 8 pesos (from 130 to 138 pesos).

In spite of these price increases, the average customer spends now less on records, because of the great availability of "promotional" albums, an idea started by Columbia (now CBS) a few years ago. These "promotional" LP's sell for about 390 pesos ($2.82) and contain selections of pop, folk and even tango music, pressed, recorded and packed with the same quality used for standard albums. The most starting experience was made by RCA early in 1963, when it released a selectional bum ("El Club del Clan") priced at only 199 pesos ($1.44), backed by heavy TV promotion. This album reached the highest sale for a single LP, and is still selling, having passed the 90,000 mark. Afterwards, RCA put on sale another one, which also sold very well, but the $1.99 line has been discontinued, since the diskeries have agreed to price "promotionals" at 395 pesos. The importance of this part of the business is appreciated considering that there are always five or six low priced albums in the Top Ten LP lists.

The critical situation hasn't stopped the expansion plans of several diskeries. Young Tonodisc added still two more lines to its representation, Westminster and Command, and has recently released de-luxe albums containing classical music. Microfon has started Cadence releases, with good results: the first three singles got into the charts. Famous (Ariel) has released several EMI recordings, with special license. Odeon started Liberty and Warner Bros. releases, while Sicamericana is now representing Colombian diskery Fuentes and Mexican Gamma. CBS is now releasing, under its label, waxings made by Ricordi in Italy and Hispavox in Spain. Disc Jockey plans to release several Sono-Radio (Peru) records, while Tonodisc, in the singles field, has tried successfully a couple of Kapp releases.

The top newcomer has been Producciones Fermata, who started operating last year, with several interesting representations. The twist craze gave Fermata a good opportunity, since one of its label is Chubby Checker's Cameo. The arrangements made with RGE of Brazil and Seeco of USA gave Fermata a nice catalogue. PF works on a production basis (records presed and sold by RCA) and is the first one of this type. Several other new diskeries (Flamingo, Fonosúr) are still in the development stage. One closed, Dimsa Argentina, after operating in the red during two years.

The best sellers lists reveal a growth of force of local products, from folk music and tango to local twists, headed by Palito Ortega, who hit the charts with nearly all his waxings. Top folk tune has been "Paloma," while the biggest tango clickings have been "Porque la Quise Tanto," a steady seller, and now "Frente al Mar." Instrumental hits have nearly disappeared, and only Bert Kaempfert and Lawrence Welk have hit consistently the lists. Spanish versions (excepting original versions) seem unavoidable. As before, Anka, Sedaka and Venezolan chanter Enrique Guzman have been tops, while Brazilian Joao Gilberto gained very much with his visit in October. During the last month, Eydie Gorme and afterwards Edoardo Vianello became strong chart riders in very few days with "Blame it on the Bossa Nova" and "Guarda Come Dondolo," which got to the upper places in very little time. Further records by these artists will show their consistency.

From the publishing point of view, the trends are the same shown in 1961-62: the high advance payments asked by American publishers have cut down the local interest on these tunes; European material is preferred if its cost is not too high, and local products, which have proved to be commercially useful in Europe, are stimulated. The biggest publishers are now making arrangements regarding their local products with pubberies of Italy, Spain and France, and some other European markets, and don't find too much trouble to sell their songs. Some pubberies are also negotiating the rights of foreign tunes for other Latin American countries; this practice is restricted because of the difficulty to get royalty payments in South American countries outside Argentina and Brazil.

Several local artists have started European trips lasting months and even years. In general they base their operation in Spain, which offers good contracts for Latin American artists, and make trips to France, Italy and other countries. Paraguayan artists Los Tres Sudamericanos, vocal trio Los TNT, musician and arranger Waldo de los Rios are some of the names.

There has been a very interesting technical trend during this period: a fast standardization to 33 rpm. Nowadays, there are practically only two sizes of records: 7" and 12", and all are 33 rpm. The single 45 rpm has disappeared (in fact, it really never caught in Argentina) and very small quantities of 78 rpm records are being pressed for country customers. The trouble for some pressers is what to do with their 78 rpm raw material. The quality of pressing has improved in some cases; in others, dealers have complained that there are too many defective records. This has happened with some of the low priced rereleases of old records.

The stereo field hasn't improved very much, due to the high cost of stereo equipment. Although there are cheap sets (from 10,000 pesos) ($72) in general stereo music lovers don't like them, and prefer equipment priced at 50 or 70 thousand pesos ($350 to $550), difficult to afford. Stereo outings have been increasing steadily, but sales are far from impressive.

Regarding the future, the industry hopes that a stabilization will follow the recent elections, and this will bring better days for the record people in Argentina.

BRAZIL—Past Twelve Months

The most important event concerning Brazilian music and, consequently, the Brazilian record industry over the past year, was the Bossa Nova wave that invaded several foreign countries. The Carnegie Hall Festival at the end of 1962 called the world's attention to this new Brazilian rhythm, especially in Europe. Joao Gilberto is a consistent chart rider in Italy and compositions signed by Antonio Carlos Jobim, Carlos Lyra, Ronaldo Boscoli, Roberto Menescal, Vinicius de Moraes and many others are being waxed all over the world.

The industry itself has suffered in recent months due to the impact of a new policy adopted by the Government concerning the restriction of credit. The Banks are operating under severe controls and that affects deeply industrial and commercial activities in general and partticularly the "luxury" ones, like the record industry. With the sales decreasing and the expense level going up every day, labels faced a crisis. June, however, proved to be a solid sales month, allowing for optimistic predictions for upcoming months.

Various artists deserve special mention for their activity during the past 12 months. They are the following: Moacyr Franco, TV and radio comedian on Copacabana as a romantic singer, through "Tender Is The Night," and dozens of weeks of sales with two other songs: "Cançao Do Fim" (Make Haste My Love) and more recently "Que Será De Ti," a Paraguayan guarania with Brazilian lyrics; "Noite Ilustrada" of Philips with his smash hit, "Volta Por Cima"; from Odeon Records, two names had remarkable stays on our charts: Trio Esperança, a vocal group formed by three kids, first with a Brazilian version of "Sad Movies" and still among the best sellers with "Baby Elephant Walk," and the great revelation of 1963, Altemar Dutra, a young songster who topped all our charts throughout the country, with "Tudo De Mim."

Chantecler, following its tradition, revealed another songstress, Idalina De Oliveira, TV publicity announcer, whose record "Amorzinho Querido" has been for several weeks in a top position among the best selling standards; Audio-Fidelity, beginning to record with Brazilian artists, had a strong chart rider, too: "Samba Em Preludio," done by Ana Lucia and Geraldo Vandré; another Philips singer who achieved enormous popularity in the past twelve months is Silvinho "Quem E, Amor Ingrato," "Esta Noite Eu Queria Que O Mundo Acabasse" are his best sellers.

In the International field, Brazil had some surprises, the biggest being the appearance of Bert Kaempfert and his orchestra, from Polydor, the most important of all of Ray Conniff's rivals. Speaking about Ray Conniff, his orchestra has been, once more, the most popular of the year. His album "'S Continental" stayed on our charts for more than 50 weeks!

These 12 months marked the beginning of a revolution that may produce results in the very near future: RCA and Odeon (Brazilian E.M.I.) decided to open a campaign against 78 rpm records (still very popular in Brazil). After the complete failure of 45 rpm records, all our companies began to press double-compacts in 33 1/3 rpm. Now the general idea is to press all standards in 7 inches and 33 1/3 rpm. We believe this will be accomplished, but not in the very near future, because the price of the equipment required for the reproduction of these records is very high. Nevertheless, we already have had several hits in little records, such as "Legata A Un Granello Di Sabbia," with Nico Fidenco, "Tutta La Gente," with this same Italian songster and "Tudo De Mim," with Altemar Dutra. But this last one has been pressed in 78 rpm, too.

Despite the crisis and all the difficulties, the Brazilian record industry is in constant progress and the outlook for next year is promising.

OF
Cash Box

August 10, 1963

Dear Friends:

Our "Baby" is now 21 years old. Born in 1942 – a small, skinny, brawling infant – it now is a man of gigantic proportions, a world leader.

As our "Baby" added years, it also added strength and stature. Conceived to fill a much needed gap 21 years ago, Cash Box rapidly gained the confidence of its readers and advertisers, because its function served the requirements of our industry – a fearless, honest, progressive, intelligent weekly publication, with complete UNDERSTANDING of the industry's problems. Cash Box, during its 21 years, has instituted any number of services, which were so sound and beneficial, that many were copied by our competition.
Copied – but never equalled.

Year after year, as Cash Box grew, it caught up and passed its elderly companions in the field – and as Cash Box attains its maturity in 1963 – it is the ACKNOWLEDGED LEADER in ALL phases of industry-wide service throughout the World.

This 21st Annual Directory, the largest, most complete, most comprehensive issue ever published in our industry, is Living Proof of Cash Box Leadership.

We thank our legion of friends throughout the World for making it possible to reach this historic milestone, and we assure them that we shall continue to serve them well in the years ahead.

10 YEARS CO-OPERATION

DAVID C. ROCKOLA,
President,
Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation

ALFRED ADICKES,
President,
NOVA Apparate GmbH & Co.

A rare combination of manufacturer and distributor: Rock-Ola Manufacturing Corporation and Nova Apparate, has brought about unprecedented success in the coin operated phonograph industry throughout Europe.

The result of this cooperation over the years can be seen everywhere on the Continent of Europe and the United Kingdom, where Rock-Ola phonographs appear on more sites than any other type of juke box.

Sales promotion, organisation and know-how, acquired in 35 years' experience, assisted by unsurpassed quality, perfection of the mechanism, styling and re-sell value, have made it possible that one may safely quote that more Rock-Ola phonographs are being sold today in most European markets than all other American produced phonographs put together. This achievement is a tribute to the cooperation between Rock-Ola and Nova. We look to many more years of mutual success.

Designed for PROFITABLE PLAY, ALWAYS CHOOSE

. . . and for good reasons, too! To name a few—

Valley has 20 years' experience in the woodworking industry. Valley makes only Pool Tables . . . It's our only business.

Valley even has its own plant for manufacturing cue sticks.

Valley pioneered and introduced Bumper Pool® Tables, and over the years has expanded its line to include a pool table for every need and every location.

Valley always stocks a full line of parts and accessories; thereby assuring operators of a constant source for quality replacements.

Valley Pool Tables are always competitively priced.

The ARISTOCRAT Man Has All The Answers

Q. Fine looking machine, but just how reliable is it? A. The Aristocrat will operate for 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

Q. Strong talk, but I suppose I'm on my own after the machines are delivered? A. On the contrary—the confidence in our machines is such that we guarantee them for one year and the clock for five years.

Q. Excellent—now, burglary can be a great worry to operators—how does the Aristocrat counter this? A. The Aristocrat is still the only machine with the all steel dougle-lock burglar-proof cabinet.

Q. Ideal!—any special features? A. A whole string of them—of particular interest, bent coin release and an automatic self-loading dropping jackpot, for any size coin you like.

Q. First rate—Aristocrat has everything—who makes these? A. AINSWORTH CONSOLIDATED INDUSTRIES (G.B.) LTD., 178, Grays Inn Road, London, W.C.1.—our telephone number TERminus 4317, and for CABLES, TELEGRAMS: AINDENT, LONDON.

ANALYSIS OF 1962 ANNUAL COIN MACHINE EXPORT VOLUME REPORT

GENERAL

The coin machine export business topped $30 million during 1962, a two and one-half million dollar gain over '61 with more than 86 thousand machines being shipped to foreign lands. Phonographs accounted for 40% of the volume, as did amusement machines, with vending coming through with 20% of the total. Vending was the only disappointment but to the specialists it was almost expected. Good things take time and this is the case with vending. The Latin countries were more disappointments. Few countries took what they did previous to this year and the shippers were almost as happy, many of them still awaiting payment from earlier orders. Late model music acounts for most of the juke box business with more and more of the new machines being manufactured in the foreign countries to overcome costs. The phonos were the steadiest figures and while games fell off on the totals there were some surprises, biggest of all was So. America where money and units doubled. France and the UK were strongest gainers in Europe for games. Africa just pulled out of the vending altogether after a weak try earlier. Again S.A. was way down on the merchandise machines and Australia almost tripled vending imports. The year was a good one and so was the equipment. That appears to be the main reason for the overall increases each year – the equipment gets better and the prices become more stable.

PHONOGRAPHS

The totals compared for the last two years are almost identical – $12 million plus each year. No. America, Europe, Asia, and many of the individual countries were recorded at about the exact volume in '62 as was set for '61. So. America's music dipped to less than half of '61. Big increases in Austria, Belgium, Finland, and a fair increase in the UK offset losses in Denmark, Ireland, Italy, Netherlands, Norway, Sweden, Switzerland and even West Germany where the domestic machines might be eating into US sales. Asia was down even though Japan kept abreast of previous sales. Malaya, Hong Kong, Lebanon, and Philipines made up the dips for the Continent's volume. Australia bought 288 juke boxes and made a gain. Liberia's 3200 machines didn't keep the total was falling off in Africa.

The Dominican Rep. amazed everyone when it registered $131 thousand topping last year's almost non-existent total of 6 machines. Jamaica was a sad awakening dropping from $200 thousand market to less than $50 thousand. Mexico increased business in phonos as it did in games, taking 400 phonographs from US plants. Nicaragua showed a steady increase, Panama dipped, and Trinidad almost fell off the board.

It was a good year for music machines and as the demand for late model phonographs continues, the juke box should stay on as the bread and butter machine of the market.

AMUSEMENT

The dollar volume on games increased by almost $2.5 million but the unit volume stayed at about the same thereby accounting for the higher prices on games due to the new and later model demand for fast-moving equipment. No. America was up almost $300 thousand with the Bahamas, Canada, Greenland, Panama, and Trinidad accounting for gains but with Mexico zooming from a piddling 80 machines in '61 to more than 1000 units last year.

With the gains come the losers and they were Dom. Republic, Haiti, Iceland, and Jamaica. They move around so fast you can't tell the importers without a scorecard these days.

So. America registered a resounding increase with double the business for '62. Argentina, Columbia, Ecuador, Surinam, Uruguay and Venezuela more than made up for losses registered on music. The games pulled this market through the bad months. Europe, the mainstay of the games export business took the same number of machines as last year but again the prices were up. Individual gains were made in France – from $2 to $3 million – Greece – a triple in imports – Ireland – who took 150 games – Norway – another big increase here – Spain – who doubled – Switzerland – 50% increase – and the UK who topped the $2.6 million figure. West Germany, Netherlands, and Belgium all were down in numbers of games.

Asia's games volume dipped as did Japan's. Almost in half was the unit and dollar volume report. Among the losers: Hong Kong, Korea, Singapore, big loser Thailand, made up the losses. Big increases were posted in Lebanon, Nansei Is., and Vietnam, a small user but in any event one which doubled its take to $8 thousand taking 10 machines.

Africa was a letdown after '61. The year brought only 356 machines into the Continent and Ethiopia bought 259 of them. Every other country of any consequence showed a loss for the year.

VENDING

Vending didn't quite make the $6 million mark in '61: In '62 it couldn't hold on and dropped to $5.3 million. But the experts continue to say "wait'll next year" and they're probably right. Our pipelines into Europe advise that the vending market must grow slowly. It's a different business over there and until the combined European technical know-how and American merchandising savvy jibe we can await improved conditions. The market did represent 20% of the total however and here's the way it looked at year's end:

No. and Central America stayed the same. So. America fell off almost to a halt. Europe, the proving ground for vending, stayed constant. Asia took more machines but the prices were lower – older models. Australia failed. Africa dropped out of the picture entirely. Canada is doing almost all of the business in No. America. Argentina dipped to a standstill, and they were carrying the Continent. Belgium took mostly new machines, fewer than last year. Finland showed gains as it did across the board. Italy fell in half. Netherlands stayed the same. Norway took fifty machines for a try. The Swiss held their own and the U.K. dipped by about 20%. West Germany was off to half the previous number of units but they were of new and later models. Asia was steady with Japan taking about two-thirds of the volume. Thailand showed interest and as in games registered a good improvement. The vending picture was spotty but promising. Perhaps we'll take the experts advice and wait till '63 reports in.

Cinebox Films

NEW YORK—Doring-Loch Productions has been signed to produce a series of 10 special color films by Cinevision Corp. of America for the new entertainment medium Cinebox, the motion picture-juke box. The films will feature name vocalists, bands and dancers. Cinebox resembles a juke-box with a 21-inch movie screen mounted on top. The customer consults a selection board and chooses one of the 40 color sound films.

George Vosburgh, representing Doring-Loch, and M. S. (Mickey) Greenman of Cinebox will decide whether the films will be produced in New York or Hollywood.

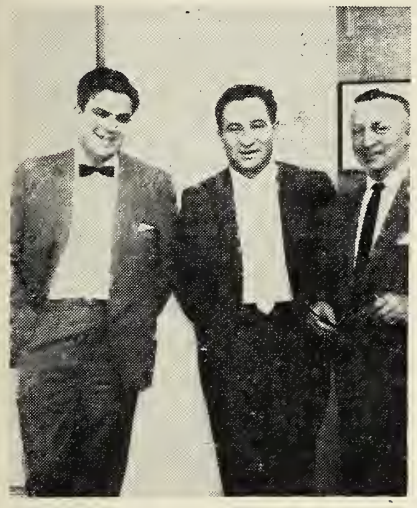
Gisser Studies Export Market, Sees Potential In Crane, Kiddie Rides

CLEVELAND — The Holly Crane, highly popular machine once manufactured in this country, is being duplicated by a European firm and with great success, according to Morris Gisser, president of Cleveland Coin International, exporters of all types of coin-operated equipment.



FOREIGN VISITORS: L. to r., Mr. Geller, Mr. Dubcovsky, and Morris Gisser discuss export business. The coinmen are from Buenos Aires.

The crane, which is called "Jaguar," has been refined and one of the new features includes a service advantage. The machine can be operated on any voltage presently existing in the foreign fields. The coin chute is made available for all foreign coins since the machine is designed for the world's markets.

Gisser does a big export volume and studies many of the markets he serves. At the moment, in addition to the crane possibilities, Gisser is watching the kiddie ride market. He claims they are being reproduced in certain foreign countries and where shipping is an important factor, the Cleveland firm may be in a position to serve these markets very shortly.

Cleveland Coin International has been recently developing the Japanese markets with success and looks to a larger export volume this year than during any previous year in the export firm's history.

MOA Execs Call On West Coast Outlets

LOS ANGELES—Harry Snodgrass, President of MOA, and Bob Blundred, Managing Director were in Los Angeles last week on a visit with a twofold purpose. They were here first to discuss plans for the 1963 MOA Convention with game manufacturers and West Coast record companies, and second to explore the question of "what MOA can do to be of greater assistance to the record companies." Harry Snodgrass said the visit would enable him "to explore the many facets of the phonograph and record industries and find where the two can assist each other in improving joint relationships." Snodgrass also added that he found it was "the unanimous opinion of the record companies that they wish to assist MOA in the overall development of the music industry."

■ Next Stop, The House Of Representatives

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The Celler Bill HR 7194 which was voted upon favorably by the Full House Judiciary Committee on July 25 will be reported upon by the Committee to the House of Representatives for action on the House Calendar. The Bill must also go before the House Rules Committee before it is considered for action by the House.

The Celler Bill calls for outright repeal of the present juke box operator exemption from the Copyright Act of 1909. There has been no fee proposal nor collection method outlined in the bill. In the terms of the Washington politicos, it is a "clean" Bill and will do nothing more than remove the exemption.

As for methods of collection, it is the opinion of people of authority that the Performance Rights Societies will follow through on a clause in the Bill which excludes location owners from paying the fee, but obligates the location owner to give the name of the music machine operator who in turn will then be contacted by a Society representative and a bargaining arrangement will take place.

Enormous as the task seems, ASCAP for one is quite capable of such a program, and since the Bill, if voted upon favorably, will not go into effect until 1965, it is expected that a large majority of music operators will be paying the performance rights fee or stand ready to suffer the consequences of infringement of the Copyright Act.

The road ahead for the Bill's progress is a long one. Following the House action, if any, the Bill must go to the Senate where similar hearings are held. But it is the opinion of those in Washington that the Bill's chances of passage are better than ever before.

Representatives of the Music Machine Operators have gone on record as saying that 100% opposition will continue to be the program for defense and that the battle will continue every step of the way.

At press time there was no official word on the progress of the Bill since the Full House voted favorably two weeks ago.

Hermitage Forms Vendors Inc., Acquires Beavers's Assets, Plans Bulk Vendor Production By Sept.

NASHVILLE, TENN.—C. V. (Red) Hitchcock, president of Hermitage Music Company, distrubutor of coin-operated phonographs and vending equipment, and president of Southern Plastics, Inc., major pressing manufacturer for phonograph records, announced the formation of a new corporation for the purpose of manufacturing and selling bulk vending machines. Vendor Mfrs., Inc. has acquired from a Canadian corporation the sole rights for manufacturing bulk vending equipment (formerly known as Beaver).

"Red" Hitchcock, long noted in the coin-operated field, formed Hermitage Sales and Novelty Company in 1928 and later changed the identity to Hermitage Music Company in 1935. Since 1948 Hermitage Music Company has been a distributor of records, coin-operated equipment, parts and supplies.

Southern Plastics which was formerly named Bullet Plastics originated in 1947 and was a subsidiary of Bullet Recording Company which at that time had the biggest record to date ("Near You" by Francis Craig and "Beg Your Pardon"). The name was changed to Southern Plastics some five years ago and since that time has built one of the most modern independent record pressing plants in the industry.

"Red" Hitchcock further stated that the new corporation is in the process of setting up the assembly line on the bulk vending equipment and will be turning out machines by September 1st.

Ainsworth Plans Machine Intro For Nevada

LONDON—Under the leadership of General Manager, Hal Eldridge, Ainsworth Consolidated Industries (Great Britain) Ltd. has enjoyed another year of increasing success and prosperity. Since commencing U.K. operations in 1960 sales of Aristocrat machines have been doubled each year. The company is at present seeking new premises in order to meet increasing business.

Their latest model, 'Nevada,' which is due to make its bow in Las Vegas and Reno shortly will also be seen in Great Britain by the end of the year. The 'Nevada' is expected to attract a great deal of attention particularly from operators in clubs and hotels whose numbers are continually increasing.

Meantime the full range of Aristocrat, Sheerline, Standard, Wild Ace, Gold Award and Criss Cross continue to register high figure sales. Their large range of symbols include fruit and card strips.

Seeburg (GB) Ltd. Celebrates 1st Anny.

LONDON—During the last twelve months Seeburg (Great Britain) Ltd. celebrated their first anniversary in the London office. The major event of the Seeburg year, both here and on the continent, has been the introduction of the Seeburg Console, specially designed for high income locations.

As far as Great Britain is concerned, General Manager, John Henderson, reports that since the launching party in November last year the machine has met with general approval from operators throughout the United Kingdom. The Consolettes, too, have been widely accepted in this country. Nearly every installation of a Console has been accompanied by a Consolette.

Plans formulated last year for the introduction of Seeburg Vending have now materialised. In addition to the Bally Coffee Vendor which brews freshly ground coffee a cup at a time; the Choice-Vend range of bottle and can vending machines offering selections ranging from 72-250 bottles or 390 cans and a console cigarette vendor, Seeburg have also launched the seven selection cold drink machine which has the unique feature of offering crushed ice with every drink if required.

Symplay Sales Up 75%

LONDON—Ray Seabrook, Managing Director of Symplay Ltd., sole United Kingdom Importers and Distributors of equipment manufactured by Th. Bergmann & Co. of Hamburg, reports that the company's turnover at the end of their second year in this country, is up by 75 per cent. During the last twelve months the most important new machine to be imported into this country by Symplay has been the Th. Bergmann manufactured Arizona Shooting Gallery featuring a pistol firing real slugs. The machine attracted considerable interest when shown both at the Northern Amusement Exhibition at Blackpool last December and at the Amusement Trades Exhibition in London earlier this year.

Increased interest in the juke box market has also benefitted Symplay who have ben remarkably successful with the new S100 wall and console models introduced here in October of last year. The S80 and S200 consoles continue to maintain steady sales.

Juke Box Distribs Expands

LONDON—Juke Box Distributors, in the last twelve months, have continued to expand considerably in all branches of their business. As main London distributors for the Rowe-AMI phonographs, the company reports that during the unprecedented boom of re-equipping and the buying of new machines which took place in the Spring, Rowe-AMI enjoyed a very fair share of the market.

6-Month License For $5.50

Illinois Dept. of Revenue Announces $10 Tax

CHICAGO—The Department of Revenue, State of Illinois, released a bulletin last week which is of interest to the coin machine industry, particularly in the State of Illinois. The bulletin follows: All coin-operated amusement devices are now subject to an annual license tax of $10, to be paid by the operator of the device. These devices include coin-operated: juke boxes, pool games, pin-ball games, gun-ray devices, shuffleboards, hockey games, baseball games, horse racing games, fortune-telling machines and all similar devices. Each must display the tax license.

Each license expires July 31st of each year. A six-month license will be issued on any machine which begins operation after January 31st of any year. It will cost $5.50. Where a machine begins operation before January 31st, a full-year license will be required even if the device is operated for less than a full year.

It is unlawful to operate a coin-operated amusement device without a license. The proper tax must be paid in order to obtain the license. Unlawful operation of such a device constitutes a misdemeanor; and also subjects the operator to a penalty of 20% of the tax due. An unlawfully operated coin-operated amusement device is subject to seizure by any authorized employee of the Department without notice.

The license ruling was passed last month when Illinois Governor Otto Kerner signed a new law which, in effect, legalizes pingames as amusement devices. A second bill reduced the State tax from a former $50 to $10 per machine. Coinmen noted the reduced-price feature of a six-month license available for machines which do not go into locations until after January 31.

Cine-Sonic Studio Offers 240 Lines

NEW YORK—The Cine-Sonic Sound Corp. has available for background music operators, its Model 1001 which utilizes 240 separate telephone lines from a complete studio. The machine is leased or sold by Cine-Sonic's president, Iz Edelman, in conjunction with a 14" reel-to-reel music library consisting of pre-recorded tapes from the Cine-Sonic library.

Edelman's program has been researched by him for several years. The firm's library has 820 hours of music on 83 reels, according to Edelman. Special tapes offer 16 hours of music. Cine-Sonic's library boasts 820 hours of music via 83 reels. Special tapes are prepared to play for 16 hours. Operators can order from Cine-Sonic, as follows: Minimum order to start: 5 reels, with 2 changes per month at no extra charge, $40.00; 7 reels, with 3 changes per month at no extra charge, $60.00; or 10 reels, with 5 changes per month, for $75.00 per month. Quantity orders are priced accordingly.

Exporter's Answer To Saturation: Diversify

■ Belam Develops Markets, The AMI Phono, and Increase Sales By 15%

NEW YORK—"In spite of some terribly flashy and amusing news releases from overseas in which coin machines are mixed with Adenauer, DeGaulle, Kennedy and the Common Market, the truth is that coin exports have never been so good in the overall picture. In fact, while some countries may become saturated, others are opening up. Therefore, diversification in promotion and marketing is the only answer to saturation and definitely maintains the growth of our exports," said Morris Nahum, Sales Director of Belamex Vending International.

"Looking one year ahead, is our constant policy at R. H. Belam Company Inc. For instance, we have to make evaluations on which countries will open up in 1964, and therefore aim our promotions and our overseas trips accordingly. Moreover, like any manufacturer who plans his next model, for the coming year's production, we have to bear in mind the need and taste of the new market which is the next target," stated Nahum.

"As a result, our pre-established promotion allows us to market certain machines which have not been so successful in other countries, but seem to be liked in the new market. This also means growth, as well as additional buying power to our Company.

"As an example, we have created by planned promotions, unexpected and lucrative new markets for used AMI phonographs which previously tended to trail behind other brands, in standard Western European markets. Surprisingly, when a liking is finally created for a specific brand, it applies to all its models whether new or old, whether a peach or a lemon. For instance, during the first 6 months of 1960, we had exported 33 AMI phonographs, while in the same period for 1963, we have exported 377 AMI phonographs, to several markets which did not even exist in 1960.

"General statistics as well as specific statistics on each country help us to make decisions for diversification, but of all figures, these who make us the happiest are the Dollar Volume Indexes, which, for 1963, on adjusted figures of first 6 months, shows an increase of 15% on sales, (in spite of January's strike)," concluded the international coinman.

Scopitone Movie-Music Machine Going Over In Canada, U.K. Starts Good, U.S.A. Next

■ Thibault Expects To Place 300 During Next Year

TORONTO—The Scopitone, French-made movie-music machine, may be new to the trade but its celebrating its First Anniversary here in Canada, thanks to distributor Gerard Thibault.

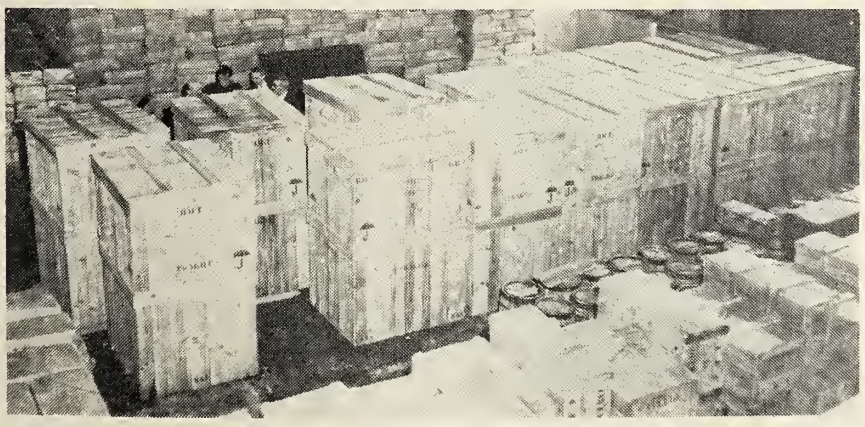
The coin machine firm imported its first two machines last August, and since that time 55 machines have arrived and all are doing well, according to the Canadian outlet. Thibault expects to receive from CAMECA, French manufacturer, about 300 more machines by next year.

Thibault finds many transit locations suitable for the machines and claims that young and old alike pay to see the films. The production of the films continues to amaze tavern and restaurant owners who have the machine on location. Thibault claims that service costs on the machine are low, and that the popularity of the stars appearing on the machine's screen runs high once exposure is made.

The Canadian distrib displayed the Scopitone at the recent Canadian Restaurant Assoc. Exhibition here, and again at the annual National Exhibition Hotel show.

The Scopitone has been on location in Great Britain for six months and there are now 100 machines in the country, according to reports. Twenty of the machines are located in London. The machine is distributed by Radiovision Ltd. The machine features 36 selections on a 19" screen.

Reports were received in NYC that plans were underway for the US licensing of the machine and a Westbury, N.Y. company was representing the firm in N.Y. The William Morris Agency will produce films for the French-made machine.



FOURTEEN SCOPITONES arrive for distribution by Girard Thibault, exclusive Canadian distributor of the French-made movie-music machine.

In Both Export and Domestic Markets, our good Reputation has been Established for over Twenty-Seven years.

HOW'S YOUR PROFIT?

FROM CIGARETTE MACHINES ?

FROM BEVERAGE DISPENSERS ?

FROM CANDY VENDING ?

FROM BACKGROUND MUSIC No Limit!

Why has the income from Background Music jumped from 3% to 30% of total business by Coin Machine Operators in the last 10 years?

Because the progressive operator knows:

1. His return on investment is tops — in many cases better than 100% the first year.
2. It's less work — once a Tape-Athon unit is installed, it runs itself automatically. Reliable — trouble free — no "ratrace" service calls.
3. The business is already there, in volume–your present customers are the best prospects available (plus those you've been losing).

Sun Refinishing Expands, To Open West Coast Branch

FT. WORTH—Gus Sundman of Sun Refinishing Company here announced last week that the firm will open a branch office in California during the fall season where work will begin on the refinishing of juke boxes. In addition to workshop revisions on frames, cabinets, glass and general styling, the machines are completely overhauled. The firm makes available through a mail order division, special do-it-yourself kits which have been accepted very well by the trade.

Sundman's current specialties include conversions on all four manufacturers' early model machines into Sun's refinished line. The firm's machines include: Model 100B, 100C, Model V & VL200, Model 100 R&J and Model 100 W&G. Restyling includes rebuilt selectors with new switches, glass domes and new display panels. Sun's staff works out of its Fort Worth shops now and will remain in Fort Worth after the west coast showrooms have been set-up. Sundman will move to the coast temporarily to personally supervise the California branch activities.

Mar-Tab Plans Export Division

MIAMI—Florida Congressman Claude Pepper of Dade County (center) discussed Mar-Tab Vending's plans for a new export division with top company officials here during recent Open House ceremonies. Occasion was dedication of a new $365,000 office-warehouse-distribution center at Sunshine State Industrial Park for Castlewood International Corporation, of which Mar-Tab is a division. Filling in the details for the Democratic lawmaker, a recognized expert on foreign trade matters, were Sol Tabb (left), president, and Harold Craver, vice president. The new export division, part of Mar-Tab's continuing expansion program, will service Central and South America as well as the Caribbean area.

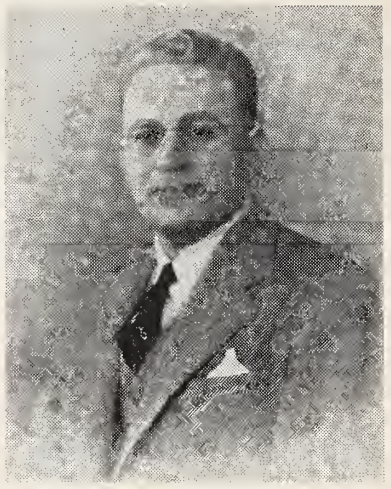
Paul Cusano Dead

■ Founded American Shuffleboard



PAUL CUSANO

HASBROUCK HEIGHTS, N.J.—Paul Cusano, 55, inventor and manufacturer, died here last week after a long illness. He was founder and president of the American Shuffleboards, billiards and coin-operated games.

Cusano founded the American Cabinet and Billiard Company in 1928, changing the name later to American Shuffleboard, when the concern's chief product became table shuffleboards. He held a number of important patents in the woodworking field, chief among which was the famous "Climatic Adjusters" which revolutionized shuffleboard manufacturing in the late 1940's. He was also the inventor of the cushion and rebound shuffleboard, which is still popular in many parts of the country.

Born in Buenos Aires, Argentina Cusano was brought to this country as an infant by his parents. They settled in Connecticut where he was educated, graduating eventually from Madison High School, Madison, Conn. He later attended Dartmouth College where he was a member of the varsity baseball team, but left in his senior year to found the cabinet-making concern. Under his guidance American became the world's largest producer of table shuffleboards, supplying these units to taverns, recreation centers and naval installations throughout the world.

It was Cusano who started and supervised American shuffleboard Leagues (ASLI) which conducted city, state and national tournaments in the early 1950s. At Peoria, Ill., in 1950, Cusano's firm backed the first National tournament with more than $50,000 in cash prize money, thus attracting teams and players from 23 states.

Cusano's faith in the coin-operated game business was so keen that in the mid-1950s he concentrated all the energies of his plants to it. Such sidelines as kitchen cabinet tops and other products were quietly dropped while shuffleboard and billiards became the chief centers of interest, as they were at the time of his death.

According to Nicholas Melone, general manager of the company, the same policies of "Quality materials and workmanship" which were the Cusano hallmark will be continued. "The perfectionism which characterized Paul Cusano has been contagious," Melone said, "and it would be hard to change our habits now."

Cusano is survived by his wife, the former Mary Allegro, two children, Paul, Jr., 17 and Donna 10, his mother, Teresa, and two brothers, Louis and Armand. A Solemn High Mass was held at Corpus Christi Church here on Thursday, August 1st.

Words are merely words

integrity, reliability, performance, excellence, etc...

Williams began in 1943 with 25 employees in a 5,000 square foot work area. Today, 20 years later, and serving dealers the world over, Williams is located in its own 78,000 square foot factory and employs 400 individuals. This is more than a success story. There is a reason for the growth and transformation. The reason is, plainly, that the name "Williams" means integrity with excellence as the standard in producing games reflecting imagination that perform reliably.

The Williams' reputation is founded upon its business—its business is games—its games are best.

EL TORO

El Toro is a "game-and-half." It is representative of Williams' finely engineered products and features Williams' essentials: guaranteed profit, locked cash box, slug rejector, the durable Plastikote playfield with the Williams' exclusive, simple, Finger tip controlled, Lock-Latch which eliminates trouble from servicing.

El Toro is a 2-player replay game with an extra ball feature, dual drop targets with "special" scores, number match feature, multiple roll-overs, targets, jet bumpers, flippers, and rebound kickers which all add up to fun with score galore.

The 1963 Parts Catalog is now available to you without cost.

Harry Jacobs, Jr., Milwaukee Wurlitzer Distributor, and Evelyn Green discuss the potential earnings of the Ten Top Tunes on the Wurlitzer 2700.

50% BOOST IN EARNINGS

Evelyn Green, owner of Evelyn's Starlight Diner, with one of the three Model 5010 Wurlitzer Wall Boxes installed on the counter of her diner.

WURLITZER 2700 PLUS FOUR HALF-DOLLAR, SINGLE-COIN TEN TOP TUNE WALL BOXES, JUMP TAKE IN EVELYN'S STARLIGHT DINER

Evelyn's Starlight Diner, 1501 W. Walnut St., Milwaukee, was averaging $60 a week with an older Wurlitzer. Replaced by a Wurlitzer 2700 with the 10 TOP TUNES FEATURE and four Wurlitzer Model 5010 Half-Dollar, Single-Coin Wall Boxes — three on the counter and one on the wall in a separate room — the earnings jumped 50% to $90 a week.

Ideal for counter, bar or wall, these compact Wurlitzer Boxes are making the exclusive Wurlitzer Ten Top Tunes feature an even more potent profit-producer. See Your Wurlitzer Distributor NOW!
